

On the directorate . . . for the annual Catholic Daughters of America Christmas formal to be held December 28 are, left to right, Miss Rosalie Kerr, Miss Rosemary Rhoten, general chairman, Miss Martha Pappert, Miss Frances Finney and Miss Dottie Shepherd. The affair will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. (Statesman Photo).

Miss Claudia Talmage Is Married

Married at a Christmas Eve ceremony at the First Methodist Church were Miss Claudia Talmage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Talmage, and Patrick Magee, son of Mrs. Rupert Magee. The Rev. Brooks Moore officiated at the 7 o'clock nuptials before members of the immediate family and a few friends.

For her wedding the bride wore a white sheath afternoon gown of lace over satin. Her matching satin hat was adorned with seed pearls and she carried a white orchid.

Mrs. Virginia Fulwider was the honor attendant and she wore a red lace over satin gown and carried a bouquet of poinsettias and white roses. Ronald Magee stood with his brother as best man.

Mrs. Talmage chose a champagne brocade gown with black accessories for her daughter's nuptials. Mrs. Magee wore an ice blue gown with charcoal grey accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the American Legion Club. Mrs. Arthur Cordier, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Kirk and Miss Sandra Hill. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Svejksky, Miss Velma Gallup, Miss Charlotte Gerig and Mrs. Howard Begull.

The couple will make their home in Salem at 740 North Cottage Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore James Brewer (Patsy Lu'Ellen Snider), whose holiday marriage took place at the First Presbyterian Church on December 18. The bride is the daughter of Fred M. Snider and Mr. Brewer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Brewer of Portland. The couple will live in Corvallis. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Hostesses Arrange Holiday Teas and Coffee Parties

The holiday season is festive with many parties this year with several hostesses planning Christmas teas and coffees this week. Mrs. Chester Zumwalt and her daughters, Mrs. Keith Farnum and Mrs. Donald E. Russell, will be hostesses for a holiday tea Tuesday afternoon at the Zumwalt home on Hood Street. Guests have been invited to call between 2 and 6 o'clock.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Lauren Gale, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Charles Claggett and Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker. Assisting will be Miss Patti Claggett and Miss Sue Zwicker.

Pi Phi Actives Feted
The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Past Presidents are entertaining with a holiday coffee Tuesday at the Kingwood Heights home of Mrs. James T. Brand. The affair is being arranged in compliance to the active members home from college for the holidays and their mothers. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague will preside at the coffee urn.

Tri Deltas to Entertain
The Delta Delta Delta alumnae will be hostesses for a Christmas tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Sprague on East Rural Avenue between 3 and 5 o'clock. Bidden are the active members home from college, their mothers, and alumnae. Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Carroll Roger Nelson and Mrs. Thomas Hill Jr. Pouring will be Mrs. Mark Astrup and Mrs. Harold O. Schneider.

Immediate past president and president of the alumnae group respectively. Assisting will be the committee arranging the affair including Mrs. J. M. Morris, Mrs. George Huggins Jr., Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. Astrup and Mrs. Sprague.

Thursday Club Tea
The Thursday Club will be entertained at a Christmas tea on December 29 at the Mission Street residence of Mrs. Keith Powell. Assisting Mrs. Powell will be Mrs. Paul L. Patterson and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards. Members have been invited to call at 3 o'clock.

Coffee for Kappa Actives
The Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae will entertain their active members in Salem and the Willamette Valley at a Christmas coffee on Friday, December 30 at the Candalaria Heights home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills. Guests have been invited to call at 10:30 o'clock. Arranging the affair are Mrs. Roger M. Schnell and Mrs. Robert Elgin.

Seen and Heard . . .

By JERYME ENGLISH

GALA AND FESTIVE . . . parties highlighting the social calendar the Sunday before Christmas . . . in spite of the icy weather (the worst day this year) a majority of the guests were able to get to the parties. . . . However, we know there would have been dozens more attending the Salem General Hospital Auxiliary's Christmas house tour if the weather man had been kinder . . . and by coincidence all the homes were situated on high hills. . . .

