

Organizations Elect New Officers

By FLOSSY HODGE
Statesman Correspondent

Baxter Hall and UNESCO have both chosen their officers for next semester in recent elections. Don Klindworth of Portland will serve as president of Baxter Hall and assisting him will be Jack Ward of Lebanon, vice-president; Eugene Corey of West Linn, secretary; Chuck Schmitt of Portland, treasurer; Dave McCready of Forest Grove, house manager; Bob Van Vactor of Flammeth Falls, song leader; Stan Culy of Medford, chaplain; Jack Jones of Beaverton, student council representative; Jim Carey, intra-mural manager; and Frank Bash of Medford, reporter.

To Head UNESCO
Colleen Chilcote of Lebanon will head UNESCO next semester. Tanya Kudriacev of Salem has been named vice-president, and other officers are Rodene Bussey of Harrisburg, secretary-treasurer; and Lucy Myers of Cheshire, publicity chairman.

A past president of Willamette Independent Town Students, Ray Owens, was elected Rotarian of the Month by the Student Council. Owens is a senior philosophy major. Active in the Methodist church, Owens is vice-president of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement and served last year as Christian Resource Week manager. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Sigma Alpha Chi.

To even things out, some men were named to the production crew of Willamette's all-women play, "House of Bernard Alba" to be presented March 2 and 3. Heading the stage crew is Wayne Harris of San Mateo, Calif.; while Bob Brady of Monterey, Calif. will handle the lighting. Penny Wilkes of Beaverton and Lois Wickersham of Portland are in charge of make-up and properties, respectively.

Head University Players
Officers of Willamette University Players are Ken Renshaw of Burlingame, Calif., president; Louise Owens Johnson of Salem, vice-president; Ruth McCormick of White Salmon, Wash., secretary-treasurer; Mary Beth Van Cleave of Silverton, membership; June Lytle of Salem, historian; and Wayne Harris of San Mateo, Calif., publicity.

A hush has settled over the campus now that finals are coming closer and closer. Social Dead Weeks began Monday and the main campus attraction seems to be the library. The Law School will begin their final exams Monday, while the rest of the campus will be free to cram until next Saturday.

Attends Board Meeting
Mrs. William H. Fischer was in Seattle Wednesday for a meeting of the executive board of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. Plans were made for the Northwest District Convention which will be held in Salem on May 16 and 17, with St. John's Lutheran Women's Guild as hostess. Mrs. Fischer is general chairman of the convention.

Installed

Mrs. Bette Barnes, the newly installed president of the Salem F. L. Club of the Rebekah Lodge, who will serve during 1956.

Donation Given to Girls

Salem Skateland was the scene of one of the largest events of the year Tuesday when 266 Camp Fire Girls sponsored a roller skating party. After proceeds from the party were figured the ring management turned over a dividend of $47.13 to the girls to be used in any way they desire. The girls did not hold the party to raise money, since it is against their policy, however Skateland donated the money to the group to assist in their many projects.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERT L. LEE

Q. We have just moved into a new community, and I should like to give a buffet dinner for my new neighbors. Is this all right?

A. This might be all right in a very informal community. Usually, however, it is more advisable to wait until your neighbors make such overtures of friendship.

Q. Is it all right at the table to eat all of one particular food at once, instead of a bit of each—for instance, all your potatoes, then your salad, then your meat?

A. It is proper for one to eat one's meal in what ever order preferred.

Q. Is it proper for a girl to use perfume in an office?

A. Only if it is a "whisper," not a "shout."

House Dances At Fraternities This Weekend

By MARCIA WEBB
Statesman Correspondent

EUGENE — Fraternity house dances are being held this weekend at Chi Psi, Delta Tau Delta and Delta Upsilon. Among the Salem men who will be acting as hosts will be Jack Baker, Tom Bright, Phil Chadsey, Fritz Collet, Bill Cook, Murray Jensen and John Payne.

Several other fraternities were put on social probation by the disciplinary committee for their demands on their pledge classes during informal initiation. Sigma Phi Epsilon was commended, however, for the constructive program it promoted for the pledges. Sororities are now initiating pledges who made their grades.

Dads' Activities

Chairmen for Dads' Weekend are organizing activities and recommend that reservations be made immediately. The barber-shop quartet contest, open-houses in the departments of the University, a luncheon, the game with Washington State and dinner at the living organizations will entertain the fathers, acquaint them with the campus and prove that we think "Pops are Tops," the theme of the weekend, February 3 and 4.

Italian Pianist Plays

Maria Tipo, young Italian pianist, gave a concert sponsored by the Eugene Civic Music Association on Tuesday evening in MacArthur Court. This is Miss Tipo's first tour of the United States. She won second prize in the Queen Elizabeth International Competition for pianists in Brussels.

The Frosh Sno-Ball

A formal dance sponsored by the freshmen class, will be held January 28. All freshmen will be admitted free of charge.

Mrs. Cross to Head Camp Fire Girls Leaders Group

Leaders of Salem Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups met Tuesday to begin a new year for their association under the direction of newly elected chairman, Mrs. Leonard Cross. The new vice-chairman, Mrs. Glenn Davenport, took charge of a workshop period considering the 1956 birthday theme: "Plant Seeds—Reap Friendship."

Mrs. Davenport showed how vegetable seeds were to be packaged and sent to Burma, Ceylon, Pakistan and the Philippines, in cooperation with the national Seeds for Democracy project of the Asia Foundation. Mrs. Orville Johns exhibited several plastic sacks of the type to contain the seeds, decorated in bright symbols and designs by girls in her Camp Fire group.

Mrs. Virgil Pade explained how Blue Birds could learn of customs and the people in the countries where their packages would go, and Mrs. N. L. Paulson explained how Blue Birds could enjoy a dinner party featuring familiar foods made from the vegetables to be grown with the seeds. Mrs. Charles Prine told of correspondence and gifts from Pakistan which her Camp Fire girls have enjoyed as a result of a previous service package sent to that country.

Mrs. Sydney Murray reviewed an article from the leaders' monthly magazine entitled, "What Happens When You Make a Boner?"

Eight leaders volunteered to furnish tray-favors during coming months, as a service project for Salem hospitals.

Future meetings of the association will be held at the First Methodist church on the third Tuesday morning of the month, at 9:30 a.m.

SOUTH SALEM—The South Hills Garden club was the guest of the Rose Society on Tuesday evening at the YMCA. A motion picture was shown on all kinds of roses and a panel discussion was held on roses. After the meeting the group was entertained at the home of Mrs. D. L. McDonough on Sagnaw St.

Named as committee chairmen were hospitality, Mrs. Lou Stanley; publicity, Mrs. Duane Hewitt; program, Mrs. Orville Nunn; sunshine, Mrs. Dwayne Boline; and telephone, Mrs. Ray Morrow.
