

President Meets Press

Question Session KEY WEST, Fla. — President Eisenhower is shown talking to reporters at his first news conference since his Sept. 24 heart attack. When asked about a second term Eisenhower said he wanted to discuss the possibility further with "my trusted advisers." The president said, "My mind at this moment is not fixed to such an extent it can't change. (AP Wirephoto)

Eyes Right LONDON — This radiant young lady is Princess Margaret, a far cry from sad young princess who won worldwide sympathy when she chose duty over romance a short while back. Object of her attention is the profiled Lord Patrick Terence William Span Plunket, 32-year-old guardsman, who has been Margaret's constant after dark companion recently. This exchange of glances at a London theater Friday night speaks for itself. (AP Wirephoto)

Returns WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower leaves his plane in sub-freezing weather at national airport upon his return from Key West, Fla. (AP Wirephoto)

Double Royalty CHICAGO — Her Serene Highness to be, actress Grace Kelly, is handed a nosegay of pink roses by Margaret Mary Barbara, 3 1/2, queen of the 1956 March of Dimes drive in Cook County, as she arrived here enroute to Hollywood from New York. (AP Wirephoto)

Congratulations WILMINGTON, Del. — Very Rev. J. Francis Tucker receives congratulations from Prince Rainier III of Monaco following a mass observing the 50th anniversary of Father Tucker's entering religious life. Father Tucker is personal chaplain to the Prince. Mrs. John B. Kelly, mother of actress Grace Kelly, who is betrothed to the Prince, looks on. (AP Wirephoto)

Mother Missing MINNEAPOLIS — Plumber Andy Gilmore, shown with four of his five children, thinks his wife may have been kidnaped or may be mentally ill. The 28-year-old woman has been missing since Dec. 14. "If only she knew how we need her," said Gilmore as three of the children prepared to move into foster homes. (AP Wirephoto)

Rocked ACAPULCO, Mexico — Underlined is the resort town of Acapulco on the Pacific Coast which was rocked by six earthquakes Sunday. Over 100 were reported injured, the Red Cross said, and damage was believed to be great. No Americans were said to be among the injured. Hundreds of residents, afraid to stay indoors Sunday night, slept on the streets, beaches and in cars. (AP Wirephoto Map)

