Butteville Women Are Busy

BUTTEVILLE — The Butteville Women's fellowship held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. G. W. Leek in Fargo with 30 members and guests present.

Family night and the Sunday School Christmas program will be given December 18 at 7:30 p.m. The Christmas worship service will be on Christmas morning at 10:30.

Over 60 members and their families participated in a ham and no-host dinner at the St. Alexie Rebekah and I.O.O.F. lodge rooms last week. Cards were played following the dinner.

The 4-H Sewing Club, "Buttons and Bows" of the Butteville school held their regular meeting last week. Several demonstrations were made and refreshments were served by Glenn Joe Riley. The girls are working on stuffed toys for Christmas.

The annual Christmas party and gift exchange for the St.itch and Chatter Club was held at the home of Mrs. Donna Shaffer. Gifts were sent to patients at the Tuberculosis hospital. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Miller.

Unit Members Are Awarded Certificates

Those completing the course were Rose Maurer, Hazel Marshall, Jean Manning, Thelma Christopher, Zella Williams, Erna Pearce, Edith Ingels. Recruiting of home nursing and first aid classes is the civil defense project of Capital Unit. More classes will start in January.

Mrs. Mem Pearce, child welfare chairman, has purchased toys and food for several veterans families for Christmas. Mrs. James Garson, rehabilitation chairman, will deliver 214 baskets of cigarettes, candy and fruit to veterans in the State Hospital as a gift for the Yanks program of the Legion and Auxiliary.

The auxiliary voted $25 to the Gift of Yanks Department of Oregon, American Legion. Two magazines, Keys to Peace, will be placed in the two Senior High Schools.

The Post members joined with the Auxiliary to hear carol singing by the PTA Mothers singing group. Christmas decorations were arranged by Mrs. G. H. Keller and refreshments served by the officers and executive board members. Next meeting will be January 16.

Nancy Weeks to Head Bethel 35

Bethel 35, Job's Daughters, held junior Bethel night on Monday. Officers were elected for the next term and include honored queen, Miss Nancy Weeks; senior princess, Miss Julie Peterson; junior princess, Miss Lamona Collins; guide, Miss Marilyn Reany; and marshal, Miss Jody Bourne.

Misses Jan Pease, Janet Andrews and Sandra VanLydgraf visited the Blind school and read to the children. Miss Marilyn Reany told about the Secret Dad's dinner preceding the last meeting.

Misses Sue Roberts and Sandy Lloyd were named drill team committee chairmen.

The next regular meeting will be Jan. 2.

Party Given for Woman's Club

JEFFERSON—Holly, red velvet poinsettias and large, decorated Christmas candles carried out the Christmas theme at the salad luncheon enjoyed by members of the Jefferson Woman's club.

The group sang Christmas carols. A box of gifts for the MacLaren School for Boys was collected and money donated to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

Elected to the library board were Edith Libby and Mrs. J. McNallie. Hostesses were Mrs. Leonard Marcum, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. Marvin Hutchings, Mrs. Herbert Looney and Mrs. Frank Martin.

The next meeting will be January 11.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When giving an informal dinner, isn't it all right for the hostess to say, "Just sit anywhere you wish?"

A. No; this can often lead to confusion. It is too much like playing the old game of "musical chair." The hostess should always designate where each guest should sit.

Q. Would it be all right for a bride and bridegroom to hold their reception in the new home in which they are going to live?

A. This is quite all right, and it also affords them a wonderful opportunity to show off their new home to their relatives and friends.

Q. Is it proper for a woman to refer to her husband by his last name, as "Barnes" or "Smith," instead of as "Dick" or "Bob"?

A. This sounds rather coarse and ill-bred to me.
