Marciano Not Sure If He Will Retire From Fight Career

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Rocky Marciano said Friday he still has not decided whether to retire or make another defense of his world heavyweight boxing title.

The champ and his manager, Al Weill, who met Rocky here to discuss his future, both indicated no snap decision will be made.

Asked if he thought a decision would be reached before leaving Macon, Marciano replied:

"I don't think so."

"I don't even know where I'm supposed to go from here," Rocky added with a grin. "much less whether I'll retire. I haven't seen Al for three months and I don't know what commitments he may have made."

Offers Turned Down

Weill said he had turned down several offers for appearances, figuring Rocky would want to go home to Brockton, Mass., to see his family.

"I sure do," the champ said. "It's been six weeks since I saw the kid (3-year-old Mary Anne)."

Marciano, who knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott for the world championship in September, 1952, has just returned from a vacation trip to South America. Mrs. Marciano accompanied him but she flew home from Miami.

Cubs slugged Redleg Art Fowler in the first. Monte Irvin also had a two-run homer in the Cubs' 18 hits.

Jones, tops in NL strikeouts in '55, fanned nine, including a one-two-three job on Ted Klusewski, Wally Post and Gus Bell in the fourth inning.

Milwaukee stayed unbeaten atop the National League, coming from behind with two home runs by Eddie Mathews and a pinch two-run shot by Wes Covington to nail the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4.

Bobby Thomson's sacrifice fly scored the winning run, unearned, against reliefer Stu Miller. Red Schoendienst's two-run double and Ken Boyer's solo homer gave the Cards an early lead off Warren Spahn. Lou Sleater won in relief.

At Philadelphia, Del Ennis lined a bases-loaded single—the only hit of the inning—in the 10th as the Phillies beat the New York Giants 2-1. Jack Meyer was the winner in relief, taking over from Herm Wehmeier who worked the first nine and retired the first 11 men he faced.

Central Wins 1st WVL Game From Estacada

MONMOUTH — (Special) — The Central Panthers won their second WVL baseball game of the season by defeating the Estacada Rangers, 3-1, at the OCE diamond Friday.

Estacada jumped off to a 1-run lead in the second inning when Jack Linn singled and came home on Ben Workman's single.

Central evened the count in the home half of the fourth when Bill Blankenbaker walked and came around on a steal of second, a passed ball and a wild pitch. The host nine wrapped it up in the sixth when Darrell Brandt singled, moved to second on an infield error and scored on Oscar Hatfield's single.

Gordy Detzel was credited with the win.

Yakima Bears Rap Salem in Exhibition

loose for three runs on three hits and a walk. Big blow of this uprising was Alva Brown's two-run triple to deep right field. Harv Koepf then singled Brown across.

The Salems broke out with another biggie in the eighth, scoring six times on three hits, two passed balls and a Yakima boot. Shortstop Ray Webster provided the No. 1 dandy of this outburst, slamming out his second homer in many days, this one with two aboard.

Webster was the batting star of the afternoon for Salem, banging four safties in five trips. Negro outfielder Hal Kelley had three hits and Jerry Waldrop a pair.

Yakima collected 19 hits most of them off Cowdell and Espe. Negro rookie Bob Good pitched the first six innings for the Bears and Manuel Escalera finished up.

The Senators were scheduled to play a local All-Star unit here Friday night but Luby had other things on his mind. He was off to San Francisco to talk shop with the S. F. Seals of the Coast league. Hugo wants to date up the Seals for a Salem exhibition game in July and to get "any available ball players they have who can help us."

On the regular schedule Salem plays Spokane at nearby Yountville Saturday then its Eugene at Napa Sunday and Spokane at Napa Monday, prior to taking off for Salem Tuesday.

Luby was in contact with Ralph Kiner of the San Diego Padres Friday and the Solons may come up with a young outfielder from the Pads on option.

There were no new additions or disposals in the camp Friday. Nineteen aspirants remain on the roster but same is subject to change at most any time.

They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

Sunday at Hollywood Bowl . . .

Program Set for First Auto Race of Campaign

Capital Auto Racing Association officials and Valley Sports Promoter Ron Ail Friday announced the list of events for Sunday's opening auto racing program of the Salem season, at Hollywood Bowl. Stock hard tops, piloted by CARA drivers will of course be the feature attraction, and they'll get the time trials under way at 1:30 p. m.

