

Extension Unit to Elect Officers

LINCOLN—Election of officers will be held at the all-day meeting of Lincoln Extension Unit Friday, April 20, at Community Center at Spring Valley.

The meeting starts at 10:30, with snack lunch at noon. Mrs. Bruce Howell is president and the nominating committee includes Mrs. H. W. Ashford, Mrs. John S. Mischel and Mrs. N. E. Gresham.

Mrs. Earl A. Johnson, project leader, will demonstrate finishes on wood furniture.

Student Body Elects New Officers

By MARY JEAN SCHRUNK

PORTLAND—Election time at Lewis and Clark College has resulted in a new set of student body officers with a few offices to be decided in run-off elections.

New president will be Portlander Bob Atkins, with Pete Blahos as vice-president. Secretary will be determined by a run-off vote between Shirley Crothers of Salem and Joan Frant.

Lewis and Clark coeds who live on campus are looking forward to the week-end of May 27-29 when they will play hostesses to their mothers for annual Mother's Week-end. A program planned to entertain the mothers includes a fashion show and a banquet followed by a play, "The Enchanted." The Sunday agenda includes sorority mother-daughter breakfasts, a Mu Phi Epsilon concert and AWS silver tea.

Select Princesses

The classes of Lewis and Clark have selected princesses to join May Fete Queen Irl Mears and crown princesses Jodie Ellis and Cathy Majovski. The princesses to represent their respective classes on the court for the annual affair May 4-5 are freshman Betty Jo Williams, sophomore Lynn McGuire, junior Nancy Zellman, and senior Jean Kids.

Spring seems to be the time for dances. Last Saturday evening members of Stewart Hall, women's dormitory, invited escorts to attend their house dance with its Scottish theme, "Brigadoon." Shirley Crothers was general chairman of the event. Working on the dance were Jo Ann DeWitt, Judy Bone and Joyce Randall.

Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honorary, is sponsoring a dance Friday, April 20. The event will be semi-formal and will be held at the Columbia Athletic Club.

Chester, Wales, has both first and second story sidewalks along four streets.

First Sketches of Grace Kelly's Wedding Gowns

Grace's dress for civil ceremony... Sketch by designer Helen Rose of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios shows dress Grace Kelly will wear today for her civil wedding ceremony to Prince Rainier III of Monaco. Consisting of hand-run Alencon lace of bluish tan over ashes of roses silk taffeta, dress is really a lace suit falling to within 14 inches of ground. Separate jacket has small collar and ties at neck with silk cord. (AP Wirephoto).

Wedding gown sketch... by designer Helen Rose highlights elaborate veil and train of gown Grace Kelly will wear Thursday in religious wedding ceremony at Cathedral of Monaco. Veil, of silk illusion net, is embroidered with rose point lace and re-embroidered with thousands of tiny pearls. Bell-shaped ivory skirt covers three petticoats, one of silk crepe sheath and two of silk ivory taffeta. Veil and gown take up 25 yards of peau de soie, 25 yards of silk taffeta and 100 yards of silk net and 300 yards of val lace. (AP Wirephoto).

Mrs. Laue Will Head Pentacle Players

Pentacle Theaters general membership elected Mrs. Alfred J. Laue to be president of the theater group for the 1956 season at an election meeting held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Laue. Taking their new positions on the executive committee will be Bill Smith, vice president; Alfred J. Laue, treasurer; Norma Peterson, secretary; Mrs. George Juba, historian; Fran Fountain and Jim Jagy, members at large.

The group intends to produce five plays during the summer season and rehearsals for the first play will be ready for an opening in early June.

Other business of the Pentacle general meeting was the final selection of a list of plays collected by the group. The list of forty selections was presented to the three Pentacle directors, Prof. Robert Putnam, Mrs. Mirco Ringnald, and Carl Ritchie. Professor Putnam and Mrs. Ringnald will direct the first four plays of the season and Mr. Ritchie will direct the musical comedy at the end of the summer.

Vice President Bill Smith said "We hope to have as many new members this season as possible, actors, and those interested in the technical part of the production."

Rounders to Dance

Salem Rounders will meet Thursday, April 19 from 8 to 10:30 p. m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall for their semi-monthly dance. The dance of the month and "Mr. and Mrs. X" will be reviewed. Instructions for "Ukelele Lady" and "South" will be given. Other old and new round dances will make up the program for the evening.
