Twin Girls Are Christened

The twin daughters, Barbara Jean and Brenda Joyce, of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ky Putnam of Portland, former Salem residents, were christened as services on Christmas day at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Grandfather of the girls, the Rev. George H. Swift, officiated at the 2:30 o'clock ceremony.

Godparents for Barbara Jean are her uncle, Dr. George H. Swift, Jr., of Duke University, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Haehl (Jean Marie Swift) of San Francisco. Brenda's godparents are Dr. Swift, and another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. Smith (Alice Swift).

Others attending the christening were the little girls' paternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Rex Putnam; Mrs. R. J. Anderson of Shelbyville, Kentucky, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Haehl Sr., of Portland.

The Rev. and Mrs. Swift entertained at a family dinner for the group.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it possible to correct someone's grammar without being impolite?

A. No one likes being corrected in group conversation and efforts at improvement of grammar and diction had better be reserved for members of one's family or very close friends who may consider them as favors, and not insults.

Q. Should a hostess take the men's coats when they arrive at her home, and there is no servant?

A. No. If the host is not present, she should provide a place for the men to leave their wraps as they arrive.

Q. Should the napkin be held above the edge of the table when unfolding it?

A. No; the napkin should be unfolded in the lap.

Q. Is it a matter of etiquette for a new father to give out cigars and candy to his friends?

A. This is not required by any rules of etiquette. It is just an old widespread American custom.
