

Braves, Cards Lose Pair; Dodgers Belt Cubs Twice

Cleveland Wins Two; Yanks Top Athletics

Milwaukee and St. Louis lost doubleheaders Sunday, letting Brooklyn move into the thick of the National League battle with a double sweep over the last-place Chicago Cubs.

Pittsburgh's surprising Pirates knocked off Milwaukee 6-3 and 4-0 with Dale Long hitting a home run in each game before 32,346, largest Forbes Field attendance since May 20, 1951.

The New York Giants belted the Cardinals twice, 2-0 on Johnny Antonelli's five-hitter, and 5-2 with Hoyt Wilhelm coming from the bullpen to put down a St. Louis threat in the ninth.

Duke Snider's two-run homer gave the Dodgers the first over Chicago and Sandy Amoros' two-run triple won the second game of a pair of 5-3 decisions.

Phils Redlegs Split
The only split of the day was at Philadelphia where the Redlegs took the first 5-1 with Wally Post and Ted Kluszewski hitting homers in support of Art Fowler.

The Phils won the second 4-0 on eighth inning homers by Del Ennis and Willie Jones. Even in defeat, Cincy hit homers with Ray Jablonski and Frank Robinson connecting in the second game.

Although the New York Yankees beat Kansas City 4-2 with Andy Carey driving in three runs with a homer and double, the Yanks lost a little ground in the American League race.

Cleveland moved up a half game, now trailing by two lengths, on a pair of victories over Baltimore, 6-1 and 5-1 behind Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia.

Boston Belts Chicago
Boston also swept a double from Chicago, 12-5 and 2-1, running the White Sox losing streak to five.

Jackie Jensen hit a homer in the 15th-inning spree in the first game and won the second with a ninth-inning homer.

Elmer
Elmer then goes to Eugene for June 1-23 games with the Erms. Krause, Dunn absent.

Since neither Mel Krause nor Jack Dunn, the Portland school teachers, will be with the Senators until the coming weekend, it is likely that Manager Hugh Luby himself may take over duty of the team.

With both the second baseman and center fielder absent, the Senators will be operating with a short deck during the week. Luby may put Ray Zari on third base and shift Hal Swanson to second.

If he doesn't decide to take over his old spot himself, one that saw him play it for 23 seasons.

Jim Warren will be inserted into the outfield in Dunn's absence. Luby continues to look for player help, and has lines out to the Sacramento and San Diego clubs, and the New York Giants organization.

PCC Bosses Enjoy Day of Rest After Giving Penalty to UCLA

By JACK HEWINS

VICTORIA, B.C.—The Pacific Coast Conference bosses, who cut the athletic legs from under UCLA Saturday with a three-year probation, held a morning session Sunday, reported there was nothing further to report and took the rest of the day off.

They snide UCLA on the muscle and the money bag Saturday. The school, which has swept to conference championships in three major sports this term—football, basketball and track—will take no more titles until after July 1, 1959. It will get no Rose Bowl money during that time—a loss of about $78,000—and it was fined an additional $15,000.

Permitted to Play
The Bruins of UCLA will be permitted to play with the other teams while on probation. And the faculty representatives, who boss this Big Nine of the Far West left no guarantee they would lift the probation in 1959. UCLA will be forgiven only if it can prove it has cleaned its athletic line and is being operated "by personnel in whose integrity the conference may have confidence."

There were no indications that any personnel changes were being made at the Westwood campus of the University of California at Los Angeles.

No Surprise to Allen
The school's two representatives here, Dr. Joseph Kaplan of the official conference family and athletic director Wilbur Johns, were tightlipped.

The administrator of UCLA, chancellor Raymond B. Allen, said in Los Angeles the probationary action was no surprise to him. He urged adoption of "a more realistic code."

The $15,000 fine was assessed, said the conference, because Dr. Allen refused to let commissioner Victor O. Schmidt investigate the UCLA athletic situation.

UCLA was found guilty, the conference announced, of permitting athletes to receive illegal payments of $40 monthly from a representative of the Young Men's Club of Westwood.

This club and another, the Bruin Bench, were put on the conference blacklist until they can give assurance they have reorganized and have named officers acceptable to the conference.

Staff Members Accused
The bill of particulars which came from Saturday's session accused UCLA "staff members" of knowing about and taking part in the illegal activities. It said the infractions had been called to the attention of the school administration without satisfactory action.

The football coaches of the conference arrived Sunday to begin a meeting of their own. The faculty men and athletic directors will meet Monday.

