

Willamette Players Presented 'Oscars'

Academy award "Oscars," Willamette University style, were presented at the Willamette University Players banquet to the members of the drama department at a banquet Wednesday at the Colonial House. Dick Geer of Salem was named

Educator

Former Salem educator, Dr. William C. Jones, will give commencement address at Willamette University June 3.

Dr. Jones to Speak at WU Graduation

Dr. William C. Jones, dean of administration at the University of Oregon, will be speaker at Willamette University's commencement ceremonies June 3 at McCulloch Stadium. From 1929 to 1941 Dr. Jones was professor of business and public administration at Willamette. He became head of the department of political science at the University of Oregon until 1944, when he assumed the position of president of Whittier College. In 1951 he joined the faculty of the U. of O. in his present post.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1900, Jones obtained his B.A. at Whittier College, his master of business administration at the University of California, and his Ph.D. at the University of Minnesota. He has served as merit supervisor of the Oregon State Public Welfare Commission and is affiliated with the American Political Science Association and the American Society for Public Administration.

Indian Lands Sale Bids Opening Set

PORTLAND (AP)—The Indian office here says bids will be opened next Tuesday at the Klamath Agency on 60 parcels of allotted Indian lands. Included are timber, grazing and farm lands. Don C. Foster, area director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, said. Sales, being made at the request of Indian owners, are not connected to termination of federal control over the Klamath. Foster said, although the land is on the Klamath Reservation.

actor of the year for his performance as Macbeth. Honorable mention went to Tom Larson for "Kiss Me, Kate."
Actress of the year trophy was presented to Clarine Woolery of Salem for her performance in "House of Bernarda Alba," while honorable mention went jointly to Beth Church of Oswego for "Kiss Me, Kate," and Sheila Laue of Salem for her interpretation of Lady Macbeth.
The supporting actor Oscar went to George Nelson of Bend, who portrayed MacDuff in "Macbeth." For her Maritino role in "Bernarda Alba," Barbara Ruhle of Salem was named best supporting actress.
Theatre Service Awards, given to those who have contributed the most to the department, went to Wayne Harris of San Mateo and Ruth McCormick of White Salmon, Wash.
Most promising freshman prize went to Beth Guilbert of Berkeley, while the Theatre Production plaque, given to students outside the drama department, was given to Margie Wood of Burlington and Frank Dobbins of Seattle for their work on posters and programs.
Presentation of awards was made by drama director Robert Putnam, followed by tapping for new members of Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatics honorary.
New Members
Selected for membership in the organization were Sheila Laue, Salem; Donna Leonard, Milwaukie; Donna Ruth and Lois Wickersham, Portland; Mary Van Cleave, Silverton; George Nelson, Bend; Ruth McCormick, White Salmon; Ken Renshaw, Burlington; Bob Braddy, Monterey; and Wayne Harris, San Mateo.

Firemen Climb Roof To Find $100 Bill
FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (AP)—City firemen ran up a ladder to a roof here and found neither smoke nor flames.
All they found was a $100 bill. That's what they were looking for.
It was blown out of a woman's hand on a street corner.
Chief Harold Lockwood said his men joined the search to help the woman as she cried out in anguish that it was her first and only $100 bill.

NO WEAPONS RULED
TOKYO (AP)—Japan's International Trade and Industry Minister has ruled no weapons may be exported to countries involved in international conflicts. Syria had been reported seeking weapons in Japan.
