Eakins Home From Winter Vacation

By B. NORBERG
DALLAS — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eakin Sr., returned to Dallas this week after spending the winter in Cathedral City, Calif. While in California their home was a favorite stopping place for many Dallas travelers to the south. Here from Fort Wayne, Indiana is Dr. Maurice V. Krebs who is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. E. Plummer. Dr. Krebs has been here since the first of April but is leaving again for Indiana on Wednesday. A new son is being welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Holman. Paul Matthew was born April 12 at Bartell Hospital and brings the count to three boys and two girls for the Holmans. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Holman of Rochester, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. W. Widmer of Tillamook.

Attend Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Vaughan combined a business and pleasure trip to San Francisco recently where they attended an 11-state regional conference of lock men. A short time before making the California trip Mr. Vaughan had been elected president of the Oregon Frozen Food Locker Association. Before returning home the Vaughans visited the Robert Allgoods in Vallejo. Newcomers to Dallas are Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Graham, who have moved into a new home on Miller avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Graham were raised in Falls City, but have lived in Salem for the past several years where he is employed in the forest research division of the state tax commission.

Brewsters Return From Meetings

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brewster have just returned from Taft, where they met with the Disabled Veterans and Auxiliary going on to Newport for a committee meeting, a dinner and installation of officers. Mrs. Brewster presented a charter to the new junior auxiliary in Klamath Falls Friday afternoon and installed the officers of the auxiliary in the evening. The Brewsters are state commanders of the Disabled Veterans and auxiliary. Plans are being formulated for the convention to be held in Salem June 13 and 14 inclusive. Mr. Brewster has appointed Paul Tharalson as convention chairman. Mrs. Brewster has asked Mrs. Leon Hansen to act as chairman for the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Keyser New Club President

MACLEAY — Mrs. M. L. Hopkins and Mrs. A. A. Spellbrink were co-hostesses at the Hopkins home on Thursday for the Macleay Women's club for desert and a business session. During the business meeting officers for the coming year were elected, including Mrs. Ralph Keyser, president; Mrs. John Moritz, vice president; Mrs. W. Noland, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. V. E. Burson is the retiring president. Delegates who will attend the county Federation of Women's club-convention in Corvallis, April 29 are Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. James Hudec, Mrs. John Catrill, Mrs. W. J. Noland, Mrs. John Moritz, Mrs. V. E. Burson and Mrs. M. M. Magee, member of the county standing committee. Mrs. E. J. Ediger and son of Monmouth and Mrs. G. D. Dewey were special guests. The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. W. Sahli in Salem with Mrs. Arthur Johnson co-hostess.

Golden Age Members Dress Up

Colorful costumes featured the Golden Age Club's dress-up party Friday afternoon at the YWCA. Nearly 50 members, whose ages range from 65 to 90, appeared in costume and participated in the grand march. Three of the members pictured include, left to right, Mrs. Harry Rowe, who is 70, dressed as a Hawaiian; Mrs. Margaret Maddox, who is 82, in a gypsy costume; and Herbert N. Gray, who is 91, attired as an Indian chief. (Statesman Photo).

Grand March Featured at Costume Party

Golden Age Club members held a gala costume party complete with grand march on Friday at the YWCA social room. Every type of costume was represented from a gypsy to a hobo. Members, whose ages range from 65 to 90, paraded to music around the hall while the judges were making their decisions. Prizes were awarded to four outstanding costumes: first to Herbert Gray as "Big Chief" in Indian costume; Mrs. Janice Boyd as a drum majorette; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haskell as the "Goodnight couple"; ready to retire by candlelight; and to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Stegner teamed as "Mummy and Rasmus," each in Negro costume. Among other costumes were a policeman, Hawaiian girl, hobos, an Irish washwoman, singer, gypsy, a society lady, a school girl, the lone ranger, the big nose politician, and waitresses. The Golden Age Club presented the YWCA with a hundred dollar check as part of their philanthropic work during their business meeting.

Miss Stainke Is Bride of Mr. Wheeler

At a double ring candlelight service at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, April 5 in the Kingwood Bible Church, Miss Wilma Louise Stainke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stainke of Salem, was wed to Gary M. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler of Salem. Performing the ceremony was the Rev. Burkholder of Grace Methodist Church of Dallas with the Rev. Frank Wiens, pastor of the Kingwood Church, assisting. Lighting candles were Miss Marjorie Dyck and Miss Elsie Cummings. Miss Arlene Barnett was the organist and accompanied Harold Cummings, vocalist. The bride wore a white tulle dress with bouffant skirt of nylon net over embossed taffeta. The fitted bodice of Chantilly lace over taffeta had a round net yoke edged with seed pearls. Her bolero of net and Chantilly lace had three quarter length sleeves and wing collar. The fingertip veil of nylon tulle edged with fringed nylon lace gathered to a small hat covered with the Chantilly lace and adorned with seed pearls and brilliants. She carried a cascade of baby pink Elf rose, stephanotis and variegated ivy. The bride's two sisters were her attendants. Miss Kathleen Stainke was maid of honor wearing a yellow nylon dotted swiss bouffant dress. Her bandeau was of yellow taffeta and net with small flowers and she carried a nosegay of yellow daisies. Miss Barbara Stainke was bride's maid and wore an identical dress and bandeau, only of green. She also carried a yellow daisy nosegay. Sally Jones, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Bridegroom's Attendants — Danny Fredrickson was best man and Larry Ediger of Dallas, was groomsmen. Ushers were Albert Stain, Leonard Van Kleeck and Kent Jacquith. The bride's mother chose a suit of Wedgewood blue with blue and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink Elf rosebuds and violets. Mr. Wheeler wore a broadcote rose suit with pink accessories and her corsage was an orchid. The reception was held in the church parlor. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Leslie Jones, cousin of the bride, and Miss Goldia Wheeler, aunt of the groom. Pouring were Mrs. Leonard Van Kleeck, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Ed Burgess, aunt of the groom. Assisting were Mrs. Walter Karsten, Miss Patty Davis of Dallas, Miss Ida Gans, Mrs. Danny Fredrickson, Mrs. E. E. Marx, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Alvin Marr, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Bill Borgerd. For traveling the bride wore a grey-blue wool suit with beige accessories and corsage of cymbidium orchids. The bride is a graduate of the Salem Bible Academy and Mr. Wheeler is a graduate of North Salem High School. The couple is now at home at 1462 Fairgrounds Road, Salem.
