NAPA, Cal. — (Special) — The story was pretty much the same here Friday as the Salem Senators dropped another spring training exhibition ball game to the Yakima Bears. This time the count was 16-9, with each side uncorking big innings for the tallies.

Strange as it may sound, Uncle Hugh Luby may have come up with his starting pitcher for the opening game with Wenatchee at Salem next Saturday night. He's young Jerry Cade, the lefty from the Drain Black Sox who wasn't in any way responsible for the heavy cannonading by Hub Kittle's Bears Friday.

Showing a hopping fast ball and a fine curve the 23-year-old southpaw was called to the rescue in the second inning when Marion Cowdell was bombarded for an 8-run surge by the Yaks and he responded with the best pitching job yet turned out by a member of Luby's staff. Cade toiled 6⅔ innings in all and gave only one run. He struck out six and walked four and even when Luby figured he'd had enough the kid begged to keep going.

It's too bad he didn't for Gary Espe pitched the ninth inning and was banged for four runs on five hits and two bases on balls. The kid from Gervais simply didn't have it.

Neither did Cowdell. Herman Lewis rapped him for a three run homer in the first inning and in the second the Bears went berserk for eight runs on seven hits, a walk and a couple of costly Salem infield errors.

This provided Yakima with an 11-0 lead and there it stayed until the sixth when the Senators cut

New York and Boston voted most likely to succeed the in American League pennant race, met for the first time this season Friday and the Yankees came off with a 7-1 victory.

Chicago's unbeaten White Sox, also figured in on the flag fight, remained in first place, however, with a three-run rally in the ninth that beat Kansas City 6-3.

Cleveland, the fourth club in the probable pennant picture, won its first by knocking Detroit to a third straight defeat, 3-1. And Baltimore edged Washington, 3-2.

Craig Hurls 4-Hitter

In the National, Roger Craig retired the first 16 men he faced and finished with a four-hitter for a 5-0 Brooklyn victory over Pittsburgh. The Chicago Cubs won their first, pairing a four-hitter by Sam Jones with a six-run first inning in a 12-1 romp over Cincinnati.

Mickey Mantle drove in four Yank runs, three on a home run, as New York got the best of Willard Nixon, only pitcher to beat the defending AL champs four times last season.

Mantle aggravated a thigh injury — which left him lame for the '55 World Series — in beating out his RBI bunt.

Wynn Pitches Win

Whitey Ford was in charge all the way for the Yanks, spinning a four-hitter and striking out six while walking four. Both clubs now are 3-1.

Early Wynn permitted a Detroit run in the first on a single, walk, infield out and Harvey Kuenn's sacrifice fly, then shut out Detroit the rest of the way for a five hitter.

A pinch, two-run homer by veteran Ron Northey triggered the White Sox' winning rally off reliefer Tom Gorman.

Gus Triandos swatted a two-run homer in the seventh to give Baltimore its first victory. Clint Courtney homered for the Senators off winner Jim Wilson, who gave six hits.

Ernie Banks, who hit 44 home runs last season, got his first of 1956 with a man on base as the Setting records were Scott in the 100 with his 10.3 time; Bob Gates in the 440 with his 52.6; Loren Blaco in the mile with his 4:56.5; Patterson in the low hurdles with his 20.9 and Brad Krueger in the discus with a toss of 127 feet 8 inches.

Albany Downs Saxons 5 to 3

ALBANY (Special)—The Albany Bulldogs vaulted into a tie with North Salem for first place in the District 8 Baseball race here Friday night, defeating the South Salem Saxon's, 5-3, in a District 8 baseball game.

South Salem drew first scoring blood with a single run in the opening frame when Heyden, Saxon second-baseman, doubled to right field, and scored on two successive passed balls by Bulldog Catcher Gary Koeppel.

Albany came back with a pair of runs in the bottom of the second when Bruce Ridinger doubled, Koeppel singled him home, and then scored himself on Rene Moye's long double.

The Bulldogs counted another in the third on a walk to Pat Emmons, a two-base error on an attempted pick-off play at first, and Heyden's error on Ridinger's grounder.

Ridinger started things off for Albany in the fifth by singling to right and going to second when the ball got away from Roger Carda in the garden. Jim Richards was hit by a pitch, and Koeppel singled to load the bases. Moye scored Ridinger with a perfect squeeze bunt to make 4-1 for the host nine.

The Saxons almost got back in the ballgame in the seventh when with one out, Smith walked for Coon, Johnny Fredericks tripled him home, but Fredericks was nailed at the plate on Heyden's fielders' choice. Baker walked to advance Heyden to second and the Saxon keystoner moved to third when a balk was called on Albany's Johnny Wilson. Wilson then uncorked a wild pitch, permitting Heyden to score, but was able to put out the fire before any more damage could be done.

Winning pitcher was Wilson, while Frederick took the loss.

Bearcats Play Linfield Club

Coach Johnny Lewis takes his Willamette Bearcats to McMinnville today for another pair of Northwest Conference baseball games. First clash in the twin bill gets under way at 1:30 p. m.

