

Solar Fire Storms Rage

Sun Eruption SACRAMENTO PEAK OBSERVATORY, N. M.—More powerful than thousands of hydrogen bombs, the surface of the sun erupts in a giant flare during the current series of sun storms. The most recent storms are the most intense ever recorded and are bombarding the earth with more than normal amounts of cosmic rays. (AP Wirephoto).

Twin Fractures BRATTLEBORO, Vt.—David Morse, left, and his 15-year-old twin, John, smilingly show off their right legs in a cast after fracturing their ankles in skiing accidents here. (AP Wirephoto).

Falls to Safety CHARLESTON, S. C.—Nestor Moss Jr., patient who escaped Monday from Roper Hospital's Psychiatric Ward, is dislodged from his precarious third floor window perch into a fireman's net below. (AP Wirephoto).

Railman DENVER—Gale S. Aydelett, 41, named president of Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad Monday, is road's youngest president since its founder, William Jackson Palmer, in 1870. (AP Wirephoto).

Gasoline Fire WEST LOS ANGELES—Smoke and flames pour from the roof of several homes which caught fire Monday following breaking of gasoline pipe line by a mechanical ditch digger. Gasoline flowed into sewers and ignited four or five homes, some as far as a mile away from the break. (AP Wirephoto).

Colder in East Precipitation is forecast today for parts of the Appalachians, the eastern Lakes area, northern California, the northern Pacific Coast and in the inland mountain regions of the Pacific Northwest. It will be colder in eastern half of nation. (AP Wirephoto).

Indicted MINNEAPOLIS—Diane Harvey, 22, secretary to a Minneapolis teamster union official, pleaded innocent Monday to a grand jury indictment accusing her of participation in bombing of a rival union official's car. (AP Wirephoto).

Satisfies Your Taste
Yet never rich or filling
Enjoy Daily... Millions Do

EXCLUSIVE FEATURES
in Oregon Statesman
It Seems to Me Charles A. Sprague
Comes the Dawn Conrad Prange
Sportlightner Al Lightner
Around Town Jerome English
Don't Look Now Maxine Buren
Our Valley Charles Ireland

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT CHEWING GUM

The World at Your Door Each Morning