Browns Drub 'Skins To Gain Lead Tie

By ED WILKS

Not an undefeated team remained in the National Football League Monday as the Baltimore Colts and the Los Angeles Rams, last of the unbeaten, were sent sprawling in Sunday's games to throw the Western Conference title race into a three-way tie.

The Detroit Lions, meanwhile, still are without a 1955 victory after winning three consecutive Western championships. San Francisco handed the Lions their fourth defeat, scoring 21 points in the final quarter to win 27-24.

Chicago's Bears won their first of the season, thumping the Colts 38-10. The Green Bay Packers chilled the Rams, scoring a 50-28 triumph on Fred Cone's 26-yard field goal with 24 seconds left in the game. That deadlocked the Colts, Packers and Rams for the conference lead with 3-1 records.

Browns Drub Redskins

In the Eastern Conference, Cleveland gained a share of the lead with Pittsburgh's Steelers by handing the Washington Redskins their second defeat 24-14. Pittsburgh qualified for the lead with a 13-7 decision over Philadelphia Saturday night.

The Chicago Cardinals wound up in a tie with Washington for third after a 10-0 loss to the New York Giants. It was the first New York victory of the season — and the first shutout of the NFL campaign.

Cone, who booted three field goals for the Packers at Milwaukee, tilted the decision back to Green Bay's favor after Los Angeles seemingly had won it with some 11th hour heroics of its own.

With little more than 3 minutes to play, Jim Cason intercepted a Tobin Rote pass and scooted 25 yards for a TD that gave the Rams a 28-27 edge.

Rote Breaks Record

Rote set a Packer record, breaking the mark set by the immortal Cecil Isbell, with three touchdown passes that upped his total to 61. Isbell heaved 59. Another Rote mark ended — he had thrown 106 passes without interception until the Rams' Bill Sherman hauled one down.

The Bears, who had scored only 39 points in their first three games, almost matched that total against the Colts.

It was 3-3 after the first quarter, when Chicago's George Blanda and Baltimore's Bert Rechichar exchanged field goals, but the Bear's Rick Casares, a 225-pound rookie halfback from Florida, ripped the game open with an 81-yard touchdown run, shaking loose

McGuire Tops Lefty Golfers

EUGENE — Walt McGuire, Portland, carded a par 71 Sunday to win the Oregon Left-handers golf tournament.

That gave him a total of 146 for the 36-hole tourney played at the Laurelwood Country Club course.

Jack Walters of Tacoma, Saturday's pacesetter with a 72, fell to a 77 for second place with 149. Ed Logue, Portland, carded 76-78-154 for third and Bill Brayton, Eugene, was fourth with 79-76-155.

Raymond Adams, Seattle, was net winner with 134 followed by Morris Weigel, Seattle, who had 140.

Clay Carson, Eugene, won senior laurels with a 76. Don Stokes, Corvallis, and Tom Lowery, Longview, tied for senior net honors with 75s.

BELLS FOR BELLS
BELLS, Tex. — Football was discontinued at the high school here because only 13 turned out. The coach said the school had at least 20 potential candidates but that they didn't feel like playing.

Top Grid Clubs Suffer Upsets Over Weekend

By WILL GRIMSLEY
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The bottom fell out of the skies in the East and the dam burst in college football, shattering national dreams Monday from one end of the country to the other.

In a week-end of violent resurgence on the part of underdogs, four members of the top ten—Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Texas Christian—were smitten from the ranks of the unbeaten and untied, along with a pair of regional powerhouses, Washington and Princeton.

In the wake of the carnage only ten teams of bigtime stature were left with unspoiled records.

These were Maryland, with five straight victories; Michigan, Holy Cross, Oklahoma, Navy, Duke, West Virginia, Yale and Colorado, with four each; and Boston College, with three.

Army Defeated
High-ranked Army lost its second game in eight days, bowing to Syracuse, a three-touchdown underdog, 13-0. Rice, the Southwest Conference title favorite, was smothered by Southern Methodist 20-0. Dartmouth lost to Lafayette 21-13 and Brown fell before Rutgers 14-12.

