Northwest Freeze Brings Record High Power Output

2 SECTIONS-24 PAGES

3rd Sub-Freezing Day on Forecast Capacity,

The third sub-freezing day in a row is forecast for today, with the temperature expected to climb to a high of about 32 de-

And early today it was expect-ed to fall to about 10, which would make it the coldest November day on record. The former November low was 12 degrees in 1935. Midnight temperature was Monday morning's low of 15 was the coldest in three years. The last time it got that cold was Nov. 28, 1952.

It never did break 30 Monday, struggling to a high of 29 before starting its downward plunge. High temperature Sunday was 32, also below freezing.

in many a day was done in the ward Jr., by his wife as the text which is chilling.

rules and foul lines."

cause-of-prominence or promin-

Tough Guy'

day night for the kidnap-murder of a wealthy Kansas City woman.

him quietly in a San Francisco residential district early Monday

as he slept in a stolen automobile with two loaded weapons by his

An FBI agent, whose name was withheld, testified before U.S. Commissioner Joseph Karesh that Brown had confessed to the kidnap-slaying of Mrs. Wilma Allen, wife of a Kansas City automobile

Reports from Kansas City re-lated that Mrs. Allen had been raped before her nude body with its hands tied was tossed into the

DO IT YOURSELF 4 BREEKEN

dealer, early last August.

FBI agents and police arrested damaged crops. He said, however, that cauliflower and what-ever apples were left would have been damaged, and possibly broccoli, cabbage, trees and whatever walnuts were left.

Fuel dealers were kept busy Monday and power companies reported record outputs. Salem Electric broke the record set in Packed snow was reported on continued unabated. Santiam, McKenzie and Willamette passes and motorists were advised to carry chains.

Aldermen Propose Sewer Extensions, Block Bus Cutback

Major sewer extensions for South Salem and West Salem were oposed Monday night by Salem City Council which also killed off move by City Transit Lines to shorten its night routes. Although bus service will remain unchanged for the present, Mayor Robert F. White said he expected the bus company to apply soon for elimination of all night service except on Monday and

Friday nights when some stores

lem when we come to it," the mayor added. Conference Held

As expert a job in social surgery as we have seen in literature using septic tanks in the city night, said Western Washington would cost an estimated $56,000, would warm up somewhat Wedessay for the last issue of LIFE magazine by Cleveland Amory. according to City Engineer J. H. nesday, with the high that day ex-Davis whose recommendation of pected to be 28-35, The writer used the incident of the shooting of William Woodthe projects was accepted by the Council. Of this total, the city's Eight Deaths for a critique of the social order share of cost would be $6,200 and in which the Woodwards lived benefiting property owners would almost unprecedented "big freeze" and moved and had their being, be charged the balance.

Amory came well equipped for Approval Given the task. In his novel "The Proper Bostonians" and in his period piece "The Last Resorts" he aldermen. This is the proposed table crops. wed both an intimate familiar- 843 500 ity with the milieu of the time septic tanks.

Alderman Russell E. Bone- weekend. The thesis which Amory develops is that the old Society steele said immediate attention Two frozen bodies were discov(with a capital "S") which measis needed there because some of ered during the weekend, one at ured its prominence by its reti- the septic tanks are overrunning cence and exclusiveness has been on the streets.

races, at the resorts here and man Walter White who wanted Vancouver. A fourth person was abroad. Mrs. William Woodward to study the proposal. This one study he rates as a dowager of the calls for $12,600 worth of sewers old New York Society, belonging north of Glen Creek Road on or Portland Man to the day when the name of a near Alpine, Taybin, Valley View to the day when the name of a lady of quality appeared in the and Dorval Avenues.

public prints only three times: when she was born, when she was 1, Page 4.)

married and when she died. That social world was afflicted with its snobbery, but it was "a principled world" with "a recognized Racketeer and measures. code of weights and measures, standards and values, ground Chooses Exile The new social world is one that glories in publicity: "It is a crazy jumble of publicity-he-

