Spring Style Show Well Attended

Mrs. William Wilson, president of the West Salem Woman's Club, greeted 300 guests and members at the club's annual spring style show Thursday evening at the West Salem school gymnasium.

The models entered from a huge picture frame and commentators were Mrs. S. W. Zelmer and Mrs. Faith Leach. The auditorium was decorated throughout with spring flowers and potted plants, imitation dogwood trees and tinted pussy willows. The Valentine motif was carried out with red and white streamers and each table was centered with a red carnation nosegay.

Miss Darlene Turner sang, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Wyatt. Music was played throughout the show.

The net proceeds amounted to $246 which will go towards the West Salem swimming pool and equipment fund, March of Dimes and the Heart funds and the Bluebird and two Campfire Girls groups.

Refreshments were served and hostesses in charge were Mesdames D. R. Serron, Alvah Brown, Dale Worthington and Wayne Bradford.

Youngsters Also Model
 Those modeling were Mesdames N. Edward Shaw, E. D. Jessup, William Ferguson, R. J. Cooper, Leonard Skinner, William Staats, John Harvey, Carl Oleen, Pauline Thomas and Misses Susan Shay, Kathleen and Karleen Krueger, Robin and Lark Zelmer, Kathryn and Kathleen Logan, Jerry and Linda Wait, and Mark Wilson and Douglas Harvey.

Co-chairman of the successful affair were Mrs. Harry Mott and Mrs. Stanton Zelmer and their committee including Mesdames John Cochran, Jack Taggart, Gale Merwin, Don Waller, Robert Kuenzli, and Mildred Neuman.

Salem members of Theta Sigma Phi will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Genevieve Morgan, 1098 E. Street, instead of the night previous, due to conflicting dates. Ted Hallock will be the speaker. Election of officers will be held.

Dianne West Is Bride of Mr. Williams

AUBURN—Bouquets of yellow snapdragons, chrysanthemums, daffodils and acacia gave the color accent for the wedding at Trinity Methodist Church at Four Corners on February 9, when Miss Dianne Leigh West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul West of Auburn district, became the bride of Norman Eugene Williams, son of Mrs. Gordon Brunelle of Salem and E. I. Williams of Bakersfield, California.

The Rev. Joe Andrew Harding officiated at the 8 o'clock double ring ceremony.

Violinist was Gordon Neufeld, soloist Miss Sandy Mischke, and accompanist Miss Barbara Freitag.

The bride chose a waltz length gown of white nylon lace over taffeta, with long, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt edged in satin scallops. Her short illusion veil was held in place with a scalloped bandeau of lace enhanced with seed pearls. She carried a white bible marked with yellow Eclipsed roses and white hyacinths.

Miss Judy West was her sister's honor maid. Her waltz gown was of yellow net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and white hyacinths. Flower girl was Merrie Lynn West, sister of the bride. She wore a sea green organza frock and carried a basket of daffodils and acacia.

Best man was Jerry Brunelle and the ushers were James E. Brunelle and Roger Meunier.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. West wore an avocado silk afternoon dress with gold accessories and corsage of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Brunelle's gown was of French blue linen with matching lace bolero and beige accessories, her corsage was of pink carnations.

Reception Follows
 A reception followed in the church Fellowship room. Cutting the cake were Mrs. William West, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ivan Brown, cousin of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Wyatt, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Peter Loewen, cousin of the groom. Serving the punch was Miss June Damaske. Assisting were Mrs. S. E. Howard, aunt of the bride, Mrs. LuVerne Hardwick, cousin of the bride, Mrs. James Mosell, Mrs. Phillips Bates, Mrs. Jack Krater, and Miss Jean Patton.

For going away the new Mrs. Williams donned a taupe knit suit with brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and has been employed at the Secretary of State office. The groom is currently stationed on the USS Leader at Long Beach, California.

Bridge Players to Elect

Leading north-south players at duplicate bridge at Columbus hall on Feb. 9 were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kropp, followed by Mrs. Roger Archer and Mrs. L. J. Marker and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson. William Albright and Dr. Gus Wallis headed the east-west pairs. Others rating points were Mr. and Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. E. A. Gunthner and Miss Lorraine Meusey. The KC group, an affiliate of the ACBL, will elect officers at its next meeting, Thursday, February 16 at an anniversary party.

Reception for Goldenweds

Mr. and Mrs. William Lichty, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a reception on Sunday, Feb. 19, at the Emmanuel Mennonite Church at Pratum. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

James Hatfield Club Speaker

"About 407,000 people in Oregon, who are eligible to vote, are not registered," James Hatfield, chairman of the Oregon Young Republican Club, told members of the Soroptimist Club at its regular program luncheon, Wednesday noon.

Mr. Hatfield called attention of club members to the new law which requires that people, to be eligible to vote, must now be registered in the district in which they reside.

Miss Lena Blum announced that the club would hold a rummage sale February 17 and 18. The monthly social meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Winifred Pettijohn on Wednesday evening, February 15. Assisting hostesses include Miss Irene DeLisle, Mrs. R. S. Brooks, Mrs. Ethel Lau, Mrs. Lee Eyerly, and Mrs. Nels Tønning. The program feature will be a talk on gems by Allan Stevens, one of three certified gemologists in Oregon.

Democrats to Hear Panel

Democratic precinct workers and others interested, may attend a workshop on Friday, February 17, from 1:30 to 4:30 in the YWCA social room. There will be a small registration fee.

Mrs. Elmer O. Berg will be moderator at a panel discussion on precinct work. Others on the panel are State Representative Jean Lewis, Portland, Harry Hogan, Wasco County Democratic chairman and Miss Margaret Clark, former executive secretary of the state committee.

A skit, directed by Mrs. Al Lave Jr. will also be on the program.

Bishop-Voss Nuptials of Interest

Of interest to the bridegroom's many Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Posey Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Voss, and Broughton Hayward Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Bishop, all of Portland. The ceremony took place Feb. 8 at Trinity Episcopal Church in Portland with the Right Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of Oregon, officiating at the 4:30 o'clock nuptials.

A reception was held at the Portland Garden Club following the rites.

The bride wore the handsome dress of rosepoint and duchess lace which had been worn by both her grandmother, Mrs. John V. G. Posey, and her mother at their weddings. A cap of matching lace held in place her full tulle veil and she carried a cascade of mixed white flowers.

Miss Sara Anne Voss, maid of honor for her sister, wore an aqua taffeta dress with sapphire blue bow and carried white stock and carnations. Bridesmaids Miss Sally Malarkey, Miss Joan Menefee, Miss Carla Belgrano and Mrs. Lee Cliff all wore similar sapphire blue taffeta dresses with aqua bows and also carried white stock and carnations.

Melinda Bishop was flower girl and her brother, Clarence M. Bishop Jr., was ring bearer.

Clarence M. Bishop Jr. was best man for his brother and ushers were Donald Sterling, Towner Menefee, Richard Newlands, Alec Coburn, David Gaiser, Edmund Hayes Jr. and Donald H. McGraw.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Portland.
