Benedictine Village Home Chapel Receives Blessing

Statesman News Service
MT. ANGEL — "This day I must abide in thy house," was the text Father Cyril Lebold, OSB used for his short address preceding the blessing of the new chapel of the Benedictine Village home Sunday afternoon. The text was taken from the 19th chapter of St. Luke.

Beginning with the celebration of Mass in the tiny chapel Monday morning, the Blessed Sacrament will be reserved in the tabernacle at all times, making it available to the people of the home.

After the talk, Father Cyril, assisted by Father Edward Spear, blessed first, the chapel itself, then the tabernacle. The services were opened with a hymn by St. Mary's choir and closed after the blessing with the singing of the Te Deum by all present.

Most of the directors and their wives, including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Unger, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brenden, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner were present. Also attending were the Rev. Mother Gemma, OSB, and her assistant, Sister M. Annella, and a group of Sisters from the Benedictine convent in Mt. Angel.

Others included a small crowd of townspeople, Sister Antoinette, manager of the home, and her assistants and the inmates. The little chapel built onto the northwest end of the Benedictine Village home was completed only last week. The home for the aged and infirm was opened less than a year ago.

Rev. Dominic Braxmeyer of Mt. Angel Abbey is the chaplain and offers mass at the home every morning.
