House Dances Scheduled For Weekend

By JODY RICKETTS
Statesman Correspondent
CORVALLIS—Several houses are planning their annual spring dances for this weekend at Oregon State. At the Alpha Gamma Delta house the New York atmosphere will prevail with the theme "Blue Manhattan." Diane Clough plans to attend.
Vija Lietuvietis and Marian Peterson will be enjoying their annual spring formal which has the theme "Say It With Music." In honor of their senior class the Kappa Deltas planned their annual White Rose Ball, "On the Street of Dreams." Karen Helton, Shirley Ezell and Leanna Seals will be enjoying this dance. A very original theme has been chosen for the Phi Kappa's spring dance this year, "The Fish Formal." Albert Haselbacher will be among those attending.
The spring term Blood Bank is being held this week on the campus. Each term the blood bank comes to the campus and a definite quota is set for the number of pints needed. This term it is 630 pints. Phoebe Lou Braun is Sackett's representative, who is soliciting coeds to give their blood.

Mother's Weekend Plans
Mother's Weekend plans are well under way and a most entertaining agenda has been set. Some of the highlights of the weekend are: the annual Interfraternity sing, the Mother's luncheon, and the Associated Independent Students show, "HMS Pinafore," of which Steve Lee is co-chairman.
The Interfraternity Sing will be conducted differently this year with just a selected group of fraternities singing. There will be five fraternities, and two sororities participating.
Jane Morefield is one of the 15 finalists for the title of Miss Oregon State. The last selection of the five finalists will be next week.
Three Salem students are cast in the Oregon State presentation of "The Solid Gold Cadillac," to be produced May 3, 4 and 5 at the college playhouse.
Kay Shidler is cast as "Mrs. Laura Partridge," Carolyn Whittington is a "little old lady," and Dick Richardson will portray "Clifford Snell." The play is the first speech department production of spring term.
Albert J. Haselbacher and Wayne R. Erickson are two of 30 OSC students who will participate in the mock Democratic convention on the Willamette University campus May 11 and 12. Haselbacher will help represent the New York delegation, and Erickson will be with the Pennsylvania delegation, both from OSC.

Future Coeds Attend Duck Preview

EUGENE—Two South Salem High School seniors, Miss Connie Thorne, left, and Miss Bonnie Starr, right, listen as Miss Patricia Deoney, junior from Salem at the University of Oregon, puts on a record in the University's Douglass listening room. The senior girls were among the many high school students attending the annual Duck Preview on the University of Oregon campus last weekend. Tours of all the campus buildings and social events at the living organizations filled the weekend for the seniors.

Junior CDA Troop Honors Mothers

The Junior Catholic Daughters Troop of seventh grade girls from St. Vincent's School held a mother and daughter tea Thursday evening at the home of Carol Ebner. Mothers were each presented with a gift which their daughter had made for them during their meetings.
The girls presented a musical program including piano selections by Patricia Moretti, Karen Ariz, Vivian Ripp, Judy Angerbauer, and Judy Eivers; a song by Sharon Davidson, Kathleen Degler, Kathy Boaz, Diane McAdams, Roberta Peterson, Carol Ebner, Shirley Durant, Rosemary Manion, and Linda Monner; and Judy Eivers recited a poem.
Mrs. Austin W. Eivers and Mrs. Francis Wasser, counselors for the group, helped the girls serve.
Mothers attending were: Mesdames Maurice Ebner, Cecil Manion, A. J. Moretti, M. A. Ariz, S. H. Ripp, Earl C. Angerbauer, G. F. Davidson, Henry W. Degler, Robert L. Boaz, Owen E. McAdams, Robert J. Peterson, and L. J. Monner.

Emmons Home Setting for Ceremony

The home of Mr. and Mrs. De Emmons on Norway Street was the setting for the marriage of their son, Lowell De Emmons, and Miss Delores Elaine Frink, daughter of Mrs. Fay Frink of Northmouth, on April 20. The Rev. Ernest Campbell of the Salem Bible Church performed the 8 o'clock ceremony before a setting of cherry blossoms.
For her wedding the bride chose a white and gold brocade afternoon gown with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
Mrs. Neil Emmons was the bride's only attendant and she wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Neil Emmons served as best man for his brother.
Mrs. Frink wore a navy blue afternoon dress with gardenia corsage for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Emmons chose a navy blue suit with ginger accessories and corsage of gardenias.
A wedding reception was held at the Emmons home. Miss Fae Erink and Miss Rae Frink, twin sisters, presided at the bride's table.
The newlyweds will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. Fischer to Serve as League Vice-President

Mrs. William H. Fischer of Salem was again elected second vice-president of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League at its "delayed 1955" convention in Denver April 19, 20 and 21, and as such is also historian of this organization. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League is an auxiliary body of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.
The league has 36 districts, 2992 local units, and 161,561 members, located in every state of the union, Alaska, Hawaii, Canada and Caracas, Venezuela. Mrs. Fischer has been with the league since its inception in 1942, and served in various capacities in this district, including that of president for two terms.
The six delegates from the Northwest District report that the convention granted its petition for a separation, enabling Washington and Oregon to form their own districts. Final division will be perfected at the district convention at St. Johns Lutheran Church, Salem, on May 16 and 17.
Among those attending the Denver convention from the Northwest District were Mrs. Fischer, Mrs. G. A. Molden of Seattle, district president; Mrs. Walter Kahle of Forest Grove, vice-president, and official delegate for Oregon; Mrs. Frederick Riess of Washougal, who served on the elections committee; Mrs. Earl C. Muck of Portland, one of the four members of the international Christian Growth Committee, and Mrs. Harold Ottemoeller, wife of a missionary in Nigeria, Africa, who has been on furlough in Oregon.
The next biennial convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League will be held in St. Paul, Minn., in the summer of 1957.

Reception to Fete Margie Drager
