

Ring-a-Lings Win Top Prize for Portland Woman at Big Bake-off

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

That big $25,000 first prize from the Pillsbury Flour Mills' annual Bakeoff has come pretty close to home this time. (Picture on page 1.) Mrs. Henry Jorgensen, Portland, in the words of an official of the sponsoring company, "ran circles around the other contestants" when she whipped up her Ring-a-Lings, from sweetroll dough. Mrs. Jorgensen was one of a hundred contestants who had been chosen from among thousands, to bake her recipe at the Bakeoff held in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City. The recipe, she says, came from her mother.

Here is the bread which won the Oregon woman the coveted award:

RING-A-LINGS

- | | |
|---|--|
| 2 cakes compressed yeast | 2 teaspoons salt |
| 1/4 cup lukewarm water | 2 teaspoons grated orange rind |
| (or 2 packages dry yeast and 1/4 cup very warm, not hot, water) | 2 unbeaten eggs |
| 1/2 cup butter or margarine | 4 to 4 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour |
| 1/4 cup hot scalded milk | 1/4 cup orange juice |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 3 tablespoons sugar |

Soften compressed yeast in lukewarm water. (Or soften dry yeast in warm water.) Combine butter and milk in large bowl. Stir until butter melts. Cool to lukewarm. Add sugar, salt, orange rind, eggs and the yeast mixture. Gradually add the flour to form a stiff dough. Mix thoroughly. Cover and let stand 30 minutes. Roll out to a 22x12-inch rectangle on floured board. Spread half of dough along long side with nut filling, fold uncovered dough over filling, cut into 1-inch strips (crosswise). Twist each strip 4 or 5 times. Hold one end down on baking sheet, curl around in a spiral, tucking end underneath. Cover with waxed paper or towel.

Let rise in warm place (85 to 90 degrees) until doubled in size, 45 to 60 minutes. For warm place, set pan of boiling water in bottom of cold oven. Place rolls on rack above; close oven door. Remove 15 minutes before baking to preheat oven. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 minutes until light golden brown.

Meanwhile prepare glaze of orange juice and sugar. Brush tops of rolls and bake 5 minutes longer until deep golden brown. Remove from baking sheet immediately. Makes 1 1/2 to 2 dozen rolls.

NUT FILLING

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1/2 cup butter or margarine | 1 cup (1/4 lb.) filberts, ground or chopped very fine (other nuts may be substituted) |
| 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar | |

Cream butter. Blend in sugar thoroughly. Add nuts. Mrs. Jorgensen, wife of a Portland city employee, says she plans to use some of the prize money to send her 18-year-old son to college.

Karen Folkmeier, Battle Creek, Mich., won first junior prize of $3,000 for her Pieburgers. Mrs. Claude Hughes, Orange, Va., won $7,500 for a Regency Ribbon Cake. Mrs. Niculous Siciu, Otter Lake, Mich., won $2,500 for Apple Dumplings.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilcrease (Shirley Scholtz) who were recently married at St. Mark's Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Scholtz. The newlyweds are now at home in Salem.

Juniors Bring Gifts of Toys

The traditional exchange of gifts among the membership was changed by the Junior Woman's Club Monday night to a worthwhile project. Each person brought a toy or an article of clothing for a child and these were distributed among needy families. The membership voted to continue this each year.

Magazines for Friendship, a national project for the benefit of European countries was accepted by the group. Each member will bring one current magazine to the business meeting on January 9, for which Mrs. Bernice Sullivant is chairman.

A few of the favorite Christmas carols were sung by the group following the meeting. Mrs. Theodore de Loze led the singing, with Mrs. Richard Ballantyne at the piano.

Bruce Damaske Honor Guest

Mrs. Vivian Damaske entertained Friday at the Mayflower Hall in honor of her son, Bruce, on his 12th birthday.

The evening was spent in playing games. After the gifts were opened refreshments were served from a large table carrying out the colors of pastel pink and green.

Honoring Bruce were Robert Ackerman, Dale Addie, Marilyn Aleshire, Jane Beyer, Jean Blankvoort, Terry Boman, Richard Bonar, Gene Brown, Victor Brunck, Christine Busick, Stephen Carpenter, Shelia Case, Michael Cavender, Billy Clark, Tommy Cleary, Melvin Doney, Burna Dean Driver, Cody Evans, Donna Wright, Pamela St. Clair, Raymond Erickson, Ronald Schindler, Arlan Schendel, Stanley Bullock, Dale Nelson, Tommy Nelson and Larry High.

Those assisting in the entertainment were Mrs. Wilma Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson and Mrs. Bieber.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. I was widowed several months ago, and a friend has told me I am supposed either to discard my wedding ring or wear it on my right hand. What is correct?

A. You certainly do not have to do either of these! You may continue to wear your wedding ring for as long as you wish.

Q. What is the proper way to use a finger bowl at the dinner table?

A. Dip the ends of the fingers of one hand at a time, not both together, into the water. Then dry them with a napkin on the lap.

Q. Is it all right for a young man to accept a cigarette offered to him by a girl?

A. This is quite all right.

Christmas Party For Maccabees

The Maccabees of Unit 84D will meet Thursday night at the Beaver Hall for a family Christmas party and turkey dinner. The no-host dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the lodge furnishing the turkeys. There will be an exchange of gifts and special treats for the children.