It was the heaviest casualty list among the gridiron's "sure things" since the season began approximately a month ago.

Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, fourth-ranked nationally and unscathed in their opening three games, went down 21-7 before tired Michigan State, which convinced a national television audience of its superiority on the occasion.

While the Spartans' hard-hitting line throttled Notre Dame's scoring punch, fullback Gerry Planits sparked the Michigan State attack, scoring one touchdown, setting up another and kicking the three extra points.

Georgia Tech Bows
Georgia Tech, the No. 5 team, found Auburn's Howard Tubbs too tough and went down 14-12. Tubbs' passing was responsible for both Auburn scores as the Alabama team, tied by Kentucky but unbeaten, moved to the forefront for Southeastern Conference honors and a Sugar Bowl bid.

Wisconsin, No. 6, was a 33-21 Friday night victim of rebounding Southern California while Texas Christian, No. 7, saw one of its greatest teams fall before Texas A&M 19-16.

The always wide open Southwest Conference race, with the Colton Bowl bid as its chief prize, was thrown into further confusion by Arkansas' 27-20 victory over Texas.

Washington's Huskies, with four big wins on a string, fell before a smaller but faster Baylor team, led by double-threat Bobby Jones, 13-7. Unbeaten Princeton, one of the best of the Ivy group, was completely outplayed by Colgate, which won in a rainstorm 15-6.

Top Three Win
The present "big three" of the college picture—Michigan, Maryland and Oklahoma, who rank in that order in The Associated Press poll—had mild Saturday assignments and came through, although top-ranked Michigan was not overly impressive.

Michigan, which eked out a 14-7 triumph over Michigan State two weeks ago for the latter's only setback, had an unexpectedly hard time with Northwestern 14-2. Maryland won its 10th straight game over a two-year period, beating

New Yorkers Gain 1st Win

Gifford, Agajanian Score for Victors

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK — Ben Agajanian Sunday booted a first period field goal and Frank Gifford scored a third period touchdown as the New York Giants splashed to a 10-0 victory over the Chicago Cardinals before a 7,000 water-soaked spectators who braved a steady downpour to watch the Giants celebrate their homecoming.

It was the first victory of the National Football League season for the Giants, who had dropped three successive games on the road. The announced paid attendance actually was 17,246 but less than half defied the almost impossible elements.

The soggy, slushy Polo Grounds was unfit for Penguins, much less people, as the mud-splattered athletes of both teams slogged, slid, slipped and slithered all over the lake-filled park with little success. As a result, 10 fumbles were committed as the Cardinals gained the dubious distinction of suffering the first shutout in professional football this year.

Few Passes Used

Only three first downs via passing were made, or by the Giants, as the two teams confined their action almost exclusively to the ground, which was the lesser of two evils.

The Giants tried only seven passes and completed four of them for 55 of their 222 total yards gained. The Cards attempted 20 aerials, most of them in a desperate last quarter. They completed nine for 32 of their 144 yards.

Rookie Alex Webster and veterans Gifford and Bobby Epps did all the running for the Giants, totaling 174 yards among them. Chuck Conery did all the passing.

For the Cards, Ollie Matson, with 42 yards, and Dave Mann, with 41, did nearly all the running. Lamar McHan, second year man

Aussies Turn Down Pro Bids

SYDNEY, Australia — Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad, Australia's young Davis Cup aces, have decided to turn down Jack Kramer's professional offer and keep playing tennis as amateurs.

The dark-haired Rosewall told The Associated Press Monday: "I decided to remain an amateur for at least two more years over the weekend. It's been a worry and I'm glad the decision has been made. Lew made his decision and I made mine. We did not influence each other."

Hoad made no immediate comment.

Earlier, the two sporting goods firms which employ Rosewall and Hoad announced that the pair would remain amateurs.

Salary Reported

Rosewall has been employed by a sporting goods firm and it is believed he received about $2,500 per year salary. He also has an offer from a milk company and he indicated there would be talks before he decided just what he would do for the latter corporation.

Rosewall's sporting goods employer indicated Ken would get a substantial boost.

"I have decided to remain amateur for some time at least, having an attractive offer made me by (the sporting goods firm) and milk company," said Rosewall.