AT HOME . . . to a large group of their friends were Mr. and Mrs. George Schwartz . . . a gala party with guests staying on and on . . . Much buzzing conversation . . . The buffet table, laden with trays of delicious hors d'oeuvres, ham and turkey, a popular gathering spot. . . . A green cloth on the table and at the back a tiered arrangement of bright, colored beads and jewels with a jeweled Christmas tree on top. . . .

On the mantel . . . at one end a white tree branch adorned with tiny Christmas bells . . . arrangements of candles, vigil lights and greens about the rooms. . . . Mrs. Schwarz wearing a navy blue taffeta gown. . . . Assisting the hosts were their son-in-law and daughter, Ormond and Joanne Munger . . . and their son, George Schwarz . . . who is now with an architect's firm in Portland. . . .

Driving . . . the icy roads from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Sigmond Schwarz, brother and sister-in-law of the host . . . and chatting with their two sons and spouses, Robert and Durand Schwarz, now living in Salem . . . Mr. and Mrs. Del Stoker down from Oswego a charming couple to meet and former Salt Lake City residents . . . and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ambuhl of Portland, among those assisting the hosts. . . .

Among the guests . . . The George Alexanders and daughter, Charlotte, smart in black velvet . . . Young marrieds . . . John and Kay Crockett and Ron and Penny Jones . . . The Harry Dorfman looking forward to a trip South after Christmas and the Rose Bowl game . . . The Glenn Paxsons being welcomed home from a trip to New Orleans. . . .

Spotted . . . Col. and Mrs. Logan C. Berry and her mother, Mrs. Walter Brownlow . . . Mrs. Berry stunning in a rose-pink satin gown with matching chapeau . . . Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel in a handsome peccan brown wool . . . Mrs. Robert Ebersole donning a chic white fur hat with her grey costume suit . . . Mrs. John Griffith wearing a good-looking brown crepe and satin gown . . . Amidst the crowd glimpsed Mrs. Merrill Ohlring's pretty American Beauty velvet chapeau. . . .

OPEN HOUSE . . . at the Ralph Atwoods a week ago when they were joined by the Sam Campbells as co-hosts . . . A steady stream of guests driving down the lane to the Atwoods' lovely and spacious new Morningside home . . . Three attractive, young girls greeting guests on arriving . . . Judy Atwood, Pat Campbell, daughters of the hosts, and Sue Keech . . . The hostesses . . . Rosemary Atwood in a becoming black embroidered eyelet taffeta gown and Eleanor Campbell choosing a sophisticated black satin afternoon gown. . . .

The large living room . . . with picture windows overlooking the Cascades . . . the fireplace mantel all decorated in pink . . . the wrought iron stairway leading to the recreation room garlanded with greens. . . . On the brick wall facing the front door the letters "NOEL" made out of styrofoam. . . . Guests . . . gathering in the attractive, keeping room . . . here matching wallpaper and curtains . . . a raised hearth on the fireplace . . . the buffet table covered with a poinsettia cloth and in the center a large red candle was burning encircled with greens and ornaments . . . A similar table arranged in the large recreation room . . . a red cloth and extending the length of the table were sleighs filled with bright colored ornaments . . . napkins printed with the names of the four hosts.

PARTY TIME . . . Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walper joined forces for a holiday open house . . . the beautiful, contemporary home of Ted and Jean atop Crestview Drive the setting for the party . . . their guests braving the ice and driving up the hill. . . . The pretty, brunette hostesses greeting their guests in stunning gowns. . . . Jean Morris wearing a white satin sheath and wide jeweled belt at the hipline from which extended satin panels, Virginia Walper's gown of moon blue velvet with shirring on one side and matching earrings. . . .

A revolving . . . silver tree adorned with silver ornaments and flood lighted in one corner of the living room . . . here the striking decor in grey, black and white. The punch table covered with a black and white tulle circular cloth . . . silver and red beads extending over the punch bowl filled with red punch. . . . Guests gathering in the large family room . . . a large, brick fireplace wall and hearth . . . instead of stockings, the two Morris boys each decorated a small tree, which are fastened to the brick wall. . . .

SO STRIKING . . . and beautiful the Christmas wedding a week ago of Patsy Snider and Theodore James Brewer . . . The colonial sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church the setting for the afternoon nuptials . . . the decor all red and white . . . alternate red and white candles down the center aisle, at the altar and in the windows . . . the pews marked with greenery which had been flocked red and white . . . The gorgeous altar bouquets of large white chrysanthemums and huge, red poinsettias . . . a large, holly wreath above the choir loft . . .

