Action Promised At High School Festival Tonight

FALLS CITY—A log bucking contest, live donkey rides, and selection of "Queen of the Luck-lamute" will be highlights of the "Spring Frolic" carnival at the Falls City High School Friday from 6-12 p.m. The carnival will also have a real "red" fountain, carnival-style booths with prizes, and a large array of free prizes given by merchants from Dallas, Monmouth and Falls City. About 10 girls are princesses. Late in the evening the girl who has sold the most tickets will be pronounced queen. A parade is planned which will also go through nearby towns. The public is invited.

Youth Groups Make Trips

LYONS—Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts here took part in separate weekend outings. Girl Scouts of Troop 95 went to the coast, doing most of their cooking on the two-day trip at Chapel By the Sea, Nelscott. Highlights of the trip were indoor swimming, a beach hot-dog roast, wading in the surf and a visit to Boiler Bay State Park. Adult leaders accompanying the girls were Joanne Scott, Donna Asmussen and Jacque Smith. Boy Scouts of Troop 81 and their leaders camped overnight on the Robert James property, two miles west of Lyons. Many of the scouts passed requirements in trailing, cooking and nature observation. Adults on the trek included Scoutmaster Richard Scott, Ivan Smith, Frank Sherwood, Glenn Julian, James Wright and Leo Cruson.

Priesthood Attained by Six at Mt. Angel Abbey

By LORETTA E. DEHLER
Valley Correspondent
M. ANGELO—Ascension Thursday, May 10, Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland ordained six young men to the priesthood in Mt. Angel Abbey church. Of the six, five were monks of the abbey and among them was one Mt. Angel youth, Frater Placidus Zach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zach of Mt. Angel.

Vietnamese Priest Ordained

MT. ANGELO—Twenty-seven year-old Doan Cao Ly of North Vietnam became Father Augustine here Thursday. He was one of six ordained as priest. Since he came here four years ago, his parents have fled their native village to escape Communists.

The sixth was a young Chinese, the Rev. Augustine Doan Cao Ly, whose ultimate goal is to return to his native Viet-Nam to do missionary work among his own people. Big Celebration Frater Placidus Zach, whose first solemn high mass will be a big celebration in Mt. Angel on Sunday, entered the first grade of St. Mary's school here as Adolph Zach. He went to Mt. Angel Prep, then to Chicago for a course in a trade school. The following year, 1940 he enrolled at Oregon State College to take up mechanical engineering. Later he studied electronics while serving in the army for four years. He returned to Mt. Angel in 1946. In September, 1948, he entered Mt. Angel Seminary to study for the priesthood. He made vows Sept. 8, 1951 and solemn profession three years later.

15th From Mt. Angel Frater Zach is the 15th priest from Mt. Angel in Mt. Angel Abbey.

The other four were the Rev. Cyprian Conroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Conroy of Salem; the Rev. Joseph Wood, born in San Francisco and reared in Chehalis and Centralia, Wash., who will sing his first mass in Longview, May 13; Fr. Ognatius Groeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Groeger of Portland; and Frater Blaise Turk of St. Rose parish, Portland.

Frater Cyprian Conroy will celebrate his first solemn high mass in St. Joseph's Church, Salem, May 13. Frater Ignatius' first solemn mass will take place in St. Ignatius Church, Portland, and Frater Blaise will offer his first solemn mass in St. Rose

Church, Portland, also on May 13.

Ordned Elsewhere Besides the six ordained at Mt. Angel, nine former Mt. Angel seminarians will be ordained elsewhere. Five will be raised to the priesthood on May 19 by Archbishop Howard at the cathedral in Portland. They include the Rev. Robert Kreuger, the Rev. John Brouillard, the Rev. Martin Senko, the Rev. Hugh Gearin and the John Ilg, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Joseph Ilg of Mr. Angel. All will be ordained for the archdiocese of Portland.

The Rev. Thaddeus Arledge and the Rev. Nicholas Rausch will receive holy orders in St. James' Cathedral, Seattle, also on May 19. The Rev. Lawrence Etchingham will be ordained May 26 at Cheyenne, Wyo., and the Rev. Vincent Lopez in St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco June 16.

Veneer Mill Planned at McMinnville

McMINNVILLE—A "green end" veneer mill is to open in McMinnville in late summer. Articles of incorporation for the firm, DL Veneer Company of McMinnville, have been filed in Salem. Operators of the mill will be Dale and Lowell Sexton who have been logging in the McMinnville area for ten years. The mill will be located on the former Eagle-Worth mill site on South Davis and Linfield Streets.

The mill is expected to employ from eight to ten men per shift. A lathe capable of manufacturing core for both fir and hardwood ply has been purchased by the brothers.

The brothers plan to buy logs on the open market and from thinning in Oregon and California timber lands. Farm woodlots in Yamhill County will also supply the mill with some logs.

Tea Planned At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGELO—A tea for all girls who tried for Girls State and their mothers is being planned by the Legion Auxiliary for Saturday, May 26, at the home of Mrs. Ira Herri-ford, president of the unit. Assisting Mrs. Herri-ford will be Mrs. Dorothy Bisenius and Mrs. Fred Lucht. The auxiliary will again assist with the blood bank which will come to Mt. Angel on Monday, May 21. Mrs. Clifford Norton will be chairman of the canteen and auxiliaries who have volunteered to help are Mrs. Ed Hoffer, Mrs. Lucht, Mrs. Ernest Crowder, Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber and Mrs. Louise Borken-hagen. Another new member was signed up for the unit bringing the membership to 112 which is 8 over quota and an all-time high for the Mt. Angel Auxiliary.

SCHOLARSHIP GIVEN LEBANON—A Crown-Zellerbach teacher education scholarship valued at $2,000 was awarded Thursday to Marilyn Swanson, salutatorian of the graduating class at Lebanon High School. Miss Swanson plans to attend Oregon State College.

Newberg Bid Accepted for Mt. Angel Well

MT. ANGELO—The bid of Harlin M. Huffman, Newberg, to drill a new city well was accepted at a special council meeting Wednesday night, May 9, provided a contract agreement can be reached. The bid is for a 10-inch casing in a 20-inch opening, the intervening space to be filled with gravel. The well is to be dug with a rotary drill. A bond issue for $12,500 to finance the purchase of property and digging the well is to be voted on May 18. The franchise ordinance for

Infant Dies At Sheridan

SHERIDAN—Graveside services for 10-day-old Marcie Ann Smith were Thursday at Green Crest Memorial Park. She was born at Lebanon and is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lennis Smith of Sweet Home; two brothers, Larry Gene and Terry Allen, and two sisters, Jackalin Gail and Debra Marie. Mt. Angel Telephone Co. was read for the third time and accepted by the city. The council also voted to enforce the city ordinance which prohibits storing gasoline within the city limits unless in a tank sunk in the ground and provided with a pump.