WASHINGTON IF -- Racketeer ence because of publicity, one is never sure of which." That was the world of Mrs. Italy over jail in the U.S.A. (Continued on Editorial Page, 4) announced Adonis has promised jump the detective, Joe Hochmuth, to Italy, where the Justice De- and five sons, all in Portland. partment claims he was born 57

Admits Killing Adenis, once a power in the New York gambling world, was given the prison sentence in April, 1954. the prison sentence in April, 1954. for swearing falsely before the old SAN FRANCISCO (A - Arthur Senate Crime Investigating Com-Ross Brown, 30-year-old tough guy mittee that he was an American IP - The Florida State Cemetery federal Forest Service policies, who once said he never would be citizen. (Story also in sec. 2, Assn. elected Clifford S. Coffin as regulations and procedures were taken alive, was held here Mon- page 5.)

Near Top Don Rasmussen, county agent, said he has had no reports of BPA Says

Sub-Zero Marks Set; 8 Deaths in British Columbia Son Admits Killing Mother, 43 Set; 8 Deaths in

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Bonneville Power Administration Pacific Northwest's cold wave

BPA said that power customer used 4,362,000 kilowatts of power between the hours of 5 p.m. and 5 p.m. That is an all-time record 6 p.m. That is an all-time record high and neared the peak capacity of the federal system.

In addition to power generated in the region's hydro-electric projects, some 185,000 kilowatts of steam generated power were Scheduled hooked into the system. Additional steam power can be provided if necessary, John Jolliffe, BPA chief of operations, said.

weather has not yet had much ine Park by nearly 20 acres. effect on power generating stream flow in the region. Monday Night curred on Monday night between the late Paul B. Wallace. the hours of 5 and 6 p.m. Tuesday's peak demand at the same the latest expansion: "We'll have to meet that prob- hours usually is somewhat lower.

Elsewhere in Oregon new rec-Mayor White and the aldermen eastern Oregon's Blue Mountains conferred with bus officials last 2 below. Other sub-freezing temweek on economy measures that peratures in the state included: could be taken to keep the line from losing money. Bus financial picture was considered gloomy by both bus and city officials.

peratures in the state included. Redmond 2, The Dalles 9, Klamath Falls 13, Salem 19, Portland, Eugene and Astoria 21, Medford 25 and North Bend 28.

Warmer Weather

The Weather Bureau in Seattle, New sewers for two areas now in its 8 p. m. forecast Monday in British Columbia was blamed Approval Given

Monday for eight deaths, closing of The City Council, which appropriated $350 from the emergency projects received approval of the and for heavy damage to vege-and an unusual stance of detachment. In this essay for LIFE he writes again with intimacy yet Heights, where a low-level residual distribution of the time was reproperly and an unusual stance of detachment. In this essay for LIFE he writes again with intimacy yet Heights, where a low-level residual distribution of the time was reproperly and other ported missing.

A father and his two young teresidation of the flames that 1957. with a frankness and objectivity dential district long has used consumed their home at the interior city of Hazelton during the

is needed there because some of ered during the weekend, one at

The bodies of three persons were Councilmen indicated favor but delayed action on the other of their seiner, found Monday on Seturns Island to mile of their seiner of the monday of their seiner of their seiner of their seiner of the monday of the mond overwhelmed by what he calls Publiciety, with its race for the headlines, for being noticed at the swank nightclubs, at the Councilmen indicated favor but delayed action on the other project, at the request of Aldervancouver. A fourth person was (Additional Council news Sec. Leaps, Dies as Police Plead death Monday.

A detective on the street below "I'm coming, look out, I'm com- Carnegie Hall. ing," said Hansen, and jumped

CEMETERIES LIKE COFFIN

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Fla. secretary Monday.

