

Pioneers WU Foe Tonight

The Willamette University Bears will have another try at getting into the Northwest Conference victory column tonight, this time in a game with the Lewis & Clark Pioneers in the WU Gym.

Game time is eight o'clock, and freshman units of the two schools are to play the prelim, at 6:15 o'clock.

Coach Johnny Lewis' club is presently stuck in the conference dungeon, after losing four of the first five games. After losing an opening game at College of Idaho, the Willamettes spilled Whitman at Walla Walla but then lost solos to Linfield and Pacific.

Can Gain a Tie
Eldon Fix' Pioneers aren't much better off, sporting a two-win, three-loss mark at present. Thus the Bears can pull themselves up into a tie with the Pioneers if they can swipe tonight's clash.

Another league game tonight finds the Linfield Wildcats at Forest Grove to play the Pacifics. As the four teams go postward for tonight's fare, College of Idaho continues in front of the field with a 5-1 mark. Pacific is next with 4-2. Linfield has a 2-2 record, Lewis & Clark 2-3, Whitman 2-4 and Willamette 1-4.

Mounties Nip Wolves 85-84

LA GRAND — (Special) — Oregon College of Education never pulled the major upset of the year in the Oregon Collegiate Conference here Friday night before bowing to Eastern Oregon, 85-84, in a tight and thrilling game. EOCE now has a 5-0 OCC record and OCE has yet to win a game with a 0-4 mark.

With just seven seconds remaining in the fray, Bill West, the Mountaineers big footballer, scored his only field goal of the game to cinch the win. OCE didn't have time to retaliate.

Score at halftime was 46-42 for the event victors.

Ken Westenskow was high point man with 22 centers. Leading the visiting Wolves was Cecil Miller with 22.

OCE hit .463 from the field while EOCE connected on a .377 average.

Souchak Ups Lead To Three Strokes

TIJUANA, Mex. (AP) — Big Mike Souchak, with another round of 59 par golf, stretched his lead to three strokes Friday as play reached the midway mark of the $12,500 Caliente open.

The 22-year-old Souchak wasn't as hot as he was in the first round, when he toured the long Tijuana country club course in a seven under par 65, but his 71 gave him a 36-hole score of 136.

Souchak, who held a two-stroke lead starting out Friday morning, was three blows in front of his nearest challengers Friday night—Tommy Bolt, with a 69-70-139, and Ralph Blomquist with a 67-72-139.

Other scores included: Rod Fynseth, Spokane, 67-74-141; Cliff Whittle, Twin Falls, Idaho, 71-72-143.

Such Action as This Stopped Stanford

CORVALLIS—Jerry Crimins, Oregon State guard, recovers a rebound and passes away all in the same movement while Stanford's Harry Brown tries unsuccessfully to stop him during Friday night's game here. Also in action are OSC's Dave Gambee (10) and Larry Paulus (24). Beavers pulled surprise and upended the Indians with surprising ease, 69-59. (AP Wirephoto)

Sweet Home Nipped by South Salem

Saxons Gain 51-48 Victory

SWEET HOME (Special) — The visiting South Salem Saxons held off a late Sweet Home rally here Friday night to win a district 8 A-1 hoop clash, 51-48. It was the fourth win against a lone defeat for South Salem and sends them atop the district standings.

Forward Jim Allen and Guard Dan Moore combined to give the Saxons the victory in the final seconds of play. With a narrow 48-46 lead, Allen dropped in a free throw then Moore tipped in his second attempt to give South Salem a five point lead and the game in the waning seconds. Sweet Home managed a last second field goal, but time ran out on them.

Earlier, the visitors had overcome a 14-12 first quarter deficit to go ahead 32-19 before halftime. With Allen and Ken Allmer doing yeoman work from the floor, Sweet Home managed to climb to within 34-26 at halftime.

Guards Lead Spurt
Then in the third, South Salem held a 40-28 margin when Sweet Home went to work on the shooting of a pair of deadeye guards, Howard Daniels and Royce McDaniels, to nearly win the ball game.

As it was, the two near namesakes wound up topping the scoring with 18 centers apiece. For South, Forward Ron Russell wound up with 12 points to top his mates.

South Salem made it a clean sweep by taking the Sophomore preliminary clash 55-48.

Good Night for Jean

HENRY, Tenn. (AP) — Who says it takes teamwork to win a basketball game? Jeannette Hayes of Henry High School tossed in an even 100 points Friday night as her team trounced Puryear 120-31.

High scoring is nothing new for her. She averaged over 40 a game last year and just recently collected 89 in a single game.

Turner Wins Nod

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Favored Gil Turner won his second split 10-round decision over Jackie LaBua Friday night, opening a wicked cut over the younger boy's eye in the fourth round and forcing him to protect it throughout. Turner weighed 156, LaBua, 158.

Sophomores Lead OSC to Easy Win

CORVALLIS (AP) — Oregon State made use of its superior height to score a surprisingly easy 69-59 victory over Stanford in a Pacific Coast Conference basketball game Friday night.

Stanford, winner in three of its four previous conference games, was expected to gallop past the Staters, but just before the first half ended the Staters shot into a six-point lead, and then ran it up to a 16-point margin early in the second period.

A pair of tall sophomores were the big reason. Wayne Moss, 6-9, and Dave Gambee, 6-6, began controlling the backboards for the victors, and Gambee scored 22 points, Moss 11.

The losers, whose tallest man was a reserve, 6-5 Clint Waring, rallied midway through the last half to cut the gap to eight points but they could not sustain the drive against the backboard dominance of Oregon State.

The Staters restored the 16-point margin with nine minutes to go, and then coasted in from there. Bill Bond, junior forward, was Stanford's high scorer with 14 points. Guard George Selleck added 12 more.

For Oregon State it was the second conference win against three losses.

The teams will meet again Saturday afternoon in a regionally televised game.

Academy Tips Sparts 54-48

SHERIDAN (Special) — Salem Academy moved to the top of the Yawama League standings here Friday night with a come-from-behind 54-48 victory over the Sheridan Spartans.

The victory gives the Salem club a 5-1 league mark and sends them half a game ahead of Sherwood.

The visitors, after trailing through the entire game, tied it up at 48-48 with two minutes to go and poured through six straight points while holding Sheridan scoreless to win.

Guard Larry Merk topped the scoring efforts of the winners with 21 points. Sheridan Forward Chuck Clark led all scoring with 24, however.

The Salem club made it a clean sweep for the evening by winning a thrilling 42-41 victory in the Jayvee prelim.

Cougars Bow To Washington

By JACK HEWINS
SEATTLE (AP) — Superior shooting carried the University of Washington to an easy 62-42 Pacific Coast Conference basketball victory over Washington State College tonight in the opener of a 2-game series.

Bruno Boin, the Washington center, got his hookshot working after a point drought and led all the scorers with 22. Washington State's Larry Becker, with 14, was the only other player to break into double figures.

Sophomore Dick Rask got Washington State off in front with a pair of freethrows but the Cougars didn't score again or 4 1/2 minutes.

By that time they were seven points behind and by halftime Washington had marched to a 25-17 advantage.

Most of the second half was an experimental job for Washington coach Tippy Dye, who tried to numerous combinations of his reserve players. Even against the second, Washington State seldom was able to get closer than 20 points.
