

BARNEY GOOGL

By FRED LASSWELL

MICKEY MOUSE

By WALT DISNEY

BUZZ SAWYER

By ROY CRANE

GASOLINE ALLEY

By KING

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

By DARRELL MCCLURE

RIP KIRBY

By ALEX RAYMOND

MOMMY

By THE MOSSLERS

DICK TRACY

By CHESTER GOULD

Minnesotans Go to Polls

Cast Ballots OSSEO, Minn. — Farmers file past the ballot box in Maple Grove Township Tuesday to cast their votes in the Minnesota presidential primary. They were among the first to vote in the community near the Twin Cities. (AP Wirephoto).

Chilly CHICAGO — Adlai Stevenson gives a tug to his coat after arriving in the Windy City early Tuesday from Minneapolis. (AP Wirephoto).

Grief Stricken DENVER — Mrs. Luella Campbell, 45, slumps to the floor Monday night after hearing her grandson, Danny Clay, 5, was burned to death in a fire while she was away. She is the legal guardian of the boy and his sister, who was rescued. (AP Wirephoto).

Princess WASHINGTON — Angeline Jakobowski, Michigan's "princess" for the cherry blossom festival to be held here in April, visits Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) Tuesday. McNamara holds plane tickets she will use in flying to Lansing to deliver a cherry tree for the Michigan state capitol grounds. (AP Wirephoto).

Candidate CHICAGO, Ind. — Edmund F. Makewski, above, East Chicago, Ind., oil company employe, has filed as candidate for Democratic primary nominations for 11 offices, from congressman to coroner of Lake County (Ind.). (AP Wirephoto).

Matron of Honor KANSAS CITY, Mo. — One of the matrons of honor for Margaret Truman's wedding April 21 will be Mrs. Coleman Branton of Kansas City, shown here with her two children: Page, one-year-old, and Leslie, 6. Page is Miss Truman's Godchild. (AP Wirephoto).

Rain in Northwest Rain is expected today for Pacific Northwest, while snow flurries are forecast for parts of Idaho, Montana and Minnesota. Showers are expected also for Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Texas, Arkansas and western Louisiana. Elsewhere nation will have fair to partly cloudy skies. (AP Wirephoto).

Held CHICAGO — Albert Joseph, 44, cab driver, sits in police station, questioned about alleged blackjacking of Earl Carlson, 26, a passenger, who died following surgery. (AP Wirephoto).