Stephen Bandy
Top Speller
At Livingston

Stephen Bandy, 13-year-old son of John Bandy, 3392 Winola St., won the spelling championship of Salem's Livingston School and will compete in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest on Monday night, Feb. 27. The semi-finals start at 7:45 p.m. and are open to the public without charge or collection. Spelling champions of Parrish and Leslie Junior Highs, Bethel School for the Blind, Fruitland, Pratum, Salem Academy and Willard also will be in the competition.

Stephen, in the 8th grade, is in the Salem Pathfinder Club and his hobby is collecting stamps. His principal and teacher is Thomas Porter.

Winning second in spelling at Livingston was Kathleen Perry, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Perry, 2745 S. High St., and placing third was Harold Graham, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Graham, 275 W. Ewald St.

Kathleen and Harold also are in the 8th grade and will receive certificates of merit, as will the winner.

Salem Firemen Name Valentine Queen

Illness Fatal
To Youngster

Rickey Bethell, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey A. Bethell, Macleay Road, died Sunday in a Salem hospital after several years of illness.

Born Aug. 24, 1947, at Oakland, Calif., he moved to Salem with parents 1 1/2 years ago from Grants Pass.

Besides his parents, he leaves three sisters, Miss Eva Bethell, Ft. Ord, Calif., and Miss Verna Bethell and Mrs. William Crawford, both of Richmond, Calif., and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bethell, Hill City, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. August Maquet, Oakland, Calif.

Rosary will be recited 8 p.m. Tuesday in Virgil T. Golden mortuary. Services will be Friday at Oakland.

Willamette U.
Speech Unit
Scores High

Five Willamette University men students, comprising the school's delegation to the annual College of Puget Sound Forensic Tournament at Tacoma, Washington, made the semi-finals in seven individual speech events and four final contests.

The Tournament drew 160 students from 21 colleges and universities throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Daniel Marsh, freshman participating in speech competition for the first time, won third place in impromptu speaking. Marsh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Marsh, 2430 Maple Ave., of Salem. Jack Jones, junior from Beaverton, won third place in upper division impromptu speaking.

Lewis Bright, Medford sophomore, reached the finals in extemporaneous speaking and the semi-finals in impromptu speaking. Mac Baker sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Baker, 925 North 15th St., Salem, reached the finals in interpretive reading and the semi-finals in extemporaneous speaking. F. Donald Laws, junior from Adams, Oregon, was a semi-finalist in extemporaneous speaking.

Dr. Howard W. Runkel, director of forensics at Willamette, accompanied the group to Tacoma Thursday through Saturday and served on the board of judges. At the Tournament he was named to serve on the 1956 United States Military Academy Debate Tournament Committee for the Pacific Northwest.

Reports Due
On Salvation
Army Work

Reports on Salvation Army activities in Salem and Marion County will be heard tonight at the annual dinner of the Salem chapter's advisory board at the Hotel Marion.

Featured speaker will be Col. Herbert Richards, London, England, international secretary of the Army's Student Fellowship. Also a highlight of the program is to be presentation of a plaque of merit to the Salem Elks Lodge and awards to top winners in a recent mid-Valley high school oratorical contest sponsored by the Salem Lodge.

New board members also will be inducted at tonight's affair, which is open to the public.
