Mrs. John Alvin Dies, the former Loma Louella Lawrence before her December marriage at the First Christian Church in Dallas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Lawrence and Lt. Dies is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Dies, all of Dallas. (Palmer's Studio, Dallas).

Church Rites Unite Couple In Marriage

DALLAS—The marriage of Miss Loma Louella Lawrence of Dallas and Lt. John Alvin Dies, Greenville, Miss., was solemnized at an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony on Dec. 28 at the First Christian church in Dallas with Dr. Earl Benbow of Aurora and the Rev. John MacDonald officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pepper Lawrence and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Dies, all of Dallas.

Lighting the candles were Richard Kadel, cousin of the bride, of Sherwood, and Larry Harding of Monmouth. Richard Muhle of Portland sang, accompanied by Mrs. Irene Adams.

The bridal gown was of white lace with net yoke outlined with scallops of lace, and a full skirt of tulle over satin with a panel of lace extending down the front. The gown was floor length with a chapel train. Her lace edged fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white opelia and red garnet roses.

Precede the Bride
Miss Mary Gerlinger of Dallas was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sherie Kadel, cousin of the bride, of Sherwood, Miss Nancy Holcomb, Portland, and Janet Hersh, Salem, sorority sisters of the bride. They wore floor length wine colored taffeta dresses trimmed in pale pink satin and pink satin gauntlets and crowns caught with rhinestone trimmed net. They carried nosegays of pink roses and white carnations.

Karen Wilson, niece of the groom from Raton, New Mexico, and Virginia Ruckman, Monmouth, were flower girls.

Barnes Rogers of Salem was the best man and the ushers were Gordon Wilson, brother-in-law of the groom from Raton, N. Mex., William Kadel Lawrence, brother of the bride, Forrest Garrigus, Jr. of McMinnville and George Porter of Portland.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lawrence wore a light blue velvet sheath dress. Mrs. Dies, the groom's mother, was attired in a mauve crepe dress.

Assist at Reception

A reception followed in the church social rooms. Acting as hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Alma Dempsey of Rickreall and Mrs. Barnes D. Rogers of Salem. Serving the cake were Mrs. Omer Kadel, aunt of the bride, Sherwood, Mrs. William Steele, McMinnville, Mrs. Jessie
