

Statesman's HOME Panorama

Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features

Around Town . . .

By JERYME ENGLISH

WEDDING BELLS . . . will ring on Saturday, June 23 for Miss Margaret Miller and William Drips, whose engagement was announced last Christmas . . . the wedding date was revealed Thursday night at a pre-nuptial party for which the bride-elect is Miss Margaret Miller and the groom-elect is William Drips. The ceremony will be held at the First Congregational Church at 7:30 o'clock. The bride, an airman second class, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron F. Butler. Mr. Carpenter, a staff sergeant, is the son of Mrs. Clara Buxton and Lester Carpenter of Chester, West Virginia.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white nylon tulle gown over satin, enhanced with lace insertion and a full skirt terminating in a court train. Her illusion veil was caught to a seed pearl tiara. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Miss Jane Butler was her sister's only attendant and she wore a white nylon tulle gown with blue cummerbund and blue shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers. Miss Myra Bell Butler, young sister of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a white embroidered organza dress over blue.

Fred Butler, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were William Emery, Gene Small and Edward Small.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Butler wore a white and blue printed satin gown with white satin hat and corsage of white roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Miss Ruth Skinner, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ed Lewis poured. Mrs. A. A. Larson cut her granddaughter's wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Fred Butler and Mrs. Max Clarke.

The newweds left immediately for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they are stationed at the Francis E. Warren Air Force Base. For traveling the new Mrs. Carpenter donned a cinnamon suit with matching accessories.

Air Force Couple Married at Church Nuptials on Thursday

Miss Ann Butler and Donald Gene Carpenter, who are both serving in the U. S. Air Force, were married Thursday night at the First Congregational Church by Dr. Julian Keiser at 7:30 o'clock. The bride, an airman second class, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron F. Butler. Mr. Carpenter, a staff sergeant, is the son of Mrs. Clara Buxton and Lester Carpenter of Chester, West Virginia.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white nylon tulle gown over satin, enhanced with lace insertion and a full skirt terminating in a court train. Her illusion veil was caught to a seed pearl tiara. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Miss Jane Butler was her sister's only attendant and she wore a white nylon tulle gown with blue cummerbund and blue shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers. Miss Myra Bell Butler, young sister of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a white embroidered organza dress over blue.

Fred Butler, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were William Emery, Gene Small and Edward Small.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Butler wore a white and blue printed satin gown with white satin hat and corsage of white roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Miss Ruth Skinner, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ed Lewis poured. Mrs. A. A. Larson cut her granddaughter's wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Fred Butler and Mrs. Max Clarke.

The newweds left immediately for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they are stationed at the Francis E. Warren Air Force Base. For traveling the new Mrs. Carpenter donned a cinnamon suit with matching accessories.

Breakfast Will Honor Mothers

The regular meeting of Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Cameron on Wednesday evening. Plans were discussed for the city-wide formal ritual of Jewels and Exemplar degree to be performed on April 17 at the Women's Clubhouse. A formal dinner dance will be held in May in honor of the "Girl of the Year."

A brief talk was given by Mrs. Ernest Krefl, wife of a police patient, for whom the chapter has aided in obtaining a polo lift. The annual Mother's Day Breakfast will be an event of May 13. Guests for the evening included Mrs. Krefl and Mrs. Betty Jones.

They are stationed at the Francis E. Warren Air Force Base. For traveling the new Mrs. Carpenter donned a cinnamon suit with matching accessories.

Sojourners President Names New Chairmen at Luncheon

Mrs. Elton Blasier was installed as the new president of the Salem Sojourners at their meeting on Thursday at the Salem Women's Clubhouse. Taking office with Mrs. Blasier were Mrs. B. W. Dunn, vice president; Mrs. J. G. Haller, secretary, and Mrs. W. O. Wood, treasurer.

The new president announced the appointment of the following as chairmen of the standing committees: name plate chairman, Mrs. Albert Leonaite; locker, Mrs. A. Franz; publicity, Mrs. Kermit Stewart; member-at-large, Mrs. Roger Webb; telephone, Mrs. D. E. DiLaconi; membership, Mrs. Rose Lockhart; remembrance, Mrs. Herbert M. Price. These, with the officers and the retiring president, Mrs. Allan Ferrin, form the governing board of the club.

Ferdinand the Bull, was the theme of the attractive decorations for the dessert luncheon. The individual tables were centered with Ferdinand smelling miniature bouquets of spring flowers. One of the

The Oregon Statesman

Statesman, Salem, Ore., Fri., April 13, '36 (Sec. II)-13

Convention to Be Held in Salem

Salem Camp No. 118, Woodmen of the World will be host to the District No. 4, district convention on Saturday, April 14, in the Coral Room of the Marion Hotel. Meeting will start promptly at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served at noon and reservations should be made by calling Mrs. Flossie M. Smalley, secretary Salem Camp No. 118. A delegate will be elected to represent District No. 4 at head camp session in June.

New members welcomed were Mrs. Kenneth Pennell, Mrs. Kelly Peters, Mrs. C. W. Murphy, Mrs. Richard Reynolds, who has returned from Fort Ord, Calif., was reinstated as a member.

