

Politics Coffees Calendared Tuesday

Salem Club, Republican Women's Federation of Oregon is sponsoring another in a series of monthly Petticoat parties on Tuesday at homes of members. At each coffee there will be an outside speaker as well as a speaker representing the Republican women. All interested women are invited to attend any of the parties between 10:30 and 12 o'clock.

The hostesses and speakers are as follows: Mrs. W. Wells Baum will entertain at her home, 850 Prospect Lane, Senator Mark Hatfield will be the speaker and Mrs. William L. Phillips will represent the club.

Mrs. Winifred Pettyjohn will be hostess for a coffee at her home, 145 North 14th St., with Mrs. William Leary the co-hostess. Dean Seward Reese of the Willamette University Law School will be the guest speaker and Mrs. B. W. Stacey will be the club speaker.

The third coffee will be held at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Leslie E. Davis, 320 Lane Place. State Treasurer Sigfrid B. Underer will speak and Mrs. William M. Burns (Zylpha Zell) of Portland will represent the Republican women.

Coffee in Woodburn
An out-of-town coffee will be held in Woodburn at the Boones Ferry Road home of Mrs. H. D. Miller. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Ray Glatt and Mrs. Edward C. Coman. James Hatfield and Mrs. Clark C. McCall, president of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, will be the speakers.

On November 17 a coffee was held in Silverton at the home of Mrs. Felix Wright with Mrs. C. C. Geer and Mrs. Lenard Kephart assisting. Mrs. Harry Palladay of Portland, chairman of the membership committee of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, was the speaker.

One of the purposes of the Petticoat Politics parties is to broaden interest in good government and to help the 4,000 clubs throughout the United States to provide an even greater army of trained politically-educated workers for the Republican organizations.
