(Sec. 2)—Oreg. Statesman, Salem, Oreg., Sunday, Feb. 19, 1956

Young models . . . for the benefit fashion tea to be given by the Salem Branch, American Association of University Women on Feb. 25 at Meier and Frank's will be children of members. Pictured with Mrs. Erwin E. Batterman, chairman of the AAUW fellowship fund, for which the benefit is being given, are three of the models, Sharon Hann, Ellen Sprague and Sandra Hann. The Hann sisters are daughters of the John Hanns and Ellen is the daughter of the Arthur Spragues. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Heart Sunday . . . is February 26 and over 450 women have been recruited to ring door bells in the house-to-house collection between 1 and 4 p. m. The one-afternoon campaign will climax the 1956 Heart Fund drive. Pictured above are two captains for Heart Sunday, Mrs. Ted Ogdahl and Mrs. William Bush, shown loading up with supplies to be distributed to the volunteer workers.

Chairman . . . and captain pictured at the right are Mrs. Willard J. Stone, one of the 40 captains, left, and Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, Heart Sunday chairman. A captain will be in charge of each of the 40 districts. Women will ring every door bell in the city, with each volunteer assigned 15 to 25 houses. (Kennell-Ellis Photos).

On the directorate . . . for the Salem Woman's Club benefit dessert bridge party on Feb. 24 at the clubhouse, are, left to right, Mrs. Earl T. Andersen, Mrs. John S. Tyler Jr. and Mrs. H. P. Grant. The women are pictured by the club's new baby grand piano and proceeds from the benefit will augment the piano fund. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Valentine's Day bride . . . Mrs. Roy Elliott Nelson, at the left, the former Anita Gayle Juve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice N. Juve. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Nelson of Park Ridge, Ill., who came west for the nuptials. The ceremony took place at the First Christian Church. The newlyweds will make their home in Elmwood Park, Ill. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

To live in Texas . . . Mrs. Elton Taylor Lafky, who was Noreen Nelson prior to her February 11 marriage at the First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Charles Nelson and Lt. Lafky, who is serving in the U. S. Air Force in Taredo, Texas, is the son of Mrs. Herman E. Lafky. (Jesten-Miller Studio).
