

Valley News

Statesman News Service

Fox Valley School Election Scheduled

ALBANY—An election was authorized Friday to permit Fox Valley community to determine where it wants to send its high school students. The Linn County rural school boundary board scheduled the election for Tuesday, May 20.

Mt. Angel Set For Primrose Show Sunday

MT. ANGEL—Let the weather be what it may, it will be spring in St. Mary's dining hall Sunday, when the ninth annual Mt. Angel Primrose Show gets underway.

The show opens to the public at 12 p.m. and visitors will be welcomed until 8 p.m. The show is sponsored by the Mt. Angel Garden Club and a committee of Mrs. Lucy Kahut, Mrs. Albert Bocher and Mrs. A. A. Hauth will serve coffee and cookies throughout the afternoon.

Judges from the American Primrose Society of Portland will judge the entries between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and all plants and arrangements entered for competition must be received before 10 a.m. Garden club members headed by Mrs. Josephine Bocher, will be on hand to receive the entries from 8 to 10 a.m. Sunday, and Saturday, April 21, from 6 to 8 p.m.

Ribbon prizes will be given for primrose plants in nine different types with many classes in each division, and for arrangements of primroses alone or with other flowers, each ribbon won to count towards the sweepstake award, donated by the Mt. Angel City Council.

Dallas BPW Club Elects Doris Sweet

DALLAS—Officers for a new year of activities for the Business and Professional Women were elected at a dinner meeting in Dallas City Hall this week.

Mrs. Doris Sweet will be the incoming president, replacing Mrs. H. D. Peterson. Serving with her will be first vice president, Mrs. Owen Ottaway; second vice president, Mrs. Leonard Swagert; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles Stovall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jean Howe; treasurer, Mrs. Austin Lowe, and director, Mrs. Floy Woodhull.

Terminal Garage Sold at Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Pete Coover has sold the Terminal garage and service station to Arnold Epps, who took over this week. Coover will follow road construction work again this summer.

Valley Briefs

Wacley—Officers of Pomona Grange will exemplify the fifth degree at the grange hall here Tuesday night. All fourth degree members wishing to take the degree are welcome to attend. A no-host lunch will be served following the meeting.

Stayton—Another Moody science film will be shown at the Church of Christ here at 7 p.m. Sunday. The film is "Experience with an Eel."

North Howell—The Mt. Angel Center of the Farm Bureau will meet Monday at 8 p.m. at the North Howell Garage Hall. Doug McKay will be guest speaker and entertainment will be furnished by the "Barber Shop Quartet." Refreshments will be served after the meeting. The public is invited.

Sleepless?

—because of Acid Stomach? Eat 1 or 2 Tablets at bedtime—to neutralize acid food.

Royal Cuties for Monmouth Centennial

MONMOUTH—These five students at Central High School, located midway between Monmouth and Independence, are candidates for the honor of ruling as queen during the Monmouth centennial celebration, May 3 to 6. Left to right are Lois Fleming, senior; Nancy Watson, junior; Marcella McDaniel, senior; Gloria Popoff, sophomore, and Beverly Fleming, freshman.

Button Sale to Determine Queen of May Celebration

MONMOUTH—The queen who will reign over Monmouth's centennial celebration May 3 to 6, will be elected in votes now being cast by holders of official centennial buttons.

These buttons, which admit to all events on the four day program with the exception of the queen's ball, are being sold by members of 25 civic, fraternal and patriotic organizations in the Monmouth-Independence area.

Five girl students at Central High School are candidates. Each is backed by five organizations. Voting for queen ends Saturday night, April 28. The four runners-up will serve as princesses.

Gowns for the queen and her royal court will be provided by Willamina PTA.

Riders Slate Cross-Country Jaunt Today

MONMOUTH—Monmouth's Mounties, 50 strong, will take part in a cross-country ride Saturday morning to publicize this city's centennial celebration.

The riders will proceed by way of Dallas to the coast cut-off highway until they meet up with a similar group from the Sheridan Center Club about midway between the two cities.

There the two groups will exchange invitations, Monmouth to its centennial festivities and the Sheridan group to its Phil Sheridan Days rodeo, June 23-24. Mel Pervis is in charge of the Monmouth riders.

Sheridan Club to Ride at Monmouth. SHERIDAN—Sheridan Center Club members will ride in the Monmouth Centennial parade on May 5, have scheduled a trail ride for June 17 and will sponsor a fun day August 12. Jack Bissell of near Dallas is president and Mrs. Howard Windle is secretary.

