

Miss Dolores Kuper Weds Mr. Fuchs

At an 8 o'clock ceremony Friday night the Bethel Baptist Church was the scene for the marriage of Miss Dolores Eileen Kuper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton G. Kuper, and Benno Fuchs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fuchs. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Wobig of the Trinity Baptist Church of Portland, before large baskets of yellow and rust chrysanthemums and gold candles.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Cecil Stark, with Henry Neuman Jr. as the soloist.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Sondra Kuper, cousin of the bride, and Miss Elsie Neuman. Both wore dresses of rust crystallette and carried gold candles with a corsage of yellow daisy chrysanthemums.

Preceding the bride down the aisle, were Miss Velma Kuper, aunt of the bride from Sacramento, California, and Mrs. Douglas Graf of Portland, both wearing gowns of yellow crystallette. They carried cascades of yellow and gold daisy chrysanthemums.

Miss Norma Kuper, maid of honor and sister of the bride, wore a floor length gown of deep bluegreen crystallette over taffeta, styled with a long waist, scooped neckline, short sleeves, and the skirt released into fullness at the hips. She carried a cascade of yellow and gold daisy chrysanthemums and Talisman roses. The attendants wore small hats of pleated crystallette to match their gowns. They were fashioned with scalloped brim and were made by the bride.

The Bridal Gown
The bride wore a floor length, princess style gown of French Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice was styled with embroidered lace at the neck with a yoke of nylon tulle, long sleeves of lace, and tiny lace-covered buttons down the back. Her fingertip veil of white illusion net was held by a tiara fashioned of miniature seed pearls. She carried a cascade of Talisman roses centered by a white orchid with a deep yellow throat.

Earl Neuman was best man for Mr. Fuchs and groomsmen were Douglas Graf of Portland, and Charles Saucy, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Eldon Heringer, Roland Schirman, and Harold Schirman.

The bride's mother wore a mauve-colored crepe gown of crepe material and navy blue accessories. The groom's mother wore a wine-colored crepe gown and black accessories. Their corsages were feathered light pink chrysanthemums and baby pink roses.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Henry G. Kuper, attended the ceremony in a gown of dusty pink lace, with black accessories and corsage of white feathered chrysanthemums.

Greet Guests at Reception
The reception was held in the church parlors, Miss Marie Pardo was in charge of the guest book, and the Misses Sharlene Miller and Ruth Rae were at the gift table. Pouring were Mrs. Weldon Yost and Mrs. Clayton Wenger. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Eugene Cherry and Miss Dorothy Caspar. Assisting were Misses Caroline and Ruth Giese.

For going away the bride wore a charcoal grey suit and accessories of teal green and black. After a honeymoon to Carmel, California, they will be living at 690 South Elma Avenue, Salem.
