

Candalaria Carnival Set for Friday

Seen and Heard...

By JEROME ENGLISH

FOLLOWING THE SUN. Departing Tuesday for Mexico will be Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander. Mr. Chambers, who is presently in the midwest on business, will join the others in Los Angeles. From there they will go to Southern California and Mexico. They will make their headquarters in Mazatlan, on the west coast of Mexico. The travelers plan to be away until the first of April.

Heading south. Come Friday will be the Glenn Wilburs and daughter, Mary. They will vacation for a fortnight in Tucson, Arizona and visit their son, John, a sophomore at the University of Arizona. Justice and Mrs. Earl C. Latourette will also follow the sun south this week, planning a sojourn in Palm Springs.

Returning. To the capital from a month's sojourn on the California desert this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Edstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham. They made their headquarters at Palm Desert, returning north via Las Vegas.

Being welcomed. Home from six weeks' Hawaiian vacation are Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham and Mrs. U. Scott Page. They made the trip by plane, arriving in Portland Saturday night. The travelers spent most of their time in Honolulu and made plane trips to the other islands during their stay. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague are also returning home this weekend from a three weeks' sojourn in Honolulu. They went over by plane and came home on the Lurline.

Flying. To Atlanta, Georgia on Friday will be Mrs. William C. Crothers, who will spend a fortnight at the home of her father, J. W. Veatch. She is hoping to enjoy the wonderful sunshine while in the deep south.

EXQUISITE. Was the beautiful opera gown worn by pretty, auburn Nadine Conner for her Thursday night concert. Of ice blue satin and nylon tulle. The voluminous skirt of layers of pleated tulle and plain tulle worn over two petticoats. The satin bodice and deep overskirt of satin embellished with iridescent sequins. She wore matching long satin gloves and beautiful rhinestone earrings. And on the concert she donned a handsome, full length mink coat. Most of her gowns are especially designed for her and her favorite colors are the brown and lilac shades.

Between. Engagements with the Metropolitan Opera Miss Conner is on concert tour. Her schedule is so full that it is necessary to fly. However, she enjoys plane travel and sometimes thinks a plane is her second home. Miss Conner, her husband, Dr. Laurence Heacock, a surgeon, reside in Compton, Calif. They have two adopted children, a boy and a girl, eight and ten. She tries to be at home as often as possible and thinks nothing of flying from New York to California for the weekend. She is a lover of antiques and stops in a shop every time she has a chance. Her home is filled with antiques she has collected from her travels. This last summer she and her husband and children enjoyed a trip around the world, travelling by ship and plane. Miss Conner's accompanist, Galen Lurwick, has been playing for her 17 years.

Greeting. The opera singer back stage following her Thursday night Community Concert program at North Salem High were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paxson. Mr. Paxson is a cousin of her husband and they stopped here at the Paxson home enroute north several years ago. A longtime friend of Miss Conner's family, Kenneth Martin, drove up from Grants Pass with Mrs. Martin for the concert. They were guests of Mrs. Martin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Goss of Stayton. Mr. Martin is a former state representative from Josephine County.

RAINY WEATHER. Didn't keep the guests attending the aloha party for Bea Schaefer (Mrs. C.A.) from wearing sun dresses, bathing suits and grass skirts. The hostesses, Mrs. Glen O. Stevenson and Mrs. Howard Walker entertained with a gala farewell party a week ago at the former's home on Childs Avenue. Bea and Al leaving the first of the week by plane for Hawaii on a combined business and pleasure trip. While Al is busy with business appointments during the day Bea plans on acquiring a grand suntan.

The hostesses. Casually mentioned to their guests to come dressed in Hawaiian attire, never dreaming such a variety of outfits would appear. Joyce Wood (Mrs. John R.) and Ruth Bodmer (Mrs. Forrest) wore bathing suits and applied a "drug store" suntan. There were cotton, sun dresses, grass skirts, kimono, and the hostesses greeting their guests in sarongs. Wishing everyone aloha and giving them leis on arriving were Patsy Stevenson, daughter of the hostess, and Jeanette Warner, daughter of the Raymond Warners.

The punch table. Depicting a Hawaiian village scene with grass shacks, hibiscus and other tropical flowers. Even an airplane landing to feature the trivet motif. An out-of-town guest at the party was Lucille Cummings (Mrs. Edward Bagley of New York City) who came in with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Truman Cummings. Lucille visiting in the capital between concert engagements. The party a grand send-off for Bea, who is now enjoying the Hawaiian hospitality. HONOR GUESTS... at a delightful, informal at home last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney W. Hofstetter (Janel Kirk), whose marriage was recently announced. Hosts for the affair were Mrs. Bernard O. Schucking, Helene and Bob Schucking. Their charming home at Eola Acres the setting for the late afternoon gathering of the immediate families of Janet and Rodney. The new Mrs. Hofstetter wearing a becoming beige sateen gown for the occasion. Springtime... decorations featured on the buffet table and about the rooms. A chartreuse and silver handwoven cloth on the dining room table. A black rooster with yellow and white tulips for the centerpiece. With yellow, black candles flanking the arrangement. The lustres on the mantel filled with freesias and leather fern. Another bouquet of blossoms and pale pink rubrum lilies. Janet and Rodney have left for a several weeks' sojourn in Palm Springs.

Checking... the date for the carnival to be staged by the Candalaria Mothers and Dads-Club on March 9 at the school are, left to right, Mrs. Burdette Owen, committee member, and Sam Samuels, general chairman of the event. This is the first benefit and all-school project to be given in the new school. (Kennell-Elis Studio).