Polk County Grand Jury Indicts Four

DALLAS—The Polk County Grand Jury indicted four persons Friday.

Donovan H. O'Bryan, 50, was charged with burglarizing the Robert Schucking dwelling at Eola last Saturday. He was arrested Monday by state police. Bail was set at $3,000.

Walter Wesley Thompson, 42, Independence, was indicted on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon that stemmed from an altercation at a tavern in Independence on Feb. 27. His bail was set at $2,000.

Lafayette Bradley, 67, and Dorothea Williams, 39, both of Independence, were indicted on charges of incest. They were arrested after a complaint was signed on March 20. Bail was set at $2,000 each.

All were arranged before Circuit Judge Arlie G. Walker who appointed attorneys to defend each.

Young Dallas Drivers Vie Today in Road-e-o

DALLAS—Skill of young drivers of the Dallas area will be demonstrated here Saturday, at the second annual Teen-Age Road-e-o sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The event is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. at the Junior High School. Merchandise and cash awards will be presented to the top drivers, Chairman Vic Bender announced.

The winner will be entered in state competition at Portland, Ore.

Aurora Club to Aid Centennial

AURORA—The Aurora Gun Club has voted a $200 contribution to the Aurora Centennial fund and will enter a float in the centennial parade.

Meeting at the community hall Tuesday night, members also elected Robert Matthew as president; Nils Beiser, secretary; and Carl Snyder as treasurer for another year.

Shirley Blush Pledges

McMINNVILLE—Shirley Blush, Salem, is among seven new pledges of the Linfield College chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national speech honorary.

Clayton Gibb To Head PTA At Swegle

SWEGLE—New officers were elected at the meeting of Swegle PTA Tuesday night, naming as president, Clayton Gibb; vice president, Gerald Smith; secretary, Mrs. Ronald Nopp; treasurer, William Sample.

The current topic of county zoning was outlined by Mr. R. R. Wood. A film was shown followed by a group discussion on family relationship and the effects of mental health on tuberculosis.

Jefferson Area Farmers Busy

JEFFERSON—Most farmers here have finished their spring plowing and are working their ground down for seed planting. Many are planting peppermint.

The Bob Harts have been digging strawberry plants with from 18 to 22 women employed. One day, 18 women packed 30,000 plants for cold storage in Salem to be shipped later to Washington.

Anniversary Program Set

DALLAS—Trinity Lutheran congregation will observe the 10th anniversary of its organization Sunday, April 29.

Dr. S. C. Siefkes, Northwestern district president of the American Lutheran Church, will conduct the 11 o'clock service. Speaking at an afternoon service at 3 p.m. will be the Rev. Karl Ufer, former pastor.

Luncheon will be served in the assembly room at 12:30 p.m. for members and friends. A tea hour will be held following the afternoon service.

OPEN MONDAY AND FRIDAY
12:15 TO 9 P. M.
OTHER DAYS
9:30 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M.

Butterick pattern No. 7688 35c
Butterick pattern No. 7701 35c
IT PAYS TO BUY AT MEIER & FRANKS
See an educational film showing by the Cancer Society in our Auditorium—Second Floor today at 2:30 p.m.

MEIER & FRANK'S—SALEM

SPRING FABRIC SALE

REG. $1.00 YARD WASHABLE PRINTED RAYONS

Washable, crease-resistant with the look of expensive linen. Always crisp and fresh-looking. And what a wonderful group of colorful prints... summery and gay dots, all types stripes, dainty and bold florals, fine geometrics. Colors that were stolen from the rainbow... all 45 inches wide for more economical sewing and cutting. Ideal fabrics for summer styles from dresses to separates.

$1.69 - $1.95 yd. PRINTED FABRICS

This wide, wonderful group includes printed acetate sarahs, printed rayon band crepes and printed silk-acetate band crepes. All 42 inches wide to save you even more money! A host of attractive floral and conventional designs... and particularly fashionable in this year of the "silken look." Use for dresses, blouses, dress and lining combinations.

FABRIC CENTER—SECOND FLOOR

Meier & Frank Co. OREGON'S OWN STORE SINCE 1857 SALEM 3-2211
FREE STORE-SIDE PARKING FOR OVER 1000 CARS