There Is a Green Hill

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.
He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

When one of her little Sunday School girls became dangerously ill, Mrs. C. Alexander sat at the child's bedside, and meanwhile wrote this hymn. The child recovered, and throughout her lifetime enjoyed referring to this as her very own hymn.
