Ike Directs Atom Parley

Atomic Parley WASHINGTON — President Dwight Eisenhower met with high government officials at the White House Friday to discuss his atomic-for-peace program. Left to right are: Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey; President Eisenhower; Dillon Anderson, special assistant to the President in charge of national security affairs; Adm. Lewis Strauss, Atomic Energy Commission chairman, and Defense Secretary Charles Wilson. (AP Wirephoto.)

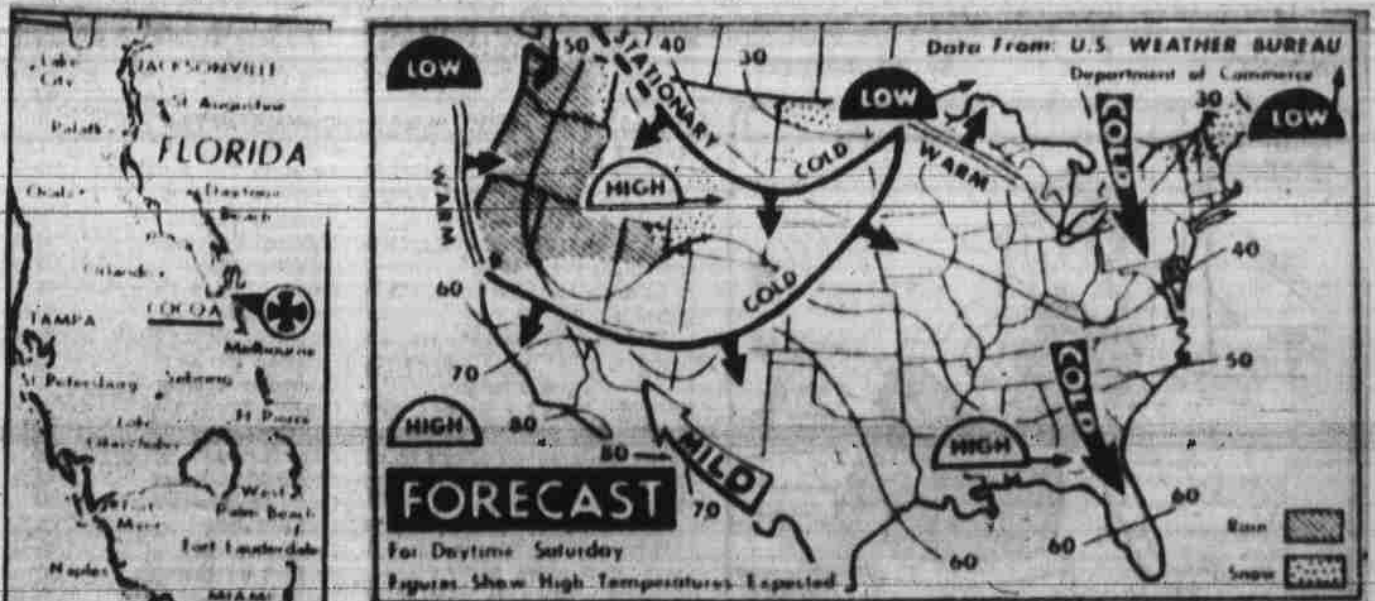

Separated PROVO, Utah—Mrs. Vera Black of Short Creek, Utah, tearfully hugs daughter Elsie, 11, after state welfare authorities took charge of her eight children Friday when she refused not to teach them polygamy. Other daughters in picture are Lillian, 14, and Emilie, 9. (AP Wirephoto.)

Solons on Scooter WASHINGTON — Members of House of Representatives are forced to walk to the Capitol every day, but Rep. James C. Auchincloss (R-N.J.) has equipped himself with electric scooter. Auchincloss, an arthritis victim, is shown giving lift to Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) Friday. (AP Wirephoto.)

'Specs' Sings BOSTON—Sign tells the story as wide-eyed Joseph J. "Specs" O'Keefe, 47, emerges from secret session with grand jury taking evidence Friday in spectacular crackup to million-plus Brink's robbery six years ago. Authorities said he "talked" because he didn't get his share of the loot. (AP Wirephoto.)

Rain Again NEW YORK—Precipitation is forecast Saturday in northern New England, upper New York, North Dakota, in the Great Basin, the northern Rockies and from central California to Washington. (AP Wirephoto.)

Launching COCOA, Fla. — Cross locates Cocoa, Fla., from where a "metallic sphere" will be launched and sent into space as a "baby moon" orbiting around the earth, Defense Department officials announced. (AP Wirephoto.)

Play Safe While You Drive!

Keep alert—chew gum

Avoid traffic jitters and driving drowsiness. Chew gum while you're behind the wheel. Chewing helps relieve strain and tension—helps keep you feeling fresh and alert for safer driving. Chew any brand of gum you like but chew while you drive. Naturally, we recommend refreshing, delicious Wrigley's Spearmint Gum—for lively, satisfying flavor and real chewing enjoyment.
