

Storms, Floods Lash Mid-East

Car Flattened PITTSBURGH—High winds and hail storm toppled this garage on to a new car in nearby Duquesne Saturday night. Two people were injured as homes and buildings were damaged. (AP Wirephoto).

Father's Grief CHICAGO—Lee Rausch Sr., right, is comforted by Lt. James McMahan, after leaving coroner's room where he identified the body of his son, Lee Jr., who was found in the Chicago River early Sunday. The 8-year-old boy had been missing since running away from school two weeks ago. (AP Wirephoto).

No Traffic Problem FLINT, Mich.—Two unidentified men use a canoe as made it impossible for cars to travel on many streets. Floods they cross Second Ave. to a cleaning plant which is being followed tornadoes. (AP Wirephoto).

First NEW YORK—Miss A. I. Gordon, 46, became first woman minister of the Presbyterian Church of England Thursday. Miss Gordon, a former science teacher, worked as a missionary in the Far East and was appointed a church sister in 1952. (AP Wirephoto).

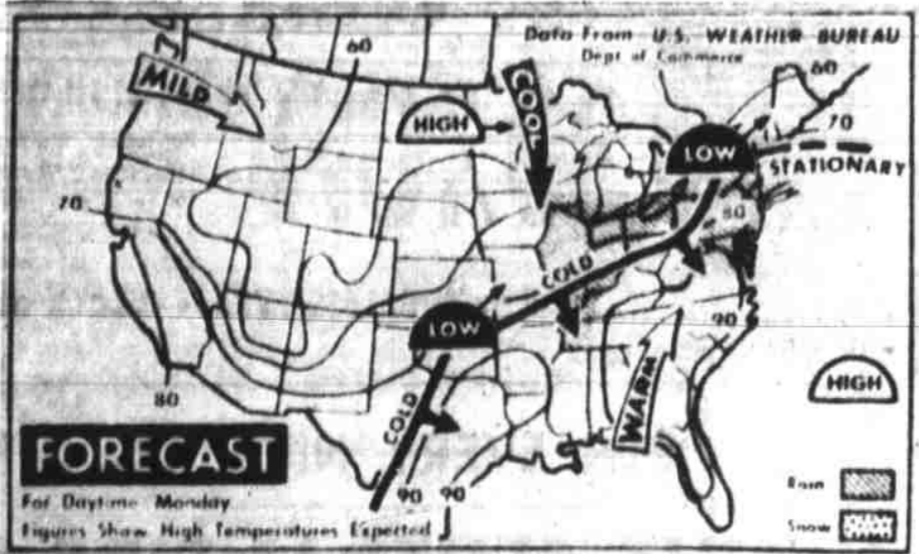

Nautilus in New York NEW YORK—Sailors from an accompanying Navy tug wave as atomic submarine Nautilus moves through upper New York Bay on arriving Sunday from New London, Conn., for its first public display. In background is lower Manhattan skyline. Only nuclear powered vessel has been shrouded in secrecy since the put to sea 16 months ago. (AP Wirephoto).

Tie Vote LONDON—Shapely Iris Waller, left, of Gateshead and Ilona Nelson have good reason to smile after both were declared winners of the "Miss England" contest in London Friday when the judges were unable to make up their minds. (AP Wirephoto).

Runs Away NEW YORK—Elisa Batista, 15, daughter of Cuban President Fulgencio Batista, ran away from a Pennsylvania school Saturday and came to New York, police said. A friend of the Batista family turned her over to police. (AP Wirephoto).

Rain in East NEW YORK—Rain is forecast Monday for the Middle Atlantic states, lower Lakes and part of middle Mississippi Valley. It will be cooler in the New England states, upper Great Lakes, the upper Mississippi Valley, central Plains and parts of the southern Plains. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Quits LONDON—Harry Politt, 65, gave up his post Sunday as British Communist Party boss. He said he was relinquishing the reins as general secretary of the party because of ill health. (AP Wirephoto).

