Grains Suffer Small Losses

CHICAGO — Grains wound up with small losses on the Board of Trade Tuesday, only distant soybean futures being able to make upward progress.

At one time old crop wheat fortures held respectable gains. The March contract sold at a new seasonal peak. But profit taking at the finish washed out the gains.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1 cent lower, corn unchanged to 3 lower, oats 3-1 to lower, rye to 1 to 1 lower, soybeans 3 lower to 3 higher and lard 8 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower.