All six conference teams broke even in their opening twin bills last week, Willamette with Pacific, Linfield with Lewis & Clark and Whitman with College of Idaho.

Gino Pieretti, who has been pitching some fine ball for the Bearcats will open against Roy Helser's Linfields. But Lewis doesn't know who will hurl the second game. Brad Lucas is still suffering from an illness, which has crippled the WU mound staff considerably. Pete Reed would normally be the choice, since Linfield is loaded with left handed batters. But Reed is unavailable over the weekend, and will face Linfield here Monday. Sophomore Jack Fowler, who made his debut against Oregon State earlier in the week, may get the starting assignment in the second game today.

Norval Leads North Salems

Jimmy Norval posted three first places — all of them with good marks — to lead his North Salem track team to a 74 1/6 to 46 1/6 win over Corvallis on the Viking track Friday afternoon.

Norval won the 100 yard dash in 10.2, the 220 in 22.6 and the broadjump with a leap of 21 feet 4¼ inches, his best yet.

High point man in the meet, however, was Corvallis' Jim Stinnette who also took three firsts and ran a leg on the winning relay team. Stinette's firsts were in the high hurdles, the discus and the shot.

North Salem did not run their regular relay team. They likely would have won it if they had as the Viks took four of the possible six places in the two sprint events.

North Salem swept the mile and the 880.

Coach Ken Hunt of the Viks expressed pleasure with his sophomore thinclads Friday. Karl Rautenkranz won the mile in 5:06 and Dale Drake took the 404 in 55.5.

Olson Victor In Court Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman ruled Friday in favor of Carl (Bobo) Olson, former middleweight boxing champion, in a half million dollar breach of contract suit brought against him by Herbert Campos, who once was Olson's Honolulu manager.

Judge Goodman took the case under advisement after the December trial.

Campos, Honolulu dairyman, testified that at a meeting with the Honolulu territorial boxing commission on June 19, 1951, he had not intended to free Olson from a contract so that the fighter might come to the mainland to fight under the management of Sid Flaherty, also named in the suit.

The judge held that "the acts and conduct of both Campos and Olson indisputably point to the conclusion that the contracts were intended to be, and were mutually abandoned in 1951."

Judge Goodman said in view of this, Campos had no case against Flaherty, either.

Pioneers Grab Oval Victory

PORTLAND (AP) — Lewis and Clark rolled over the University of Portland in a dual track meet Friday, getting three first places from Clarence Duke to defeat the Pilots, 101-30.

The winners captured 13 of the 15 events and swept all three places in five events.

Duke, a 6 foot 3 inch sophomore, won the high and low hurdles and the 220-yard dash. Duke's 15.2 time in the high hurdles was a meet record, erasing his own previous standard of 15.5.

Bob Mitchell won two first places for Lewis and Clark, taking the mile and two-mile runs with ease. His mile time was a creditable 4:28.8 and the two-mile 10:14.1. Mitchell is a freshman.

Forced Sale Told In Boxing Probe

By LEONARD MILLIMAN

OAKLAND (AP) — Former fight manager Phil Garcia of Sacramento Friday testified he reluctantly sold the contract of lightweight Joey Lopes after fight promoter Jim Murray told him "you will take $1,000 or else."

Garcia said the San Francisco fight promoter made that statement after a series of [illegible] trying to buy Lopes' contract. He said these calls coincided [illegible] period during which every fight he lined up for Lopes was abruptly cancelled.

Garcia told a California boxing investigation that he told Murray, "bring the thousand dollars in cash, I don't want no checks," and he would sell him the contract.

Harry Fine Appears

But instead, Garcia testified, fight manager Harry Fine with whom he had never talked before, appeared with Lopes and the $1,000.

The witness' testimony was in flat contradiction to that of Fine, who testified he thought Murray was acting as Garcia's agent, and that of Murray, who had testified he had no interest in the fighter.

Other contradictions, tears and an angry outburst from an Oakland attorney also enlivened the hearing.

Ivan Sperbeck, the attorney, interrupted the afternoon session when he appeared briefly as Lopes' counsel.

Fine, however, told hearing officers that Lopes had no legal representative.

"When Mr. Fine got up and said I was discharged," Sperbeck said, "he promptly got the word from Mr. Murray."

Sperbeck objected to the "loaded questions" of investigating counsel James Cox and the manner in which the hearing was being conducted.

"You take these boxers and knock them down," Sperbeck said. "Why don't you get your Jimmy Murrays, your Carbos and your IBCs but let these kids go. They are just pawns."

He was referring to Frankie Carbo, sometimes called the "underworld czar of boxing," and the International Boxing Club which Murray represents in northern California.

The tears came from Nunu Randle, a California lightweight, when he heard Fine say he thought he was on the skids and should quit the ring for a steady job.

Fine conceded that there was a $590 discrepancy between his records of the combined purses Lopes got for two New York fights last year against Carmelo Costa and those of the New York Athletic Commission. Purses for the two televised fights were $4,760 and $4,680 with Lopes getting one-half.
