OCE Names

Joan Seavey To New Post

Statesman News Service

MONMOUTH — Appointment of Miss Joan Seavey as Director of Student Affairs at Oregon College of Education was approved Tuesday by the State Board of Higher Education.

Miss Seavey has served on the OCE staff since 1946 as Assistant Professor of English and Dean of Women.

Purpose of the new position, one of several reorganization changes made necessary by the increased enrollment at OCE, is to coordinate the various personnel services. Areas with which Miss Seavey will work will be student housing, student government and other student activities, health services, and all counselling services.

Miss Seavey explained that the reorganization doesn't change any of the existing offices, but rather organizes them into "a more workable pattern." She stated that "it is consistent with the development in other schools where there have been enrollment increases."

150 Seniors Visit OCE

Statesman News Service

MONMOUTH — Some 150 high school seniors from throughout the state visited the Oregon College of Education campus during the weekend Senior Campus Preview, according to general chairman, Sally Edgar, Bay City.

One of the highlights was the naming of Betty Coed and Joe College at a semi-formal dance. Jeanette Spinney, Beaverton, and John La Fontaine, Clatskanie, received the awards following last week's balloting to determine the most typical college students.

Among other Saturday activities was a fashion show of campus clothes for various occasions. Pat Smith, Monmouth, and Colleen Pederson, Milwaukie, served as commentators.

Creek Gets 2,000 Trout for Opening Day

DALLAS—State Game Commission dumped 2,000 legal size rainbow and cutthroat trout in Rickreall creek this week so that kids of the Dallas area can try their luck at pulling them out on opening day. Here Bud Foster (left) of Polk County Sportsmen's Club takes a netful of trout from Cal Elshoff, Portland, to dump in the stream at an undisclosed location. Fish came from the Willamette Hatchery at Oakridge, and were distributed over a five-mile section of the creek. Adults traditionally reserve Rickreall creek in the Dallas area for kids on opening days of the season.

Jefferson Grade School Schedules May 23 Promotion

Statesman News Service

JEFFERSON—Jefferson grade school has set its graduation date for Wednesday, May 23, at 8 p.m., in the grade school gymnasium. Forty-one students will graduate. Donna VanDeventer and Glenda Nabors will share valedictory honors. Frank Ellis is salutatorian. Pat Hart has been chosen class prophet; Dorene Trefethen and Shirrell Hochspeier, class historians, and Dean Shinn, class wll.

Interest in tetherball has been so great in the grade school, that a tournament to decide the best players was held. Bill Barnes, Johnny Wells, Gene Bradley, Hubert Harry and Ray Cude, in that order, proved the best. The basic idea of tetherball is somewhat like that of a punching bag. Players need good coordination.