Guests and prospective members attending were Mrs. Perry Woodcock, Mrs. Fred Gustafson,

Coads Named Chairmen

EUGENE—Two recent graduates of South Salem High school have been chosen as committee chairmen for the annual Phi Theta Mystic Sale on the University of Oregon campus. Connie Hammond, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hammond, has been named co-chairman of the booth committee. Nancy Payne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Payne, has been placed in charge of house sales, in the capacity of co-chairman. At the present time both coeds are also busy with plans for the Junior Prom to be held Thursday, May 17. Miss Payne has been named as general secretary for this event and Miss Hammond is acting as co-chairman of the program committee.

OPEN MONDAY AND FRIDAY 12:15 TO 9 P. M.
OTHER DAYS 9:30 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M.

WHITE

gigantic spring sale!
save $40 to $50!

full rotary
round bobbin portable $79

The same advanced features found on the desk model and console. Full size mechanism in a handsome "everywhere" carrying case. Reg. $119.90 . . . priced to save you $40.00.

efficient nite-table styl
console machine $99

You save $50.00 on this regular $149.00 model. Dress maker sewing unit in a beautiful console styled cabinet. Sews forward and reverse, mends, dams, embroiders. Multi-speed control.

Sewing lessons with every machine. American made since 1876.

As low as $5 a month.

NO DOWN PAYMENT

SEWING MACHINES—SECOND FLOOR

Meier & Frank Co.
OREGON'S OWN STORE SINCE 1857
SALEM 3-2211

YOU'RE INVITED!

YES, JOHNSON'S INVITES YOU TO SEE THE
Alice of California
"Candy Lane of Fashion"

Friday at 3:45 and 7:30 P. M.
Saturday at 1:30 P. M.

On Our Main Floor

It's a fashion show of fresh, spring Lady Alice and Lil' Alice dresses . . . and they're pretty enough to eat. Miss Muriel Landers, famous radio and television personality, will commentate the show. Afterwards she'll be delighted to discuss your personal wardrobe needs with you. Don't miss THE event of the spring fashion season . . .

ALICE OF CALIFORNIA DRESSES 9.95 TO 17.95. SIZES 10-20, 7-15

Open Fridays
10 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Johnson's

Salem's Leading Fashion Store
Corner Liberty and Court

Ramona Chapter Birthday Dinner

SILVERTON — Ramona Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, observed its 58th birthday anniversary with a no-host dinner Tuesday night in the chapter dining hall.

Following the dinner, a program was given by children of the members. Included on the program were Cathy Love, Lark and Tom Weisner, Kelly Ann, Jeff and Christ Enloe, Patsy Schmid, Janet Larsen, Kit Carson and Eva Guy. Mrs. Norman Nyhne and Mrs. Steve Enloe, Jr., directed the program.

A short business meeting was conducted by the worthy matron, Mrs. Austin Sanford, and the worthy patron, Harry Riches. The members were invited to attend the reception Sunday, April 15, for Peggy Dobson, Grand Representative for Ohio, Order of Rainbow for Girls. Mrs. Earle Denham of Portland, Grand Treasurer of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, will visit Ramona Chapter at the April 24 meeting.

Committees in charge of the Tuesday night meeting were: supper, Mrs. Austin Sanford, Mrs. Wayne Love, Mrs. Ben Sprick and Mrs. W. M. Peron; dining room, Mrs. Charles Leonard, Sr., Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. Cordell Woodall and Mrs. Charles McNatt; decorations, Mrs. Earl Erickson; hospitality, Miss Ina Harold and Ben Sprick.

Laurel Social Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Phillip Peterson entertained the Laurel Social Hour club Tuesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. Lloyd Hoxie, a guest, gave a talk on her trip to southern California, and on the living conditions in Mexico. Mrs. Hoxie's hobby is gardening and she showed various collections of cactus and shrub plantings.

Several members donated clothing and quilts to be sent to a needy family. A number of late issues of magazines were brought for Salem hospitals. Several dozen cookies were reported sent to a Veteran's hospital.

Miss Nancy Otto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Otto won second place as pianist in the Stillman-Kelley Scholarship contest, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs in Portland. Miss Otto was recently presented in recital by Miss Ruth Bedford, her teacher. She is accompanist for the First Methodist church youth choir and a student at Parrish.

Modern Appliance Center

1141 S. COMMERCIAL PHONE 4-9353

WE BROKE THE RECORD!

Our Thanks to You for Making Our Maytag Marathon Such a Terrific Success!
We Broke the Oregon Record for Maytag Sales—AND . . . as a Result . . .
Maytag Has Allotted 20 More Washers and Dryers to Modern Appliance Center for This Big Event! Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!

For the Best Appliance Deals in Town

What a sale! The bars are down, the red tape is cut . . . these washers and dryers must be sold during this gigantic sale! Catch us early, catch us late, for the most fabulous home laundry values ever offered!

WE'LL TRADE WILD! WE'LL TRADE BIG!

COME IN AND MAKE US AN OFFER

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY 'TIL 10 P. M.!

Bring Your Wife . . . Bring Your Husband . . . Bring the Kids . . . for the Deal of a Lifetime!

PLENTY OF FREE PARKING AT WHITE'S DRIVE IN

MODERN APPLIANCE CENTER

HOWARD COE — BOB COE — CLAIRE COE — ART JOSEPH — GORDON BRATTAIN — ROYAL HOLFORD
1141 South Commercial Phone 4-9353

Just Across the Street

- * Free Delivery
- * Free Installation
- * Terms to Suit You