2 Contenders In Top Fight
By JACK HAND
Associated Press Staff Writer
Charley Humez of France and Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, two high-ranking middleweight contenders with designs on a title shot in 1956, re-open Madison Square Garden to boxing after a two-month layoff Friday night in one of the week's top boxing bouts.

Two promising heavyweights collide at Detroit Wednesday when Johnny Summerlin of Detroit and Harold Carter of Linden, N.J., meet at the Olympia.

Winner Eyes Robinson
The middleweights are in the headlines these days because of the Bobo Olson-Sugar Ray Robinson match at Los Angeles last week so two of the leading contenders merit attention. The winner may get a crack at Robinson's title.

Humez, 29, is rated No. 2 in the latest ring ratings and third in the National Boxing Ass'n's rankings. The Frenchman lost a disputed decision to Tiger Jones in his American debut, March 23. He probably will be a slight underdog to Fullmer who has won all three of his 1956 starts by outpointing Buckle-Fast! Jim Gilly.

Ems Edge Tri-City In 7-6 Go

Yakima Splits With Wenatchee

KENNEWICK, Wash.—Eugene doused a late Tri-City threat to edge the Braves, 7-6, in a Northwest League baseball game here Sunday.

The losers had runners on second and third with one out in the last of the ninth, but that's where they still were when the third out was called. Relief hurler Gibby McGlothlin struck out Rick Herrera to retire the side.

Eugene won the game in the sixth with a five-run rally. Three of the scores came when shortstop Frank Mulaney overthrew at first base. Dick Pedrotti drove in one of the runs with his second double of the night.

Catcher Bob Gauthier hit solo homers for the Emeralds in the second and ninth frames.

Broncs Sweep Pair
LEWISTON, Idaho.—The Lewiston Broncs took both ends of a split doubleheader with the Spokane Indians Sunday, winning both Northwest League baseball games by the slim margin of one run, 10-9 and 16-15.

A wild three-hour and five-minute marathon which saw the Broncs go clear through the batting order and then some produced nine big Lewiston runs in the nightcap 16-15 win before 1,086 fans.

A bases-loaded homer by Spokane's Frank DeSouza after four singles and two walks set up seven runs in the only big inning for the Indians.

Manager Joe Rossi drove in seven of Spokane's nine runs as his Indians bowed 10-9 in the eleven inning afternoon game.

Rossi's efforts included a two-run homer and a bases-loaded triple.

Wenatchee Splits
WENATCHEE, (AP)—Wenatchee and Yakima split a Northwest League baseball doubleheader here Sunday, the hometown Chiefs winning the opener, 15-2, but dropping the nightcap, 9-5.

Yakima starter Charlie Drummond struck out eight and went the distance in giving up only five safeties in the afterpiece. However, the Bears were behind, 1-2, when the Chiefs' John Marshall had to leave the game with an injury in the seventh.

After two were out Yakima put two men on base and Herman Lewis hit a three-run homer, 4-3. Yakima added five more runs in the eighth on four hits, a walk and a hit batsman.

Portland Splits With San Francisco

Twinks Sweep Angels Series

Alexander Pitches 2-Hitter for Bevos

PORTLAND, Ore.—Bob Alexander set San Francisco down with two hits to salvage a 2-1 decision for Portland Sunday, after San Francisco had belted out a 12-4 victory in the first game of a Pacific Coast League baseball doubleheader.

In other PCL doubleheaders Sunday, Hollywood completed a sweep of its series with Los Angeles by downing the Angels 4-1 and 3-0; five home runs, including one by winning pitcher Eddie Erant; helped San Diego beat Sacramento 10-5 and 3-0, and Vancouver and Seattle split with the Mounties, winning the second game 8-3 after losing the first, 6-1.

Alexander posted his win in a seven-inning game, and he came within two outs of getting a no-hitter.

Homer First Hit
But with one man out in the seventh, outfielder Tom Umphlett led a home run over the left field fence.

Haywood Sullivan added another hit after two were out. He lined one against the left field fence, but the game ended as he was thrown out trying to stretch the hit into a double.

San Francisco had a big day with home runs, driving five over the left field fence in the opener. Sullivan got two of them. Umphlett also had one in the first game.

New Records Eyed by Sime

RALEIGH, N. C.—Duke's Dave Sime was looking for new track records to conquer today after equalling two established world marks in the Carolina's AAU meet here Saturday.

Sime breezed through the 100-yard event in 9.3 seconds in a preliminary heat. It was his best time to date in the event for the red-haired sonhomere.

