Students Will Head Home for Vacation

By MARY JEAN SCHRUNK Statesman Correspondent

PORTLAND — Long awaited spring vacation, March 10-18, will find Lewis and Clark pioneers scattering to many parts of the country. But, the majority of Salem students seem to be planning on a home-type vacation. Among those coming to Salem are Jodie Ellis, Joyce Randall, Jerry Hunsaker, Joe Irwin, Shirley Crothers, and Dorna Martin, who is bringing a guest from Great Falls, Mont., Donna Moe. One of the rewards of efficient studying is a place on the honor roll. Those reaching a grade-point average of 3 point or over last semester include Shirley Crothers, Marilyn Lorenz and June Christensen. The ultimate goal of 4.00 or straight A's was attained by senior Jodie Ellis.

Choir on Tour The college choir left Friday afternoon on a 15-day tour of Oregon and California. New traveling outfits are navy Pendleton jackets and grey skirts or slacks for the day-time concerts. The tour will consist of 23 concerts including an appearance at Los Angeles' "Disneyland."

Posters, campaigning for May Fete Queen candidates were put up in spite of snow flurries this week. Seemingly a little early to begin thinking of May Day festivities, primary elections will be held March 20 and 21. Jodie Ellis and Dorna Martin of Salem have been nominated as candidates. A candidate for sophomore class princess is Joyce Randall.
