At Oregon State

House Dances Highlight of Weekend

By JODY RICKETTS
Statesman Correspondent
CORVALLIS — The annual winter term house dances are in line for this weekend at Oregon State. Winter term is usually the time for costume dances and this year is no exception. At the Sigma Kappa house there will be an atmosphere of different lands. They are featuring different countries and everyone is to dress to represent a country. Diane Hall, Joan Lehman, and Linda Benedict plan to attend.

At the Sigma Pi house "Comic Kapers" will be the theme. Everyone attending will be in a costume depicting a famous cartoon. Paul Muller, George Schmidt and his wife, and Wayne Hickerson plan to go. The Kappa Alpha Thetas are having their annual ski dance. Kitty Metcalf, Ginger Lively, Patsy Snider Brewer and husband are planning to glide around the dance floor.

Water Front Theme
The Sigma Chi's, Beta's and Sigma Nu's are having costume dances featuring the "On the Water Front" mood. Fish net, Japanese balls, and drift wood will add to the atmosphere. Doyle Dodge, Jack Beakey, Bev and Gary Jones will be at the Sigma Chi house. Dick Richardson, John Clayton, Gary Ramsden, Dave Socolofsky at the Beta house, and Don Burk, Tom Pickens at the Sigma Nu house. Many other house dances will be in the spotlight for the next few weeks.

Dad's week-end plans are well underway for this year. The week-end of February 17-18th has been set. The featured events will be the basketball games with UCLA and the Sorority Sing. It is the second year for the Inter-sorority Sing, which won much popularity last year. Tom Pickens and Delores Loring are working on the big weekend honoring Dad's.

The sophomore women's honorary, Talons, had a tea honoring the former members this week. Delores Loring, active Talon, helped with the plans.

Robert C. Ruhl of Salem has been elected vice-president of Alpha Sigma Phi, national social fraternity at Oregon State. He is a senior majoring in general science at OSC.

Bowden Home is Scene of Rites

DALLAS—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Bowden was the setting for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Connie J. Bowden, when she became the bride of Walter J. Bier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bier, on January 20 at 7 o'clock. The Rev. Herman Wiebe officiated.

For her wedding the bride selected a black box-styled linen suit of street length with white accessories. She carried a white Bible with white carnations.

Miss Carol Bowden, wearing a black and white street length dress and a corsage of yellow and white chrysanthemums, was the bride's only attendant. Another sister, Miss Fay Bowden, wearing a blue and white street length dress, lighted the candles.

Nelson Pauls was best man. After a reception, which was also held at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon on the Oregon coast.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Dallas High School. They will make their home at 410 Ash Street, Dallas. The groom is employed at the Priesen Core Company in Dallas.

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Wallace Wickett became a new member of the Three Links club at the Tuesday meeting. Dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Philip Dimick, Mrs. Max Schulz, Mrs. Al Gutierrez and Mrs. Harold Morrisette. The meeting time of the club party was changed to 1 o'clock. A card party was announced for February 19 and a traveling food basket was started to add to the building fund.

Auxiliary's Birthday

JEFFERSON — Mrs. Russell Daulton entertained members of the Jefferson Lions Auxiliary at her home Monday night to celebrate the group's first birthday. Reports were made on Christmas activities and a party night was planned for Feb. 25 in the high school. The buffet supper will be followed by games, dancing and other entertainment. The East Albany Lions Auxiliary, sponsors of the Jefferson group, has invited the latter to a dinner Wednesday night, Feb. 1, to celebrate the two clubs' charter nights.

The Nancy Gormsen Horizon Club will meet tonight at the home of Miss Joyce Johnson, 140 East Luther St., at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a guest speaker from Meier and Frank's.

Swiss Steak Dressed Up for Company Dish

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor
We recently discussed the ways to cook pot roasts, and discovered while looking up recipes, that Swiss Steak comes in for several variations too. The meat we know as Swiss steak usually uses the round cut thick, then seasoned, dredged with flour and pounded until quite a bit of flour is worked in. The hammering tenderizes the meat and also thins it down in thickness.

You can dress your Swiss Steak up or down, to suit the occasion. Here for instance is a partyified Swiss steak, nice enough for company.

PARTYIFIED SWISS STEAK
2 pounds round steak (1 1/2 inch thick)
Flour
1 tablespoon fat
1 large onion, thinly sliced
1 cup tomato juice
1 cup tomato sauce
1/4 cup vinegar
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon chili powder
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 cup sliced pimiento olives
1 can mushrooms
Cut steak into 6 pieces. Pound flour into steak with edge of heavy saucer or meat hammer. Pan-brown steak in hot fat in a large heavy skillet. Add onion, tomato juice, tomato sauce, vinegar, sugar, dry mustard, chili powder, and salt. Stir together. Cover. Simmer 2 1/2 hours or until tender. Stir in olives and mushrooms during last 15 minutes of cooking period. Serves 6.

Then there's a Swiss steak with cream for the liquid instead of tomato.

PAPRIKA SWISS BEEF
2 pounds round steak (1 1/2 inch thick)
2 tablespoons fat
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon salt
1 clove garlic, peeled
1 cup water
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup sour milk or cream
1 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons flour
Melt fat in a skillet. Rub the meat with salt and 1/2 teaspoon paprika. Brown the garlic in the hot fat. Remove the garlic. Add the meat and brown well on both sides. Add water and Worcestershire sauce. Cover and cook slowly about 2 hours. Add sour milk and 1 teaspoon paprika. Continue to cook slowly 15 minutes. Remove the steak to a hot platter. Thicken the broth with the flour mixed with 1/2 cup cold water. Stir and boil 5 minutes. Serve the gravy over the meat. Serves 8.

Newlyweds Home From Honeymoon

DALLAS—Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Jurgenson returned to Dallas Saturday after a week's honeymoon along the Oregon and Washington coasts and in Seattle. Mrs. Jurgenson is the former Dorothy Ediger Brown and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ediger of Dallas. Mr. Jurgenson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Jurgenson of Clarkfield, Minnesota.

The couple's marriage took place on Sunday afternoon, January 22 at the Trinity Lutheran Church of Dallas. The Rev. John Propp officiated.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of light blue brocade faille with a small matching hat. She carried a spray bouquet of pink rosebuds centered with a gardenia corsage.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Don Fredericks, who wore an afternoon dress of pink polished cotton, styled like the bride's, and with a matching hat. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums.
