Rose Bowl Plans Certain for UCLA

Also against Washington, passing star Ronnie Knox broke a bone in his leg. Saturday the Bruins passed only twice, both times by halfback Sam Brown and both completed, one for 21 yards and the other for 29. Both kept scoring drives rolling.

Brown Runs Wild

Brown also had a field day running against the big Trojan defenders. He gained 150 yards making his 10-game total 629 for a new school record.

Sanders had troubles at the start of this season. He's lost nine of 11 starters from his undefeated 1934 outfit including the line, the blocking back and the tailback, the latter being the fellow largely responsible for making the single wing move.

Brown filled that slot and Hill says, with some regret, "he can run rings around Primo Villanueva." Primo was last season's all-conference tailback.

Davenport Powerful

Sanders also has fullback Bob Davenport, a hard runner and blocker who knocks ends on their ends so Brown can continue his travels.

UCLA looks now for revenge against Michigan State on Jan. 2. The Bruins lost 28-20 to the Spartans two years ago and the rule that says no team can go to the bowl two years straight kept them out last Jan. 1.

It's the same rule that keeps Ohio State, the repeater Big 10 champion, home for the Christmas holidays this year.

This week, the only PCC action finds USC playing host to Notre Dame.

Purpose of the study is to investigate the effects of training and conditioning for the mile run upon the physical condition of college students who are non-letter winners in high school and with no track training in college. When TV is a member of the control group which only takes conditioning tests. The others are in the experimental group which actually runs the mile as well as takes conditioning tests.

Hardin-Simmons Nips Trinity With Rally

SAN ANTONIO (Special)—Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys, roped and hogtied for three periods by an aggressive Trinity defense, snapped the shackles in the fourth quarter tonight to score two touchdowns and hand the Tigers a 14-6 defeat.

It was an 80-yard gallop by Dan Villarreal, a chunky five foot nine inch halfback, that broke the Tigers, who were fighting for their third straight win over the Cowboys and their sixth victory in a row this season.

Lousse Faces Fullmer . . . Contenders Risk Win Streaks in Top Bouts

By JACK HAND
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eduardo Lousse, fourth-ranking middleweight contender, puts his 29-fight winning streak on the line Friday night at Madison Square Garden against Gene Cyclone Fullmer in one of the top bouts on a busy holiday week program.

Vince Martinez, the No. 4 welter contender, also risks his long streak of 17 victories in a Wednesday bout with Chris Christensen of Denmark at St. Louis.

A pair of ranking welters meet at Los Angeles Thursday night when Romon Fuentes (No. 5) of Los Angeles boxes Joe Miceli (No. 7) of New York in a 10-round bout.

Ralph DuPas of New Orleans, the No. 3 lightweight contender, boxes at San Jose, Calif., Monday night against Star Gony of Manila and Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., the No. 5 lightweight, faces Kenny Davis of Los Angeles at Hollywood, Calif., Tuesday.

The Monday TV (DuMont) show from St. Nicholas Arena in New York sends Rimi Nocero against Carmine Fiore in an all-Brooklyn welterweight battle.

Fiore, a solid left hooker, hasn't fought in over a year since he was stopped by Martinez, Oct. 29, 1934. Nocero has won three of five this year.

Lousse returns from his native Argentina to resume his drive toward the 160-pound title in an interesting match with Fullmer. The scowling left-hooker hasn't lost since Kid Gavilan outpointed him, Sept. 13, 1932. He beat Gavilan in his latest fight, Sept. 3 at Buenos Aires.

In his last U.S. start, Lousse won over Tiger Jones in a bloody contest at the Garden, May 13. Fullmer, No. 9 among Bobo Olson's contenders, has won six of eight this year. He broke even in two furious brawls with Gil Turner and lost his last outing, Sept. 23 to Bobby Boyd at Chicago.

The Lousse-Fullmer match will be carried on NBC radio and TV and the Martinez-Christensen bout will be seen and heard on ABC radio and TV.

This will be Martinez' fifth start of the year and his second since he made peace with Bill Daly and signed a new five-year contract with the manager he accused of "grounding" him for the first six months of the year. Christensen lost to Tiger Jones, Sept. 23 in his most recent bout.

MSU Invited To Rose Bowl

New Year's Day of 1934. UCLA will be the Pacific Coast Conference representative again this time.

Sunday's vote was regarded as a formality. Michigan State, with a 5-1 record in the Big Ten and an 8-1 season record—best in the conference—clinched the Rose Bowl trip when Michigan lost Saturday to Ohio State.