Immediately following the trials, which will involve around 30 entries, the winner of the "Miss Stock Hard Tops of 1956" queen contest will be named and crowned. Eight girls are participating in the contest.

Then the running events will get under way, starting with the Trophy dash by the four fastest cars in the time trials. Four heat races and the Class B and A main events will follow.

Winner of the Class A mainer will be awarded the Gov. Paul Patterson Memorial Trophy, and officials intend having a representative of the state on hand to make the presentation.

Powder Puff Derby Too

A special "Powder Puff Derby" will then climax the afternoon card, and will feature women drivers.

The eight girls in the queen contest are Mary Bales, 1716 Broadway; Mary Bolton, Rt. 4, Box 732; Joy Graham of Woodburn, George Ann Pavlicek, Rt. 1, Aurora; Dixie Eby, 1492 Franklin St., Marcia Smith, 2173 N. Front St.; Marty Baker, 5510 Auburn Road and Jan Malley of Beaverton.

Winner of the contest will be the one who has sold most tickets for Sunday's opening racing card.

Owners and drivers of the stock hard tops that are to be raced Sunday have been spending a busy last few days at the bowl, gettting their mounts in top trim for the inaugural. The bowl itself has been undergoing somewhat of a facelifting by workers, for the comfort and protection of fans.

Cards, Grays Nab Ball Wins

The Parrish Cards, scoring a lone run in the last of the 8th inning, defeated the Leslie Blues, 11-10, in a free-swinging baseball game at Barrick Field, and the Parrish Grays shut out the Leslie Golds, 3-0, behind the 3-hit pitching of Don Westling, in Salem Junior High School League baseball action Friday.

The Cards-Blues game went into extra innings when the two teams were Knotted 10-all at the end of the regulation distance. The Cards loaded the bases in the eighth on a combination of Johnny Jones' single, Bill Gentzkows single, and a hit batter, and then scored the winning run when twirler Geody Goodrich walked Dickie Kuykendall to force in Jones with the clincher.

Westling was practically the whole story in the Gray-Golds tili, striking out 9 Golds, as he spun 3-hit ball over the route. Homer Wood and Davey Jones lent batting support to Westling's effort, Wood going 2 for 4 at the plate, and Jones chipping in a double to the Gray cause.

Duke Duchow paced the winners at the plate with a double.

Brooklyn Rhubarb Flowers

Jackie, Bavasi Mix Hot Words

BROOKLYN (AP) — Another Brooklyn rhubarb flowered Friday — in the form of a bitter word exchange between Jackie Robinson and one of his bosses, Buzzy Bavasi — and then, like all Dodger rhubarbs, it died a quick agonizing death.

It all started when the outspoken Robinson said, in effect, that the Jersey City ball park stank. Nettled, Bavasi, the Dodger vice president, paid a similar compliment to Robinson's ball-playing. Then the fireworks began.

Robinson said, "I'm playing as well as I can. If they can get anybody better, let 'em." Then he added he won't be playing after this year, anyhow.

Bavasi, informed that Jackie had said he'd never play the 24 games at Roosevelt Stadium which the Dodgers have scheduled for the next three years, shot back:

"With the kind of playing he has been doing recently, he had better worry about the next three months."

These salvos weren't delivered direct, so Bavasi got Robinson on the telephone Friday and the wires continued to crackle.

"I chewed Jackie out and he chewed me out," Bavasi explained later. "We thrashed everything out and the matter is settled. We hung up the receivers on friendly terms."

Robinson, who made his professional baseball debut with Montreal at Jersey City 10 years ago, was chagrined when fans there booed him repeatedly in Thursday's game, won by the Dodgers, 5-4.

Mill City Trims Jefferson 2 to 1

MILL CITY—(Special)—The Mill City Timberwolves scored one run in the sixth and another in the seventh innings to nip Jefferson, 2-1, in a Marion County B League baseball game Friday.

Maurice Bassett doubled and Don Ellingson singled for the winning run. Muir singled home the run in the sixth. Jerry Garrison was Mill City's winning pitcher, allowing five hits.

Frank Marlatt, who gave up only four hits but was the loser, scored the Jefferson run after getting on with a single. He also hit a triple.

FLY CASTING WITH A STIFF WRIST

FOR MANY YEARS IT WAS THOUGHT THAT A WRIST SNAP WITH ONLY SLIGHT ARM ACTION, AND KEEPING ELBOW CLOSE TO THE BODY, WAS NECESSARY FOR GOOD CASTING. THIS FORM DOES PRODUCE SOME OF THE FINEST CASTING, BUT YOU CAN CAST WELL ALSO WITH ARM ACTION AND A STIFF WRIST!