"I always liked playing amateur tennis and now I am glad I have made this decision."

"I hope to represent Australia and do well in all international contests plus all main tournaments throughout the world."

Offers Made
The announcements followed intense speculation as to what the Davis Cup pair would decide in answer to an offer from U.S. professional Jack Kramer to join his troupe.

When Rosewall returned home last week from an overseas tour — during which he and Hoad helped reclaim the Davis Cup from the United States last August — it was generally predicted that the two would turn pro.

In Los Angeles, Kramer said the announcement that the Aussies had decided against turning professional "hit me like a ton of bricks."

Seattle Man New PNSA President

BELLINGHAM, Wash. — Robert St. Louis, Seattle, was elected president of the Pacific Northwest Ski Assn. at the close of its two day meeting here Sunday.

Other officers elected were: William Everts, Boise, first vice president; Ot' Ross, Wenatchee, second vice president; Marion Whiting, Portland, treasurer, and Mrs. Charles Lawton, Portland, secretary.

Named to the executive committee were Don Morbeck and Don Peters, of Lakeview, Ore.; Gustav Raam, Seattle, and Nelson Bennett, of Sun Valley.

The dates of more than 70 tournaments in the Northwest were approved for the coming season.

Sold
Bill Dials, above, workhorse of the 1955 Salem Senators pitching corps has been sold outright to the Sacramento Solons of the Coast League, it was announced Sunday by General Manager Hugh Luby of the Senators.

California soundly thrashed Wisconsin 33-21 on Friday night. On Saturday, Oregon beat California 21-0. Washington State took Idaho 9-0 while College of Pacific handed Oregon State a 13-7 loss.

The Bears of Baylor led Washington score first and most of the 42,000 fans at Seattle thought the Huskies were on their way again.

A second drive was stopped only inches from Baylor's goal but the Huskies fumbled and Baylor recovered.

Jones Leads Bears

Then the Bears' quarterback, Bobby Jones, hitting at weaknesses in the Huskies' desperately shifting defense, piloted his club for two scores and a 13-7 win.

At Palo Alto, UCLA hit for three touchdowns the first quarter and it looked like the track meet had started. Then the Indians came back in the second half to give the Bruins all the football they wanted for one afternoon.

The final score was 21-13 in favor of UCLA but the battling Indians were on UCLA's ten yard stripe as the final gun exploded. Coach Red Sanders commented

Couples Gain Semifinal Play

The field in the Husband-Wife golf tournament was narrowed to the semi-finalists at the Salem Golf Club Sunday as the golfers enjoyed swinging away under sunny skies.

Those who gained the semifinals in the championship flight were Mr. and Mrs. Don Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Chase.

The Huffs won over Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams, the Roths over Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson, and the Chases over Mr. and Mrs. Ken Potts. The Olingers drew a bye.

Sunday's results in the other flights were:

First flight—Mr. and Mrs. Red Smith over Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nicholls; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Ellis over Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lowry, bye; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wood, bye.

Second flight—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ivie over Mr. and Mrs. Chet Loe; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward over Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Prall.

Third flight—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Marble over Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dyer; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Nelson over Mr. and Mrs. Val Sloper; Mr. and Mrs. J. McAlvin over Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead; Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill, bye.

The SGC will host the semifinal round in the tourney next Sunday.

Hugh Luby Reports . . .

Senators Sell Dials, Buy Tri-City Pitcher

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Salem Senators General Manager Hugh Luby was bubbling with baseball news Sunday, shortly before the eve of the annual Senators stockholders meeting Tuesday night at the Labor Temple. Luby and Senators President George Paulus attended the Northwest League meeting Saturday at

Yakima, and returned with the following items:

(1) Pitcher Bill Dials, workhorse of the Senators club the past season, has been sold outright to the Sacramento Solons of the Coast League.

(2) The Senators have purchased Lefthander Ross Ruge, a youngster highly regarded by Sacramento, from the Tri-City Braves.

(3) Orrin (Babe) Hollingbery, president of the league, is retiring from office because of ill health, and a committee, including Paulus, has been assigned to nominate possibilities for a new president by the time of the next meeting, in November.