Spartans Gain Stride

The Spartans, 14-7 losers to Michigan early in the season, regained their winning stride against the West Coast's Stanford, 38-14.

Gathering momentum in a 21-7 victory over Notre Dame—the only loss of the year for the Irish, Michigan State whipped through the remainder of a schedule that included Illinois, Wisconsin, Purdue and Minnesota. They trumped non-conference Marquette Saturday, 33-0. Indiana was the Spartans' first victim of the season.

Jamboree Set For Mill City

MILL CITY—(Special)—The Mill City Timberwolves will be host club for the Class B schools basketball jamboree on December 2, and will open regular play for the season on Saturday night, December 3, with the Gervais High Cougars here.

Coach Buton Burroughs has five lettermen on the Timberwolves team. They are 6-0 Lloyd Ross, 6-3 Eddie Gregory, 6-1 Don Lemke, 6-3 Don Ellington and 5-10 Dick Crook. Others on the squad at present are Maurice Bassett, Chuck Kuhlman, Gary Bevier, Arnis Jackson, Ken Epperson, Terry Muir, Harold Kiewer, Bruce Thomas and Dale Walczak.

Navy Claims 'Invasion' of West Point

WEST POINT, N. Y. (Special)—Seven navy midshipmen claimed triumphant invasion early Sunday of this military academy in a salty propaganda prelude to the annual army-navy football game.

Stony silence was the sole reaction of West Point officials—at least for the time being.

The Annapolis midshipmen, from a "sanctuary" in Connecticut, claimed they performed the following in connection with next Saturday's game.

Altered a "beat navy" neon sign on fortress walls to read "beat a"—by taking down the N, V and Y. Skated Rink Painted Placed a huge "beat navy" on the floor of the West Point skating rink.

Placed on a flagpole of the point's stadium, an army banner—with the word "beat" added above the original "army."

"It does look pretty good up there," commented one of the midshipmen.

A spokesman for West Point disclaimed any knowledge of the midshipmen's deeds.

The midshipmen described themselves as second classmen on week-end escapes.

Mule Escapes Frank

In civilian clothes, they said, they got past numerous army guards and roamed about the reservation for two hours.

The midshipmen's principal object, to kidnap the army mule, was thwarted. The mule was in a locked pen inside a locked barn, with two armed guards on duty beside the pen.

The seven said they had arranged to "evacuate" the army mule in a landing craft on the nearby Hudson river if it could have been "liberated."

3 Lettermen Back at Gates

GATES (Special)—Listing 6-1 Vernon Chance, 5-10 Rex Herron and Dave Moore as his lettermen, Coach McCuskey is getting the Gates High Pirates ready for the coming basketball season.

Gates opens regular play December 9 at Mill City.

First home game will be with Oregon School for the Deaf on December 13.

Others on the Gates varsity squad at present include 5-9 Allen Haywood, 5-4 Errol McWhirk, 5-8 David Riddle, 5-8 John Schaefer, 5-6 Rodney Schaefer, 5-8 Rodney Stubbs, 5-7 Walt Thomas, 5-11 Irvin Tucker and 6-0 David Vail.

Browns Roll Over Steelers

Bears Trip Lions; Rams, Colts in Tie

In posting their seventh victory in nine games, the Browns broke open a close game in the last half on a great display of passing by Otto Graham and George Ratterman and some flashy running by Curly Morrison.

Harlon Hill, an elusive end from little known Florence Teachers College of Alabama, twice fooled Detroit pass defenders in the third quarter as the Bears moted into first place.

Hill Scores Twice

He picked off tosses of 20 and 40 yards from Ed Brown for his seventh and eighth touchdowns of the season to bring the Bears from a 14-10 halftime deficit.

Two long passes from Bobby Layne accounted for Detroit's two touchdowns. The first went to Doak Walker and covered 70 yards and the second to Dave Middleton. It was good for 77.

Graham, although knocked for a 52-yard loss on attempted pass plays, tossed two touchdown aerials to Dante Lavelli, one for 6 yards and another for 41, and scored another himself on an end run.

Other Cleveland touchdowns came on a 15-yard pass interception return by Ken Konz, a 3-yard plunge by Ed Modzelewski and a 5-yard plunge by Maurice Bassett. But Lou Groza's string of consecutive conversions was halted at 29 when his fourth attempt was blocked.

