

Miss Shirley Coffey Is Bride of Dwaine Rankin at Church Rites

Pink accented with burgundy was the color scheme selected by Miss Shirley Jean Coffey for her pretty autumn wedding Saturday morning when she became the bride of Robert Dwaine Rankin. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Coffey and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Fay G. Rankin.

The couple exchanged their vows at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass at St. Vincent dePaul Catholic Church with the Rev. Lowell Blackburn officiating. Vocalists were Wayne Meusey and Mary Krefl with Mr. Meusey playing the organ accompaniments. The altar was banked with bouquets of pink and burgundy chrysanthemums and pink snapdragons. The altar boys were James Purvis and Thornton Coffey.

For her wedding the attractive bride chose a Victorian style gown of Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with a dropped waistline and wide open neckline enhanced with insets of draped tulle. The lace skirt formed a bustle with tiny tiers of nylon net ruffles cascading from the waistline to the end of the court train. An open crown of Chantilly lace and pleated tulle adorned with sequins and pearl studded lace medallions held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of Happiness roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Walk Before the Bride

Four attendants and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar. Mrs. Charles Coffey was the matron of honor and Mrs. Richard Artz, Mrs. James Mahoney and Miss Meredith Hayes the bridesmaids. They wore identical frocks of pink parchment satin designed with low waistlines, drop necklines with applique lace set with rhinestones and full, gathered skirts. Their cascade bouquets were of burgundy chrysanthemums tied with pink satin and net. Kimberly Jarvis, the flower girl, also wore a pink frock.

William Dwight Rankin stood with his twin brother as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Artz, Charles Coffey, Stuart McElhinny and Donald Pearl.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Coffey selected a winter pink costume suit with corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Rankin chose a Dior blue two-piece costume suit for her son's marriage and she pinned a pink orchid to her ensemble.

Greet Guests at Reception

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the American Legion Club. Pouring were Mrs. Edward Fisher and Mrs. Henry S. Gambit. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Russell Kanz and Mrs. Virgil Sloan. Assisting were Mrs. Roy Christenson, Mrs. John Katran, Mrs. Walter Wilmes, Miss Marietta Etzel, Miss Catherine Moisan of Portland, Miss Jody Boyer, Miss Delores Riley and Miss Mary Cecile Rocque.

For her wedding trip to Canada the new Mrs. Rankin donned a midnight brown dress with straight skirt and accented with a white collar. She wore a beige double breasted coat with large, Italian collar and her accessories were brown. After November 15 the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 3680 Cherry Ave.

Garden Club Meeting and Classes

Salem Garden Club will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, November 7 at the Salem Woman's Club.

Beginning at 9 a.m. Mrs. Jack Bartlett will conduct a flower arrangement class. Thanksgiving arrangements will be featured with members bringing their own containers and flowers. Mrs. Evert Givens and Mrs. Charles A. Cole will teach a corsage class, beginning at 10 o'clock. Corsages will be made for members whose birthdays fall in the month of November.

The general club meeting will be at 2 p.m. Oliver Brougher of Scott's Mills will be the guest speaker and his subject is "Oregon Birds."

Tea Committee Named

Mrs. Frank Test is in charge of club flower arrangements. Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough will decorate the surprise table for November.

Mrs. Clarence Feller and Mrs. Floyd Kibbe are on the hospitality committee for the day and the tea chairman is Mrs. Edward Majek, assisted by Mrs. Elmore Hill. During the tea hour the following members will assist: Mrs. E. E. Batterman; Mrs. M. C. Blackman; Mrs. W. A. Cladek; Mrs. George Gregor; Mrs. Clark Strett; Mrs. John Graham; Mrs. J. A. Jelderks; Mrs. S. M. Olson; Mrs. Maude Byrne; Mrs. J. E. Webster; Mrs. F. H. Thompson and Mrs. Lewis Stanley.

Plans for the Christmas Green Show, December 12 and 13, will be outlined by Miss Edith Schryver and Miss Ellen Quail.

Christian Women Meet Tuesday

Tuesday, November 8, the Christian Women's Club of Salem will meet for their monthly luncheon at the Golden Pheasant at 12 o'clock noon.

Charlotte Macy will be the guest speaker with the Rev. and Mrs. James Kratz bringing the special music. As a special feature Erma Neufeld will present "Do It Yourself" gift suggestions for Christmas.

The luncheon will be preceded by a 11 o'clock prayer service held at the YWCA. A free nursery service is provided for pre-school children at the First Baptist Church with a competent woman in charge.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Kappa Delta alumnae will be entertained Wednesday night at the Oak Knoll home of Mrs. William Ashby on the Dallas Road at 8 o'clock. All alumnae in Salem and vicinity are invited to attend.

A bride of Saturday morning was Mrs. Robert Dwaine Rankin, the former Shirley Jean Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Coffey. The ceremony took place at St. Vincent dePaul Catholic Church. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Fay G. Rankin. (Artz Studio.)