Electric broke the record set in February. Portland General Monday night reported a record high hourly peak for generation in the federal power system as the Pacific Northwest's cold wave

Marine Park

With a big boost from Salem Boat Co. and two property owners Salem City Council agreed Mon-Jolliffe said the recent cold day night to enlarge Wallace Mar-

Extension of the West Salem riverside park on the downriver end is one of several major de-Jolliffe said that the peak de- velopment steps since the original mand in the region always oc- park site was left to the city by These are the participants in

Carl R. Staats, proprietor of River Bend Sand & Gravel Co., ords were set as temperatures who sold the city the old Imlah plummeted. Meacham in North- property of five acres orginally, plus riverbank accretion of possibly another five acres, for $5,102, and gave certain adjacent property to the city. Sold Property

Mrs. Walter Musgrave, widow of the late alderman and park booster, who sold a similar-sized piece of property to the city for Salem Boat Club, which through boat races last July 4, raised $3,-161 for parkland acquisition at the riverfront site. This money was turned over last night by Leslie E. Davis, chairman of Wallace Park Improvement Committee, along with a boaters' check of VANCOUVER, B. C. un - The $121 to be used for ramp and float improvements, Agree to Pay > money for down payments on the properties and which agreed to pay the remaining balance and in-terest (about $9,000) by Feb. 1,

Soviet Travel Permit Sought

"Maybe we can laugh the Iron with abrasions and shock. Curtain away. I understand there

PORTLAND on — While police day to Alex I. Zinchuk, first sec- of the street after picking up Jim and Bill Money. pounded on his door, a man who retary of the Soviet Embassy in faced a bad check charge and Washington, asked for visas for ten possible deportation jumped from people. The U.S. State Department Behind Driver's Seat a fourth-floor hotel room to his already has cleared Hope for the

"I believe that the feeling be-His lawyer, William H. Collins, sen gave signs he was going to such a show," the application read. The comic said he would also the government to leave the coun-shouted to him not to do it, and like to play Moscow's Bolshoi

> LONG "OUT OF DATE" REDDING, Calif. (#) - The Scott Lumber Co.'s chief forester, Irvin E. Toler, bluntly told a congressional hearing Monday that many long out of date.

Log Truck Rips Open Side of School Bus

The Oregon Statesman

The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, November 15, 1955

DALLAS, Ore.—Thirty Salem Academy children were riding in this school bus Monday when log truck trailer reach ripped open left side behind driver's seat. Police Chief Paul Kitzmiller here points to damaged bus. Three girls are in hospital as result of accident.

Ice-Encrusted

Three Bodies

bodies of two crewmen.

a third crewman.

future permanent neighbors."

3 Dallas Girls Hurt Death Claims In Truck-Bus Crash Daniel Tobin,

DALLAS, Ore.-Three Dallas girls were injured Monday morning when a logging truck's empty trailer ripped open the side of a school bus taking 30 students to Salem Academy. The accident happened on Ellendale Avenue opposite

North Dallas Truck Shop about 8:30 a.m. Three girls among the bus passengers were reported in good condition Monday night at Dallas Hospital. None of the other children was reported hurt.

Karlene Halstead, 12, daughter Ship Yields of, Mr. and Mrs. John Halstead, with broken left leg and abra-

Sharon Reimer, 13, daughter Monday made formal application of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reimer, to visit Russia for the purpose of with broken right leg and cuts. filming a television show over Donna Kliewer, 18, daughter there with Russian stars and said: of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kliewer, Police Chief Paul Kitzmiller, night. are some very good comics in Mos- who investigated the crash, said cow, pantominists like the Frenchthe log truck was being backed seiner Westerner was discovered Tobin had served as treasurer His application, delivered Mon-W. Jones, Salem, as the school sea spray gleaming white in federation of Labor. some children at the corner.

through the ice. They found the The trailer reach ripped into the left side of the bus just behind the driver's seat at about Joe Adonis Monday chose exile in saw Fred J. Hansen, 52, climb tween the Russian and American floor level. Edwin J. Schroeder, Vancouver chopped through more ice and found the frozen body of into the open window. When Han- peoples can be strengthened by Academy principal, was driving the bus.

Neither driver was hurt. The only other student taken to the combination of the Palace and Carnegie Hall.

hospital was Donna Kliewer, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kliewer, Dallas, who had abrasions and signs are signs and signs and signs and signs are signs and signs and signs are signs and signs and signs are try voluntarily by Jan. 1 and go urged him to remember his wife Theater which he described as a hospital was Donna Kliewer, 18, sions and symptoms of shock, but was released shortly after-

The police chief issued no citation for driving violations.

