

3 Leaders of Revolt Against Peron Sacked

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Three generals active in the revolt which overthrew Juan D. Peron were put out of circulation Sunday by the new regime of provisional President Pedro Aramburu.

A highly authoritative source said Gen. Juan Jose Uranga and Leon Justo Bengoa were arrested by soldiers early Sunday morning, and that Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos, who became the army's commander in chief just a month ago, asked to be retired.

Gen. Bengoa was appointed army minister soon after the revolt which deposed Peron, but quit Nov. 9, only four days before provisional President Eduardo Lonardi was ousted by the Aramburu forces.

Bengoa was reported under criticism by younger officers who wanted a swifter, more complete purge of officers linked with Peron. His departure was one of the straws that broke the back of the Lonardi regime, since Bengoa had a large following in the army, too.

Gen. Uranga was one of the prominent leaders of the anti-Peron revolt. Peron's final resignation was addressed to him and to Adm. Isaac Rojas, now the vice president. He had been the transport minister in the Lonardi government.

He accompanied Lonardi to his home the night he was deposed and commented that the day's maneuvers were "a case of treason."

Gen. Lagos headed the military forces at Mendoza in the revolt against Peron, who had dropped the general from active service only a few days before.

The Lonardi regime reinstated him, promoted him to lieutenant general and made him army commander in chief on Oct. 17. He took office as commander three days later.

Unofficial reports said the appointment of a new army commander was expected momentarily.

A highly placed member of the Aramburu government, who refused to permit the use of his name, said other detentions—including those of some civilians—appeared to be in the offing.

Another army general said to be on his way out is Gen. Dalmiro Videla Balaguer, now federal interventor (administrator) in Cordoba Province. He was identified by the informant as belonging to a "rightist" grouping in the army leadership.

This informant indicated these rightist military figures were suspected to having contacts with nationalistic and even Peronist-minded civilians and were believed unhappy about the moderate trend of the new regime.

LONDON (AP)—Britain is a rift or so ahead in the fast two-beat jam to be in Moscow first with live jazz from the western world. The Soviet Embassy said it is studying a bid from Johnny Dankworth, a London Bop type, to take a combo through that Curtain (man!). The U. S. State Dept. this week backed Dizzy Gillespie as an entry, and Louis (Bo-Dip) Armstrong is keeping his horn in Paris for the race.

Catholic Bishops Defend Right of Parochial School

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's Roman Catholic bishops said Saturday that private and parochial schools "exist by right" in this country and "discriminating" treatment of them is unfair.

The bishops said students at private and parochial schools "have the right to benefit from those measures, grants or aids, which are manifestly designed for the health, safety and welfare of American youth, irrespective of the school attended."

This was by nature a counter-attack against groups which want to deny the use of public tax funds to aid students at private and parochial schools.

The 208 cardinals, archbishops and bishops of the U. S. Catholic hierarchy outlined their position in a 2,400-word statement at the conclusion of their annual meeting at Catholic University.
