Pitt Crushes Yamato, Macera In Armory Date Duke 26 to 7

Sinister, sneering Toi (The Great) Yamato, the barefoot Jap rass-lin' nasty, and Luigi Macera, the fiery and popular Italian hustler go at it Tuesday night in the main fare of the Armory mat program, highlighting Matchmaker Elton Owen's three-match card.

The mix can't help but be a good one, for Macera is always at his best against the meanies, and Yamato is a Grade A-1, upper division mat nasty, one who bears battle scars from the numerous wrestling riots he's been in.

The Oriental is a master at Judo, Sumo and Jui Jitsu. His pet weapons are Judo chops to the neck and the "sleeper" hold. Should he have his profile banged around by Macera's flying dropkicks and other such spectacular maneuvers, he'll be getting Luigi at his best. The Italian is a top exponent of such wrestling dy-

Demchuk, who looks to be a real topnotcher, appears in the 8:30 o'clock commencer, against an old villian in these parts, Kurt von Poppenheim, Kurt and his monacle haven't been around much lately, and Owen feels that this mix, even though only the starter for the evening, may steal the entire show. Either Scotty Williams or Thor Hagen will referee the card, and all matches will be 2-of-3 fallers.

Aggies Thump Baylor, 19-7

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (A) Texas A&M's thin red line pulverized Baylor's hopes 19-7 Saturday to push the spindly men of Aggieland into first place in the frenzied Southwest Conference football race with a 2-0 record.

The team that couldn't beat anybody last year felled its second giant in the drive back to glory with massive Jack Pardee leading a crushing ground attack that had Baylor back on its heels all after-

Pardee scored two touchdowns in the most vicious Aggie onslaught of the season-a game that saw penalties pile up on both sides for unnecessary roughness.

The Aggie line manhandled Baylor's big and supposedly vicious forward wall as if it owned it and a dozen A&M backs raced through holes as wide as the coach's bench for 265 yards
