

Sen. Johnson Victor in Texas

Winner JOHNSON CITY, Tex.—U. S. Sen Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) was happy with his victory over Gov. Allan Shivers in battle to lead Texas Democratic Party. Johnson shows headlines of Texas newspaper to Mrs. Johnson, right, and his mother, Mrs. Sam Johnson, standing. (AP Wirephoto).

Welcome Home NEW YORK — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, right, smiles as he is welcomed by Yugoslavia's Joza Brilej, president of the U. N. Security Council, on arriving Sunday from the troubled Middle East. Hammarskjöld is scheduled to report to the Security Council on his successful efforts to arrange a cease-fire between Israel and her Arab neighbors. (AP Wirephoto).

Target? NEW YORK—Former Romanian Princess Ileana, sister of late ex-King Carol, holds candle on steps of St. Dumitru Romanian Orthodox Church Sunday attending Eastern Orthodox Easter service which was postponed because of shooting by sniper. Shots may have been intended for Ileana or the church's anti-communist refugee priest, The Very Rev. Florian Galdau. (AP Wirephoto).

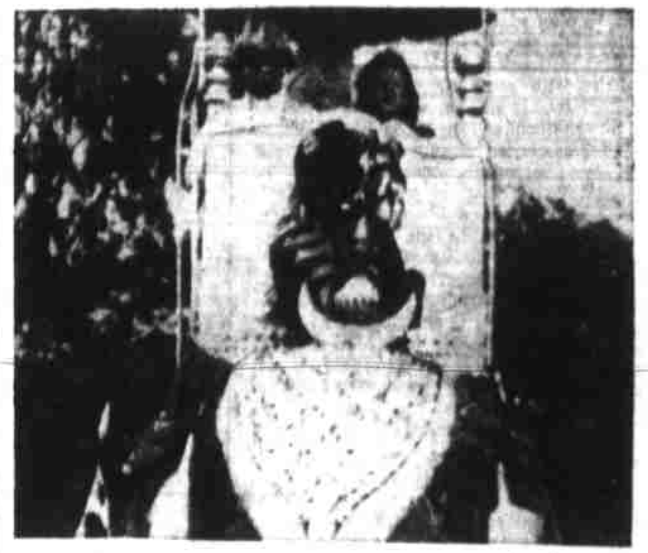

Ready PITTSBURGH—Maj. Charles T. Smith will be a crew member of the B52 Stratofortress which is scheduled to drop a hydrogen bomb in nuclear weapons tests in the Pacific. Smith, 38, was a bomber pilot in the Philippines in World War II and flew bombing missions in the Korean conflict. (AP Wirephoto).

Queenly Footache CHICAGO — Ruth Elaine Conte soaks her feet in a bucket of water Sunday after abdicating as queen of the National Restaurant Assn.'s five-day convention. Miss Conte said "One time around the 4 1/2 miles of exhibits at Navy Pier was enough." Marion Isbell, president of the National Restaurant Assn., crowns her successor, Hanne Lore Oakley, of Chicago. (AP Wirephoto).

Midwest Gets Rain NEW YORK—Precipitation is forecast Monday for most of the southern Plains, lower Mississippi Valley, Gulf Coast states, Florida, the Middle Atlantic states, the Ohio River Valley and parts of the Northwest. It will be cooler in the Northeast and warmer in parts of the Plains. (AP Wirephoto).

Royal Ride KATMANDU, Nepal—King Mahendra I and Queen Ratna Devi travel in high style—on a state elephant—as they arrive at public celebration in Katmandu, Nepal Wednesday following coronation ceremonies for the 36-year-old monarch. (AP Wirephoto).

BLONDIE By CHIC YOUNG

BARNEY GOOGLI By FRED LASSWELL

MICKY MOUSE By WALT DISNEY

BUZZ SAWYER By ROY CRANE

GASOLINE ALLEY By KING

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY By DARRELL McCLURE

RIP KIRBY By ALEX RAYMOND

MOMMY By THE MOSSLERS

DICK TRACY By CHESTER GOULD