(4) No official applications for membership in the league were forthcoming during the recent meeting at Yakima, but feelers will be sent to both Tacoma and Klamath Falls, which are listed as possible additions to the 7-team circuit.

(5) All seven members expressed reasonable satisfaction with the 1955 league season, and all reported they were looking forward to the 1956 campaign.

(6) The same league rules pertaining to veteran players, (Continued on next page.)

Campbell Boat Sinks in Lake

Bluebird's Attempt At New Record Fails

By BOB MYERS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Britisher Donald M. Campbell failed Sunday in an attempt to break his own world speed record with his jet-propelled hydroplane and then had the dismal experience of seeing his $100,000 boat sink in Lake Mead after the record attempt.

The sleek Bluebird sank in about 50 feet of water while it was about 100 yards from a dock at Lake Mead's Boulder Beach. Campbell made a valiant effort to save the boat and he and his crew were able to fasten a tow line to it before it went down. Then the 34-year-old Campbell scrambled to safety.

Boat Recovered
Sunday night the Bluebird was brought to the surface of the lake, near the shore, and Campbell, after taking a look, said it would take him about four weeks to get it ready for any more speed trials.

During the two speed runs over a measured mile course the Bluebird encountered heavy swells and the official average was 155,000 miles per hour, far below the world

Boros Leads Pack In Money Earning

CHICAGO — Julius Boros, who needed to win the $50,000 "World" tourney prize to do it, apparently has pro golfer's 1955 money-earning championship wrapped up with $61,121.55.

Some $20,000 behind, official Professional Golfers' Assn. of America statistics disclosed Sunday, is Dr. Cary Middlecoff, who has extracted $39,567 from the play-or-pay circuit.

Gain after 'em...

By DON HARGER

Benjamin Cave, Salem architect, was telling us about a recent duck shoot in South Dakota and came up with amusing stories we have heard in some time.

The current waterfowl season opened on October 1 in S. D. as it is in the central flyway. Also the shooting started at noon. Ben and some friends were in a good spot for some pass shooting and were awaiting the whistle hour to start shooting. To play safe they waited until their watches pointed to five after noon.

The early shooting was good and a few ducks were down when nearby a car skidded to a stop with siren screaming and red lights flashing. Across the land hurried a federal warden. Says he, "Sorry boys, but I'll have to take your guns and your ducks and place you under arrest."

"For what?" asked one of the Cave party.

"You were shooting too early," said the warden. The supposed guilty hunters argued that their watches showed nearly twelve-thirty. The warden's watch must be wrong. The warden assured them that it was not wrong. After much arguing which accomplished little the boys talked the warden into taking a time check on his car radio. He did. The time check showed that it was 12:30 p.m., and that the warden's watch was wrong.

"That is funny," he said, "I set my watch by the old hotel clock in Bismarck just before I came out here."

"What clock was that?" one of the party asked.

"The hotel clock," replied the officer.

Some of the boys laughed then and offered the following: "You must be new around here, officer. That clock hasn't run in years."

Olson Snags Pound-Per-Inch Salmon

Robert Olson, Salem salmon enthusiast, scored well Saturday morning on the Salmon river. Using a salt water spinning outfit and a green wobbling plug Bob tagged a 43 pound chinook. The fish measured 43 inches in length which gave it one pound an inch.

Elsewhere on the coast the anglers were doing well from tide water all the way upstreams to near the deadlines. Snag Alley on the Siletz was producing many fine catches on herring and also on spinners and plugs.

Most of the streams seemed to be well filled with salmon now and anglers are having a wonderful time with the weather aiding materially in making the fishing pleasant.

Waterfowl Season Only Week Away
Waterfowl season less than a week away (open one hour before sunrise, October 22) scatter gunners are blowing the spot out of their trusty muskets.

In various sections of the valley, wives are complaining about their husbands blowing duck calls and playing duck-calling records. Decoys are being set out. Boats are getting a hurried patch job. With pheasant shooting scheduled to start at the same time as duck season, all is in haste. Don't forget your migratory waterfowl stamp.