Nation Strikes In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (#) - Argentina's provisional government massed troops and tanks in key industrial areas of the country to meet Farmers Hear Plea for the threat of trouble in a nationwide strike called Tuesday by the giant General Confederation of Labor (CGT).

The strike call was effective Monday midnight. There was no immediate indication of the scope of the walkout, ordered by the CGT in defiance of an announcement by Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu's new regime that strike inciters would be jailed sec. 2, page 5.)

Today's Statesman

	ENGINEER CO.
B-E Day		3
Classified	11.10	, 11
Comics
Crossword .
Editorials
Home Panor
Markets
Obituaries .
Radio, TV .
Sports
Star Gazer	1	10
Valley		- 6
Wirephote I
The second secon

Labor Leader

INDIANAPOLIS W - Daniel Tobin, 83, president emeritus of the AFL Teamsters Union and onetime power in labor and politics,

Tobin, who headed the teamsters from 1907 to 1952, died at St. Vincent's Hospital where he was admitted in late October suffering high blood pressure and heart

Tobin made his home in Indianapolis until he retired from his $30,000-a-year presidency.

VANCOUVER, B.C. IF - The ice-encrusted hull of a 55-foot fish- eritus and Beck became president, the luggage to his mother in the ing boat found aground on lonely the union gave each of them salar- terminal, then waited about 30 feet Saturna Island in the Strait of ies of $50,000 a year, and Tobin away while she checked it onto Georgia surrendered the frozen was given a $60,000 home in Miami the ill-fated flight. bodies of three crewmen Monday Beach. Beck then moved the un-The battered hull of the 55-foot lis to Washington.

He was a member of President

Wilson's industrial conference dur-The brothers climbed aboard the ing World War I, and he was adlifeless ship and started hacking ministrative assistant to President Roosevelt for a few month in 1940, He studied labor conditions in Eng-A Royal Canadian Air Force resland for Roosevelt in 1942. cue unit called to the scene from

The Weather

Max, Min. Precip. Portland Baker Medford GETTYSBURG, Pa., IF - Presi-Willamette River 2.1 feet.

dent and Mrs. Eisenhower came to Gettysburg Monday to rest for a spell at their farm, and the townspeople turned out by the thousands dent and Mrs. Eisenhower came to bureau, McNary Field, Salem): Continued cold today, tonight and Wednesday; highest temperature today near 32 and the lowest tonight

There is their home to store the car.

Graham said as soon as they had left, he transferred the dynamite sticks, caps and wire to a paper sack. dent and Mrs. Eisenhower came to to give them a rousing welcome. near 10. Eisenhower—looking ruddy and was 14.

fit-voiced warm thanks to "my SALEM PRECIPITATION

continued, as he explained that Farm Bureau Women, Mrs. Jack

Explosion on UAL Plane (Pictures on wirephoto page.)

Arrest Solves

DENVER UM - A young Denver construction and restaurant worker told Monday night how he tied 25 sticks of dynamite together to make a bomb that exploded aboard a United Air Lines plane near Longmont, Colo., last Nov. 1. All 44 persons aboard, including John Gilbert (Jack) Graham's mother were killed. U. S. Attorney Donald E. Kelley said Graham, 23-year-old forger, had signed a "written admission." Graham said he set the bomb to earn his mother's $37,500 flight insurance. Timing Device

Graham said he had collected parts of his bomb on Oct. 18 or 19. They included the sticks of dynamite-comprised of 40 per cent explosives and 60 per cent packing -a timing device, a 6-volt dry cell
"hotshot" battery, and two dynamite caps, each connected to about eight feet of wire.

He said he unpacked part of the contents of one of his mother's suitcases and replaced them with His mother, Mrs. Daisie E. King, 54, boarded the plane here for Portland, Ore. From there she planned to continue on to Anchorage, Alaska, for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Ruth Hablu-

Graham's details of construction of the bomb and his maneuvering of his family so that he could hide the device in the suitcase were reported Monday night by David Stolberg, reporter for The Rocky Mountain News.

