Miss Hazel Davis Weds Mr. Ewert At Church Rites

MONMOUTH — The First Baptist Church of Monmouth was the setting for the wedding of Miss Hazel Davis and Harold Ewert at 8 o'clock on January 14. The Rev. Roy Campbell officiated at the double ring ceremony. Pianist was Mrs. Roy Campbell and vocalist was Miss Shirley Salstrom.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Davis of Amity and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Ewert of Cove Orchard, near Gaston.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of lace and net over satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a fitted bodice with a low, sweetheart neckline with a net yoke. Her floor length, full skirt was enhanced with a panel of accordion-pleated net down the front. Her fingertip veil was caught to a seed pearl crown. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Wayne Sharp was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta and net ballerina gown and carried a nosegay of yellow and white carnations. Mrs. R. D. Davis, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Chapman, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore light green gowns and carried nosegays of white and green carnations.

Miss Letha Davis, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Kenneth Ewert, sister-in-law of the groom, were candlelighters. They wore pink gowns. Marlene Friesen, wearing pink, was flower girl and Steven Ewert, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

The groom's attendants were all brothers of the groom. Harvey Davis was best man, and Leonard and Kenneth Ewert were ushers.

After a reception in the church social rooms, the couple left for a honeymoon on the Oregon coast. They will make their home in Dallas.

The ninth grade Junior CDA troop of St. Joseph's Parish, with their counselor, Mrs. Dale Riley, met Thursday at the home of Sheila Caldwell. The girls worked on clothes to be given to charity. Yen For Chocolate Pie Can Be Easily Satisfied

The other day, while looking up a recipe for pineapple pie, we innocently looked in Gourmet Cookbook and of course we were trapped. That cookbook always excites our taste buds and makes us long to be one of those fortunates who can eat to their hearts content and not get fat.

But, on second thought, anticipation is more than half the pleasure of eating, and we would far rather be a food enthusiast with an unrequited appetite, than be sylphlike with no interest in vicinals.

Looking for another recipe, we ran across one for Chocolate Fudge pie which immediately attracted our attention, because it sounded rich and chocolaty — just what we chocolate-lovers want.

CHOCOLATE FUDGE PIE

1/2 cup butter	2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 cup sugar	1/2 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon vanilla	1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated	Unbaked pie shell

Cream butter, gradually add sugar and when light and fluffy, add vanilla and blend well. Add yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add melted chocolate and flour and mix well. Beat whites with salt until stiff but not dry. Fold into chocolate mixture. Turn into unbaked shell and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes or until pie is puffed on top. Cool, top with whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped nuts.

This pudding may be baked in a buttered pie plate not lined with pastry, and served in wedge-shaped pieces as a pudding.

Of course there is chocolate angel pie, a combination of fluffy chocolate in a meringue shell which many tearoom diners find intriguing. This pie is easy enough to make at home, if you know the secret of meringue-making.

CHOCOLATE ANGEL PIE

3 egg whites	4 ounces sweet chocolate
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar	3 teaspoons strong black coffee
Pinch salt	2 teaspoons vanilla
3/4 cup sifted sugar	1 cup cream, whipped
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Beat egg whites with rotary beater until foamy. Add cream of tartar and salt and whip until the whites stand in peaks. Add sugar gradually and beat until meringue is stiff, add half the vanilla.

Turn the meringue into a buttered 9-inch pie pan, and make a nest-like shell, building up sides of about 1/2 inch higher than the sides of the pan. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees) for 50 to 55 minutes and cool meringue after removing from pan.

Place chocolate and black coffee in a saucepan over a low flame. Stir until chocolate is smooth and melted. Cool and stir in remaining teaspoon vanilla, whip cream and fold in chocolate mixture. Turn into meringue shell and chill pie for about two hours.

Barbara Buckbee Now Mrs. Hadley

WILLAMINA — Miss Barbara Ann Buckbee of Salem and Franklin D. Hadley, son of Harold Hadley of Grand Ronde, were married in a late December wedding at the First Congregational Church in Salem. Rev. Julian Keiser read the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Pete Buckbee of Agate Beach, wore a white satin gown trimmed with lace. A pearl tiara held her veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and white roses.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERT A. LEE

Q. Is it proper, at a girl's school prom, for any of the girls to "cut in" on the boys during the dancing?

A. Even in this liberal age, I should hesitate to recommend this. Usually, girls' proms are program dances, and it is better to stick to the program.

Q. What is the proper thing to say when entering a st. age office, and you wish to see Mr. Carter, an executive?

A. "I should like to see Mr. Carter. I am John Marshall, of the Walker Manufacturing Company, Cleveland."
