

4 Girls, 1 Boy Certified for Spelling Bee

LESLIE JUNIOR HIGH—Three 7th-graders topped the intra-school spelling contest Tuesday at Leslie Junior High, and Eileen Hadley, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley, 787 Cross street, Salem, won first honors.

Eileen will represent her school in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at the State School for the Blind next Monday night.

She was certified for the contest by Principal Earl Hampton. Her teacher is Miss Margaret Aynes and her hobbies are reading, playing the piano, sports and fishing. She is active in Camp Fire Girls.

Winning second at Leslie was John Saffron, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Saffron, 710 Tillman avenue, Salem, and placing third was Terrie Gustafson, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gustafson, 625 Hansen avenue, Salem.

The top three spellers in each school contest receive certificates of merit from the sponsors.

DAYTON—Helen McManimie, 13, will represent Dayton in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at Mt. Angel, Wednesday night, March 7. Helen, as school spelling titlist, was certified for the semi-finals by Principal Robert Tedd. Her teacher is Mildred Smith. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McManimie, Route 2, Dayton, and her hobbies are music and reading.

Delores Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mann, Route 1, Box 136, McMinnville, and Alan Zupo, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zupo, Box 222, Dayton, won second and third, respectively.

The two runners-up also are 13 years old and all three top spellers are in the 8th grade.

MONITOR—Karen Lee Willig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Willig, Route 1, Mt. Angel, is spelling champion of Monitor School. She is 13 and in the 8th grade.

Her principal and teacher is Mamie Vincent. Helen will compete in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling contest at Mt. Angel, Thursday night, March 1. Her hobbies are skating and sewing.

Second place in spelling at Monitor went to Donna Homann, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburt Homann, and third place was won by Robert Mann, 13, son of the Rev. Joseph Mann, Route 1, Mt. Angel.

Both Donna and Robert are in the 8th grade.

FRUITLAND—The president of Fruitland's 8th grade, Lynne Anderson, will compete as Fruitland's entry in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at the State School for the Blind in Salem, Monday night, February 27.

Lynne, who plans to take up engineering, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Anderson, Route 6, Box 824, Salem. He is in the 8th grade and his hobbies are Lynne Anderson sports, target-shooting and building model airplanes. His principal and teacher is Mrs. Benona Dawson.

Janet Aaserude, 12, daughter of A. Aaserude, Route 6, Box 662, Salem, and John Heinz, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heinz, Route 6, Box 871, Salem, placed second and third, respectively.

Janet is in the 7th grade, John the 8th.

VALSETZ—Beverly Cook, who took top spelling honors in 1956, repeated her triumph this year and will represent Valseltz in the semi-finals of The Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at Dallas, Wednesday night, Feb. 29. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook Sr., Box 356, Valseltz, and her hobbies are skating and playing the piano. She is in the 8th grade and a popular student and leader. Her teacher is Larry Walker and she was certified for the semi-finals by Principal C. M. Price.

Eva Lina Hibbs, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hibbs, Valseltz, and Carole Rhoades, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jody Rhoades, Box 307, Valseltz, placed second and third, respectively. Eva Lina is in the 8th grade, Carole the 7th.