He paced off the 220 in the meet finals in 20.2 seconds. Although this matched the established world record, it was a tenth of a second over Sime's record bettering time in the Atlantic Coast Conference meet a week before.

Starting problems which bothered Sime early in the season appeared a thing of the past as the 19-year-old speedster flashed through the 100-yard dash. He won the finals with a time of 9.4 seconds, a tenth over his world record equalling performance in the trials. Each time, he had a comfortable margin of five yards or so on the nearest competitor.

Even with starting difficulties, Sime last winter bettered the world indoor mark for the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.5 seconds.

The Fair Lawn, N. J., youth also has to his credit a world record bettering time of 22.2 for the 220-yard hurdlers.

Sime paced the Duke Athletic Assn. to victory in the AAU meet on the North Carolina State College track.

Other results:
Class B—O. Wooley, Philomath, 98x100; I. Schlegel, 98x100; E. Faist, Portland, 98x100; Wooley won shootoff with 98x100.

Class C—Don Cannon, Salem, 98x100; Class D—Wally Stone, Salem, 96x100.

Handicap—Floyd Malcolm, Alsea, 97x100; runnerup, R. L. Burnett, Hillsboro, 95x100.

Doubles—John Simpson, Portland, 48x100.

Go in after 'em...

It looks now as if the majority of Oregon anglers will have to wait until mid-July before they can depend upon the cooperation of the water and the feeding trout. Snow run-off continues to thwart anglers at almost every bend in the river. And... it doesn't matter which river.

Talked with an angler who was on Wickup a short time ago and he claimed the water so high and spread so wide that the trout were playing leap-frog with the jack rabbits. We saw Wickup not too many seasons ago when it was spread out over an area approaching the size of Texas. Well... almost, anyway. We got bogged down on every side road we tried to negotiate. We finally had to ford about one mile of water axle deep to reach the main road into the Prairie Falls area.

With next Saturday looming as the opening day for the high country lakes there will be quite a load of anglers putting the pressure on what few lakes that will be open for fishing. Many are still covered with ice and snow and it will be a good long time before they are free of the remains of winter.

We will wait until our next column (next Friday) to give a last minute run-down on the lakes which should offer the best chances for the angler bent on getting away from the running snow water. Some of the larger bodies of water should offer some fair bait fishing and trolling. However, unless the picture changes completely the lake fishing may be rated poor come next week end.

Lake Fishing Seems Generally Poor

We have not talked with an angler for some time who had any news but bad on the lake fishing at present. Very few catches are being made from Detroit reservoir, Suttle lake or Odell lake. Other inland reservoirs offer about the same story. Too much water. Water too cold. Fish not biting. Only small ones. Almost any answer but the right one.

Over on the coast the jetty joggers and rock anglers are making some good catches on flounder, perch, kelp, and black sea bass. Nectuxa bay just inside the bar is a good flounder area. So is the bay along the sandspit at Taft. Yaquina bay is producing some fishing when the water is not too rough.

Good catches of perch are being made in the surf near Pacific City and near the mouth of Beaver Creek. Rock fishing at Yachats has been reported good with an angler here and there losing his tackle to some large denizen of the deep.

McKenzie Not Very Productive

The only fly fishing of any importance of which we have any news is on the McKenzie. The McKenzie is slightly high and milky, however, and the fish come few and far between. Most of them are taken in rather shallow water and we believe that the same would hold true on the Santiam. Most of the fish should be in the very shallow riffles where they make the best of what little warmth there may be.

With the water temperatures below normal too, about the only stream insect hatches would be in very shallow riffles where the sun still reaches down and to the bottom and hatch a few insects.

Bait still produces more than artificial flies and even the bait must be dished in a natural manner close to or along the bottom to get best results. So... until the snow is gone and the stream drop to normal, get out your garden hackles and single eggs and go to work.

Long Track Reign by Trojans Finally Ended by Bruin Club

BERKELEY, Calif.—It took who led UCLA to victory. He per-15 years to do it but, finally, the USC Trojans long reign as kings of the Coast Conference track and field competition has come to an end.

The Trojans' cross-town rivals, UCLA, did the trick Saturday at Edwards Field here in the annual conference meet before a crowd of 11,000. At that, the UClans barely edged out the champions, 69% to 67.

This was the first time the Trojans had been beaten in the conference championships since 1928. In the interim, USC had won 15 consecutive team championships.

Johnson Leads Victory
It was Rafe Johnson, world record holder in the decathlon, who led UCLA to victory. He per-15 years to do it but, finally, the USC Trojans long reign as kings of the Coast Conference track and field competition has come to an end.
