

Ship Rams Radar Tower

Rail Chief BOSTON — George Alpert, 58, above, was named president of the New Haven Railroad Friday. Alpert has been a practicing lawyer in Boston 35 years. He succeeds Patrick B. McGinnis who resigned. A former assistant district attorney Alpert is a founder of Brandeis University. (AP Wirephoto.)

Withstands Crash BOSTON — This is the Texas Tower, a radar "island" 100 miles off Cape Cod into which the ship Sagitta of the Military Sea Transport Service crashed Friday suffering serious damage. The tower was unscathed. There were no casualties. While servicing the tower, the Sagitta's starboard side crashed the structure, tearing a hole in tanks in the ship's No. 2 hold. (AP Wirephoto.)

Airliner Falls LONDON — Firemen battle smoking wreckage of a British European Airways Viscount turbo-prop airliner which crashed and burned Friday while taking off from Blackbushe Airport outside London on a routine training flight. At right is a plane engine ripped off by the crash. The crew of five, the only persons aboard, escaped with only superficial injuries, company officials said. (AP Wirephoto.)

Dies HOLLYWOOD — Louise Carver, 87, one of Hollywood's first comedienne died in Hollywood Thursday. She was known as "Aunt Louise" to generations of movie players. (AP Wirephoto.)

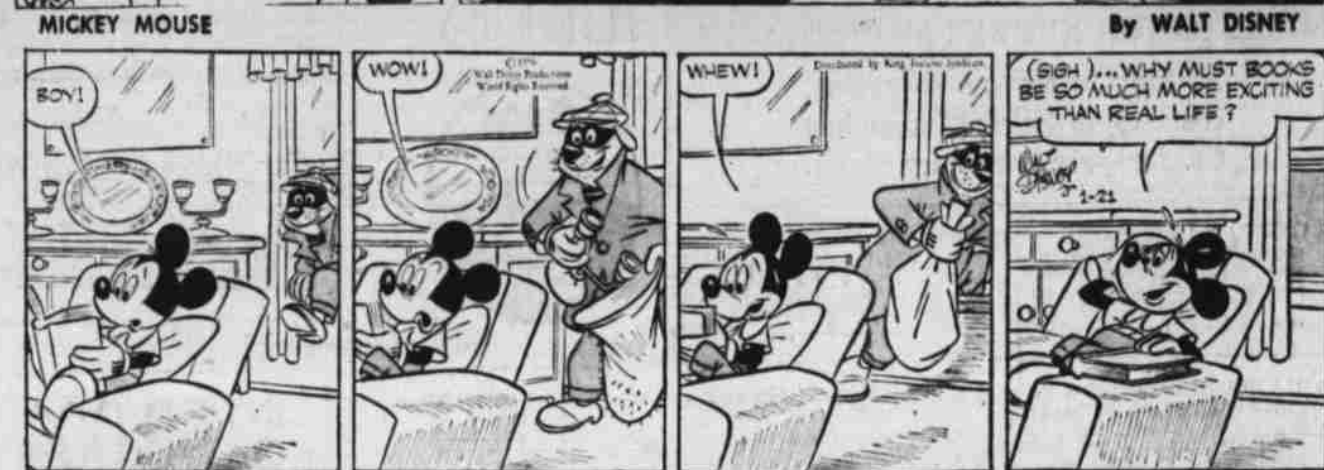

Snow Forecast Snow is predicted for Saturday for higher elevations of the Appalachians, Lakes region, and northern and central Rockies and Plains. Rain is due on Pacific coast from central California to the border, as well as Texas and Louisiana. It will be warmer over south Atlantic states; continue cold in Northeast. (AP Wirephoto.)

Snow Vacation DALLAS, Tex.—With schools closed because of the heavy snow these youthful hunters enjoy their holiday tramping through the snowy wilderness of a Dallas park, armed with bow and arrow and slingshot, in their search for game. (AP Wirephoto.)

Abandoned NEWARK, N.J.—A two-day-old baby left behind when her mother disappeared from St. Michael's Hospital Thursday, seems pleased with the attention she's getting from Sister Mary Brendan, left, and Nurse Dorothy Ann Walker. Police said the Mother identified herself as Mrs. Margaret Miller, 30, of West Liberty, Pa., but that she gave hospital officials a fictitious address. (AP Wirephoto.)

Chewing Delicious
Wrigley's Spearmint
Helps Keep Teeth Clean
Enjoy Daily...
Millions Do

WORLD AT YOUR DOOR EACH MORNING

EXCLUSIVE FEATURES in
Oregon Statesman

- It Seems to Me
- Charles A. Sprague
- Comes the Dawn
- Conrad Franke
- Sportlightner
- Al Lightner
- Around Town
- Jerry English
- Don't Look Now
- Maxine Buren
- Our Valley
- Charles Ireland

DICK TRACY By Chester Gould

WORLD AT YOUR DOOR EACH MORNING

Oregon Statesman