Here they come! . . . the attendants wearing green crystal-ette waist frocks with matching shozs and headresses . . . Nancy Snider, in red, her sister's honor maid . . . their exquisite crescent bouquets of holly, feathers red carnations and red ornaments centered with a white candle, which was lighted as the girls walked down the aisle . . . the little flower girl, Gay Lewis, also in red crystal-ette, and ring bearer, Johnny Hire, so serious while walking together . . .

The newlyweds . . . greeting their guests at a reception in the church parlors . . . a large contingent of the college set over from Oregon State for the occasion . . . the red and white decor repeated at the reception . . . fir trees adorned with large, double red bows placed about the large room . . . and interspersed with bouquets of white chrysanthemums . . . The bride's table covered with a white satin damask cloth . . . red and white tapers flanking the tiered cake with pillars between the two top tiers . . . on top a silver urn filled with red and white flowers . . . even red and white mints . . . the punch table covered with a red cloth . . .

A shower . . . of rice thrown at the couple as they departed on their honeymoon . . . Patsy tossing her bouquet to bridesmaid Barbara Benson . . . After the holidays the duo will be living in Corvallis completing their studies at Oregon State.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newberry have as their Christmas guests her mother, Mrs. B.A. Johnston of Corvallis, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnston of Tacoma.

Junior CDA Formal on Wednesday

Highlight of the week for the Junior Catholic Daughters of America formal. The affair will be held Wednesday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall with dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock.

"Winter Windmill" is theme of the dance, which will be featured in the decorations and program. A number of pre-dance parties will precede and among the hostesses will be Miss Judy Woodry, who will entertain a group of her teenage friends at the Bellevue Street home of her parents, the Donald Woodrys.

Miss Rosemary Rhoten is general chairman for the dance with Miss Frances Finney, co-chairman. Their committees include Miss Joan Timm, decorations; Miss Kay Elliott, refreshments; Miss Martha Pappert, program; Miss Rosalie Kerr, publicity; and Miss Dottie Shepherd, clean-up.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance include Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pappert, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slikak, Mr. and Mrs. George Corrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Lechtenberg, Miss Kathy Corrigan, Miss Lorraine Meusey and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Riley.

Officers Will Be Installed On Friday

Installation of officers for Ainsworth Chapter, 176, OES will take place at the Scottish Rite Temple on Friday evening, December 30 at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koken will be installed as worthy matron and worthy patron. Other officers to be installed included Mrs. Paul Riffey, associate matron; V. Omer Huff, associate patron; Mrs. Howard Jenks, conductress; Mrs. Ira Goddard, associate conductress; Mrs. Frank R. Brown, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Calvert, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, chaplain; Mrs. V. Omer Huff, organist; Mrs. James N. Francis, marshal; Mrs. John Vernon, Adah; Mrs. Claude Cummings, Ruth; Mrs. R. L. Rolow, Esther; Mrs. James L. Smith, Martha; Mrs. Lawrence Lee, Electa; Mrs. Lawrence Lee, Warder and Mr. Ira Goddard, Sentinel.

A reception will follow the installation ceremonies with Mrs. W. C. Rambo as general chairman. The interested public is cordially invited to attend.

Holiday Ball Event of Tuesday

Old-fashioned family fun will rule the evening at the YWCA Holiday Ball Tuesday night, when Salem parents enjoy the rare opportunity of sharing a party with their teenage youngsters.

Tickets are now on sale at the YMCA, YWCA and Stevens'. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. in the gymnasium. There will be no staggline, state YW committee members, who urge teen-agers to come with dates or with their families. Bill DeSouza and his orchestra will play for dancing.

Hundreds of cookies for the refreshment tables are being popped into ovens this week, in anticipation of an even larger attendance than at last year's highly successful ball. All YWCA groups have been working on decorations and other details of the party. A giant snowman will tower behind the orchestra during the three-hour ball. Completing the holiday theme are a gaily-decorated Christmas tree, twinkling silver stars on the ceiling, and a wall-length Christmas greeting in large, glittering letters.

