

Statesman's HOME
Panorama
 Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features
 (Sec. 3)—Oregon Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sunday, Mar. 4, 1936

Au Revoirs . . . were said the past week to the Alan Riebels, who moved to Eugene to make their home. Pictured with Mrs. Riebel are their twin daughters, Molly and Kathy. Mr. Riebel is with the Aetna Life Insurance Co. and is opening his own offices in Eugene. The Riebels have been popular members of the young married set in the capital. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Leaving . . . this week for Eugene to make their home are Mrs. Paul C. Everett and son, Robert. Mr. Everett, who has been with Parke-Davis Co., is opening his own pharmacy in Eugene. The Everetts and the Alan Riebels were honored at a farewell party by members of the Active Club and their wives Saturday night. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

From Australia . . . has come Mrs. C. Bede Maxwell of Sydney to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Grabenhorst Jr. and their four children. Mrs. Maxwell, a journalist, author and photographer, plans to make an extended visit in Salem. She recently arrived in the states from an 8 months tour of Europe. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Wedding gowns . . . will be featured at the Spinster's annual benefit fashion show Thursday night at the Marion Hotel. Gowns for the receptions, bridal parties, the informal and formal wedding will also be shown. Pictured above are Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, a Spinster patroness, who will also be one of the models, pouring coffee at the "wedding reception" for Miss Roberta Sjoding, the bride, and Miss Janis Hershe, the bridesmaid, two of the models for the show.

"Just Married" . . . not yet, but the two attractive Spinster's, Miss Margaret Miller and Miss Norma Peterson, at the right, are modeling two smart traveling suits for the spring or summer bride. Both will model in Thursday night's show and Miss Peterson is one of the co-chairmen. Proceeds will go toward the club's philanthropic fund for the Retarded Children's Association of Salem. (Kennell-Ellis Photos).

Heading . . . the directorate for the card benefit to be given by Beta Mu chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha on March 7 are, left to right, Mrs. Thomas Pendergast, who is in charge of reservations, Mrs. Kenneth Oliver and Miss Billie Miller, co-chairmen of the affair. Proceeds will go to the Crippled Children's Hospital at Eugene. (Statesman Photo).