Shaw Star, Goal

The Steelers, who trailed only 21-14 at the half, first tallied on a 16-yard pass from Jim Finks to Elbie Nickel and again on a 30-yarder from Ted Marchibroda to Nickel. Both were set up by Graham fumbles.

George Shaw, rookie Baltimore quarterback, was alternately the star and the goat in the tie with Los Angeles. His 28-yard pass to Jim Mutscheller in the last quarter put the Colts ahead 17-10. But then he fumbled on his 16 and the Rams won for the tying touchdown.

The Giants, leading only 10-7 at the half, poured across three touchdowns in the third period against the Eagles as they held Philadelphia's vaunted attack to almost a complete standstill.

Philadelphia completed only 15 of 37 passes and the Eagles' ground attack was limited to 54 yards. The Giants intercepted six Eagle passes and set up their first touchdown with a recovered fumble.

Past Returned for TD

Bert Zager's 65-yard return of a punt for a touchdown the first time Washington had possession sent the Redskins off on the right foot against the Cardinals.

The Packers tallied 14 points in the final period in their come-from-behind triumph over the 49ers. Tobin Rote set up the deciding touchdown by taking a lateral from Breezy Reid and carrying the ball 49 yards to the 49ers' 6. Howie Ferguson went over from there to settle the issue.

Rote also had a hand in two other Green Bay touchdowns.

WIN STREAK ENDS

ABILENE, Tex. (Special)—McMurry ended Missouri Valley's winning streak at 17 games Saturday night, beating the Missourians 14-6 with an awesome ground attack. Missouri Valley has already accepted a bid to play in the Mineral Water Bowl at Excelsior, Mo. The Vikings had won nine straight this season going into Saturday night's game.

Graham Makes Gain Against Steelers

CLEVELAND—Otto Graham, Cleveland Browns quarterback, rounds left end for a six yard gain in the first quarter of game here Sunday with the Pittsburgh Steelers. # Cotton, Sugar Bowl Teams Still Undecided

Mississippi, leading the Southeastern Conference with only one defeat, closes with Mississippi State. Georgia Tech (7-1-1) meets Georgia, Auburn (7-1-1) plays Alabama and Vanderbilt (7-2) takes on Tennessee, which was pushed out of the bowl picture by Kentucky 23-0.

Diszy Saturday

It was a dizzy Saturday. Snow blanketed the East and Middle West and a player named Polar Bear scored a touchdown for Rutgers in beating Columbia 12-6. The bitter Michigan-Ohio State battle ended in a near riot.

At Los Angeles, Southern Cal's Jon Arnett saw his 97-yard run with the opening kickoff cancelled by a penalty. And in the Purdue-Indiana game, won by Purdue 6-4, a water pipe burst and sent a geyser spraying over hundreds of fans.

Notre Dame beat Iowa 17-14 on a field goal in the last three minutes but not before the Irish were penalized 15 yards because a kicking tee was thrown onto the field.

Ohio State, playing what Coach Woody Hayes called "precision football," won its first game at Ann Arbor, Mich., since 1937 with two touchdowns, a field goal, a safety and a brilliant performance by Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy.

Top Pair Nab Wins

Southern Cal was fired to an upset pitch until the bad break on Arnett's opening run. Then the Trojans seemed to sag and Coach Red Sanders' well-drilled troops marched to a decisive victory.

Oklahoma and Maryland, who met in the Orange Bowl two years ago with Oklahoma the victor 7-0, kept their records intact with easy victories.

Thanksgiving Game

In the Southwest, Texas A&M's comeback kids, sweating out a year's probation, close with a Thanksgiving Day game against Texas while TCU meets Southern

Methodist Saturday

The Aggies can clinch the league title but TCU goes to the bowl, regardless.

Dallas sponsors hope to land Navy, a Sugar Bowl participant a year ago, for the Cotton Bowl but might settle for Georgia Tech or Auburn should Mississippi land at New Orleans, Pitt is an outside possibility.

Bowl Possibilities

The East produced a pair of bowl possibilities in Pittsburgh, which added Penn State to its imposing list of victims 20-0, and Syracuse, which gave West Virginia a second straight setback 20-13.

Pitt, which has lost to Oklahoma, Navy and Miami, halted the winning streaks of both Duke and West Virginia. Syracuse's main claim to fame is a victory over Army.

Princeton reclaimed the Ivy League title after four years by slushing to a 6-3 win over Dartmouth in the snow. Yale had to be content with runnerup honors after beating Harvard 21-7.
