In Salem they are staying at the Senator Hotel.

CARD OF THANKS Words cannot adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us, at the time of our recent bereavement, in the loss of our mother and grandmother, Elsie Killin. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carbaugh and family APPOINTMENT TOLD Gov. Elmo Smith Thursday announced appointment of E. B. Devoe, Medford, as a member of the Jackson County Public Welfare Commission. He succeeds Alfred S. V. Carpenter, also of Medford, who resigned recently.

Appointed

F. Gordon Shattuck, appointed Thursday to a top position with the Oregon public utilities commissioner's staff.

Shattuck to Assume State PUC Position

The appointment of F. Gordon Shattuck as assistant to the Public Utilities Commissioner was announced Thursday by Commissioner Charles H. Helzel.

Shattuck will replace Warren H. Nunn, who has been appointed to the position of director of the new department of motor vehicles.

Shattuck, 46, has been with the Oregon State Employment Service and the Unemployment Compensation Commission since 1940. He has served in various technical and managerial capacities in addition to his present position of personnel director with that agency.

He served two years with the Air Force during World War II. Shattuck attended Washington High School in Portland and received a degree in engineering from Oregon State College. He has done post graduate work in personnel administration.

In his new position Shattuck will be responsible for administrative accounting, procedures, personnel and general services.

Shattuck has been active in the Pacific Northwest Personnel Management Association having served as president as well as regional director.

Leader of World Missions WU Baccalaureate Speaker

Dr. Eugene L. Smith, general executive secretary for world missions with the National Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in New York, has been selected as baccalaureate speaker at Willamette University on Sunday, May 27.

A participant in many international and interchurch conferences, Dr. Smith keeps in touch with leaders in 32 countries where Methodist missionaries are serving and in 10 other countries where the board of missions in cooperation with Methodist churches have established American missionaries.

His travels have taken him all over Europe, Africa and Asia. Dr. Smith graduated from Willamette University in 1934, attended Drew Theological Seminary, and received his doctor of philosophy degree from New York University.

He has been a pastor of Methodist churches in New Jersey and at present he holds the positions of vice president of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S., and chairman of the executive board of its Division of Foreign Missions.

Dr. Eugene L. Smith, New York church leader, will be baccalaureate speaker for Willamette University May 27.

STAYTON—A requiem high mass will be sung in Immaculate Conception Church at 10:30 a.m. Friday for Richard F. O'Connor, state police officer and former Stayton resident, who was shot to death while on duty at Bandon Tuesday.

Interment will be at the Stayton Catholic Cemetery.

O'Connor is survived by his widow and three sons, now living in Coquille; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. O'Connor, Stayton; and 11 brothers and sisters, all of Stayton.

Funeral arrangements are in care of the Weddle Funeral Home.

Driver Hurt Near Detroit

DETROIT, Ore.—Frank Scott, Route 2, Box 32, Sweet Home, was in serious condition Thursday evening at Santiam Memorial Hospital following a one-car accident about 9 a.m. near Brittenbush Bridge, just west of Detroit.

Hospital attendants said Scott received internal injuries and a severe laceration on his head.

State police said Scott was driving west at the time of the accident and apparently crashed into an embankment on the right hand side of the road.

Scott was alone in the car, police said.

Dean Reese's Work Honored

Willamette University's dean of the law school, Seward Reese, was notified this week that a set of functional administrative charts he has prepared will be used as part of a Seminar in Legal Education, sponsored by the New York University school of law this summer.

Law School Administration will be the subject for consideration at the seminar. Reese's charts, which outline the activities of the law dean's office, cover the responsibilities of Willamette University's College of Law administration and will be reproduced and presented to the deans of colleges of law attending the summer seminar.