Drove to Airport Graham said he picked up his month-old son, Allen, at a Denver garage, where Mrs. King had stored her car, and drove them to the airport. He said he dropped them off at the terminal and then parked his car. At the parking site, Graham said 30,000-a-year presidency. he bound the large suitcase with web straps. He said he carried all

"After my mother had finished ion's headquarters from Indianapo- checking her luggage," Graham said, "my wife and I went with her to the passengers' gate where man Fernandel. I'd like to film out of the truck shop by Lloyd on the beach, its coating of frozen and vice president of the American we told my mother goodbye and watched her board the plane with the other passengers."

Graham said he watched the plane taxi down the runway and took his wife and son into the airport coffee shop. Told of Wreck

"We were in the coffee shop for approximately one hour and as we were leaving I heard the cashier (say) that there had been a wreck of an airplane about 40 miles out of Denver."

Graham said he had put the bomb material in a long cardboard box and concealed it under a blanket in the trunk of his car.

He said he did not remove the bomb until "about 5:15 p.m. (MST) on Nov. 1," after he watched his mother, wife and son drive from their home to store the car.

paper sack. Graham said he set the bomb to explode in 90 minutes, the maximum time allowed him by the (Additional details in Sec 2, page Since Start of Weather Year Sept. 1 imum time all timing device.

10.94 6.88 7.82 He said that He said that when the 90 min-between the caps and the battery which was broken by the timer would be closed by the timer me-More Private Enterprise chanism and detonate the caps.

Less government and more pri-vate enterprise was the plea Mon-similar."

No Reply Given Graham did Graham did not reply when day of Kenneth Hood, Chicago, as- Hood then denounced what he asked whether he felt remorse over sistant secretary of the American termed "the trend toward social- the crash.

Farm Bureau Federation, as he addized agriculture," adding that Graham waived a hearing on a dress the Oregon group in Salem. "only through a bold fight on all "peacetime sabotage" charge and The Oregon federation, now in its fronts can we resist the trend to- was jailed when he was unable to third day of the annual four-day ward socialized agriculture and supply $100,000 bond.

event, opened Sunday at the Sen-monopoly government."

The sabotage charge carries a that strike inciters would be jailed event, opened Sunday at the Sen-and prosecuted. (Earlier story in ator Hotel, with some 250 mem-the speaker blamed "too long maximum penalty of 10 years in bers in attendance. Cold weather a continuation of 90 per cent par- prison and $10,000 fine.

has reduced the number usually ity" for the agricultural surpluses. Kelley met with state prosecut-coming to the meeting, officers He suggested expanding foreign ors to consider whether the slim, said Monday, although an addition- trade into countries which do not youthful-appearing al 200 are expected for tonight's produce the same products as the banquet at Crystal Gardens.

United: States. But suggested prosecution on murder charges, avoiding taking markets away nationally, the different commod
"from our friends."

Little farmer is to be heard nationally, the different commod
"from our friends."

Little farmer is to be heard nationally, the different commodity groups must get together, Hood In a business session of the 12, and Sec. 1, Page 2.)

"this is one of the big purposes Sacrison, Pilot Rock, was named Washington County of the Farm Bureau. Each comchairman to replace Mrs. Fred modity group makes recommendations, then we get together as a whole to reach some form of unity before we present the matman. The regional council is electCounty Sheriff Richard H. Busch ter to our congressmen. No busy ed later by mail from each of the senator has time to listen to disputes between dairy and livestock tary is then appointed by the ofgroups, seed and fruit groups. To ficers. (Additional details in Sec. home Sunday night.

Teachers Get First-Hand View of Business

Education Day. Scenes like the above were common during the day as teachers were shown around. Here, E. T. Boyer, sales representative for Larmer Transfer and Storage Co., is telling Mrs. Laura Eaton, Englewood teacher, (center) and Mrs. Suzanne Juba, West Salem teacher, about one of the