

Uranium Area Being Developed Near Lakeview

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (U)—The Thornburg brothers said Friday that a new uranium area is being developed in Oregon by Colorado and Texas interests.

The property, located 12 miles northwest of Lakeview, Ore., near the California border, is being operated as the Lakeview Mining Co.

Dr. Garth Thornburg said Lakeview had spent $90,000 in the Oregon project to date. Three carloads of ore have been shipped from the property to the Viro plant at Salt Lake City, he said.
