Modern Etiquette
By Roberta Lee

Q. When the guests begin lighting cigarettes after a meal in someone's home, and you find there is no ashtray near you, is it all right to use one of the used dishes in front of you?

A. Never. Don't light your cigarette until you have asked your hostess if you may have an ashtray.

Q. When taking food offered by a waiter, is it necessary to say "Thank you"?

A. This isn't considered necessary, but there most certainly is nothing wrong with it.

Q. Is it all right to use a knife to open a muffin?

A. Never. Bread of all kinds should be broken open with the fingers, never cut.

Make a Toybag . . .

Noah's Ark toybag . . . The aftermath of Christmas morning will be much easier on Mom if she includes a gay toybag along with the toys around the tree. Then the small fry will have a place to put their toys away after the first exciting round of opening packages. They are easy to make from a standard pattern.