Club Calendar

TUESDAY
Past Oracle Club, Royal Neighbors with Mrs. Archie Elliott, 1988 Ferry St., 7:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
Royal Neighbors Sewing Club annual no-host turkey dinner, VFW Hall, 12:30 p.m.
Chadwick Chapter, OES, public installation, Scottish Rite Temple, 8 p.m.

FRIDAY
Ainsworth Chapter, OES, formal installation, Scottish Rite Temple, 8 p.m.
Past Regents, Chemeketa Chapter, DAR, with Mrs. Millard A. Pekar, 1 p.m. no-host luncheon.

Ohm's Hosts Today

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling will be hosts for a Christmas dinner today at their South High Street home for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton G. Moran and daughter, Shannon, of Vernonia, their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wells and daughter, Catherine Louise, Miss Amelia Zuhlsdorf of Albany, Mrs. Leona Johnson and Miss Julia Johnson of Portland.

Installation ceremonies with Mrs. W. C. Rambo as general chairman. The interested public is cordially invited to attend.

Music For Today

Violinists, Violists Appear as Soloists on Radio's Programs

By MAXINE BUREN

STANFORD MUSIC EDITOR

The Christmas weekend radio programs feature string soloists, Michel Piastro and Joseph Schuster will solo on the Symphonette's program, violinist Erica Morini with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony this morning, and Lorne Munroe and Harry Zaratzin, cello and viola soloists on the Philadelphia Symphony's presentation of the Richard Strauss' Don Quixote, next Saturday evening.

Programs for today include:
11 a.m. — The Symphonette, Michel Piastro, conductor and soloist, and Joseph Schuster, cellist.

Gloria from Mass in F. Battman Christmas Carols — Trad. Jesus of Nazareth — Gounod Jingle Bells — Knight Ave Maria — Bach-Gounod Finale from Symphony No. 2 in B flat major — Schubert Gold and Silver Waltz — Lehár 2:30-4:00 on CBS — New York Philharmonic-Symphony, George Szell, conductor, Erica Morini, violin soloist.

Symphony No. 4 in F minor — Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto in D minor — Tchaikovsky On Monday hear: 8:30 on ABC — Voice of Firestone. 9:00 on NBC — The Telephone Hour, with the Bell Symphonic Orchestra directed by Donald Voorhees. Leon Fleisher, pianist, will be guest soloist. Le Carillon from "L'Arlésienne Suite No. 1" — Bizet Orchestra Moment Musical No. in F Minor — Schubert Valse in F Major, Opus 34, No. 2 — Chopin Leon Fleisher Valse from "Serenade for Strings" — Tchaikovsky Orchestra Concerto in C Minor —

Jason Lee Circles Meet Wednesday

Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Jason Lee Memorial Methodist Church will meet Wednesday, Dec. 28 at 1:30 p.m. as follows:

Cherokee (Laura Austin) with Mrs. E. J. Williams, 1424 N. Winter.
Choctaw (Anna Lee) with Mrs. Minnie VanSlyke, 947 Garnet.
Seminole (Thoburn) with Mrs. Milton Blackman, 2233 Lansing Ave.

Circles will complete their study of the book "Within Two Worlds" and make plans for their part at the big Indian Pow Wow dinner to be held at the January general meeting on Jan. 11.

Finale — Rachmaninoff Leon Fleisher and Orchestra Opera from the stage of the Metropolitan will be broadcast beginning at 11 a.m. next Saturday.

6:05 on CBS — The Philadelphia Orchestra, conducted by Eugene Ormandy. Lorne Munroe, cello, and Harry Zaratzin, viola, soloists. Toccata for Orchestra — Piston Don Quixote — Strauss

Peace on earth

Joy to the world through a new spirit of Peace and Good Will
...this was the message
of the first Christmas.
May that spirit be rekindled
in your heart today...
and brighten your life
with a deep and abiding happiness.

W.T. GRANT CO
260 N. LIBERTY

MERRY Christmas

The Yuletide Season brings with it so many happy things... glad hearted greetings, good fellowship, family reunions and a deep feeling of contentment. May all of these joys be yours this Christmas.

Roberts Bros.
liberty street - court street

Estate Sale

40-Acre Farm, Located East Near Salem
Make Your Offer to Pioneer Trust Co.,
or See Your Broker
Phone 3-3136