

Reds Free Missionaries

Leaves China HONG KONG — Doctor Homer V. Bradshaw is helped from ambulance on arrival at Hong Kong Tuesday. He and his wife were arrested by the Chinese Communists nearly five years ago. They are missionaries. (AP Wirephoto).

'My Aching Feet' BOSTON — Greeting record crowds of shoppers here was just too much for Santa Claus who picked a curbstone to sit and rest his weary feet for a few minutes. (AP Wirephoto).

Called BAGHDAD — Fawzi El Mulki, left, a former Jordan premier, was reported Tuesday to have been called upon to head a caretaker cabinet in Jordan pending the holdover of new elections. (AP Wirephoto).

Cool, Man, Cool MOUNT WASHINGTON, N. H.—Roger Brown of the Observatory staff atop this highest mountain in the northeast, chips rime from windshield of jeep parked overnight Monday. It was 33 degrees below zero at daybreak on 6288 foot summit, with winds up to 101 m.p.h. (AP Wirephoto).

Rita Bundles Up NEW YORK—Trying to warm herself against the cold wave that has gripped the eastern seaboard, actress Rita Hayworth pulls on fur coat following arrival here Wednesday because of a legal fight with Columbia pictures. (AP Wirephoto).

Christmas Present ATLANTA—Air Force Sgt. Bill Hendricks, 36, and Miss Jeanette Hulsey, 34, read Christmas cards as they make plans to be married. Hendricks, a veteran of 15 years service, was scheduled to go overseas in February, but he wanted to marry Jeanette who is bedridden, almost blind and a victim of rheumatoid arthritis. Hendricks was removed from overseas list for at least a year by military officials. (AP Wirephoto).

Diaper Fire Victims SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Mrs. neighbor after fire starting in baby's diapers burned them out Prima De Gracia, 24, wife of navy housing home. Diapers were drying in front of gas heater, and seven children got shelter at home of neighbor. (AP Wirephoto).