PLACE THUMB OR TOP OF ROD'S GRIP AND HOLD ROD AT A TWO O'CLOCK ANGLE TO START PICK-UP OF LINE FROM WATER. RAISE ROD SMARTLY TO A 12 O'CLOCK ANGLE WITHOUT BENDING WRIST (LET WRIST ACT AS A RIGID EXTENSION OF FOREARM). SNAP IT FORWARD THE SAME WAY.

Earl Averill Makes Start

CHICAGO (AP) — Catcher Earl Averill, son of a former major league star, made his first big league start for the Cleveland Indians Thursday against the Chicago White Sox.

Averill was behind the plate to handle the pitching of Herb Score, the Indians' "rookie of the season" last year in the American League. The White Sox nosed out the Indians, 1-0, in a tight duel. Both Score and Jack Harshman allowed only two hits.

Score struck out 10 but caused his own downfall in the seventh when he walked Minnie Minoso, cut loose with a two-base wild pitch and allowed Walt Dropo to fly to deep right, Minoso scoring after the catch.

Averill walked in the third but was hitless in his two other times at bat.

Averill, in his fourth season of professional baseball, was signed to an Indian contract Monday.

The 190-pounder from Snohomish, Wash., broke into pro ball with Reading, Pa., in 1953, batting .314.

He is a former University of Oregon star.

Promise of Greatness . . .

Ted Williams Supports Mantle for Bat Honors

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Ted Williams is the latest to get on the already crowded bandwagon with those who predict that this is the year for Mickey Mantle to fulfill his promise of greatness.

The Boston Red Sox slugger, generally regarded as one of baseball's greatest hitters, thinks Mantle is ready now to assume the role as the American League's No. 1 slugger.

"I see no reason why Mantle can't be a .340 hitter this year and hit 40 homes runs," Williams said as he sat in the visiting dugout at Yankee Stadium, waiting for the start of the New York opener between the Yankees and Red Sox.

"This is the year Mickey ought to be close to getting there," Ted said. "He's been five years in the league now. This is the year he should be getting to his peak.

"Mantle is the only guy right now who's got a chance to break Babe Ruth's home run record of 60. He's got tremendous power and a good swing. He also has the advantage of being a switch hitter."

Williams recalled a newspaper article he read recently where Roy Campanella was quoted as saying that Mantle has not improved any since he joined the Yankees in 1951.

"I want to contradict Campanella," he said. "But I think Roy is dead wrong. The way I see it Mickey has improved every year. Last year, for instance, he struck out fewer times than any other year and he hit more home runs than ever before. He probably will better those marks this year."

Mantle made Williams look like a good prophet. He struck out his first time at bat and walked in his next turn. In the fifth inning, however, Mickey surprised the Red Sox with a squeeze bunt that scored Hank Bauer and in the seventh, he clouted a three-run homer to sew up the victory for the Yankees 7-1. It was his third home run in four games.

Later he had to leave the game because of an aggravated thigh muscle which will keep him sidelined for five days.

Vandals Upend Huskies, 5-4

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Idaho pushed across a run in the last of the ninth Friday to take an unexpected 5-4 win over Washington in the baseball opener for the northern division of the Pacific Coast Conference.

The Vandals, who didn't register a conference win last season, jumped on four Husky pitchers for 12 hits.

Doug Randall, who went all the way for Idaho, allowed only five hits, including a first inning home run by Jack Ballard.

Woodburn Held to Two Hits But Wins, 7-3

MT. ANGEL — (Special) — Woodburn could get only two hits but still managed to down Mt. Angel, 7-3, in a Capital Conference baseball game here Friday. Winning pitcher Jerry Chapelle got the two Woodburn hits, both singles, driving in three runs.

Jim Ownings gave up the Woodburn hits before being relieved by Tim Butsch in the seventh. Owings got two hits, both singles, and Dan Susee hit a triple for Mt. Angel.

EDDYVILLE — (Special) — Valsetz, exploding for 8 runs in the first inning, defeated Eddyville, 22-5, in a district baseball game here Friday.

The visitors really unloaded the lumber on the host nine, pounding two Eddyville pitchers for 24 hits.

Mel Ferrin, Larry Dodge and Ernie Johnson, each connected safely four times for the winners.
