YOU BEIN' THE NEW CLUB MANAGER AND ME BEIN' ONE OF THE OLDEST SOLVENT MEMBERS—HEH-HEH—I FIGURED YOU SHOULD GET TO KNOW MY FRIEND OLD JOE MSHUTTER IN THE MEAT BUSINESS...

THE NEW MANAGER'S CLAIMS AREN'T WARM YET, AND EVERY MEMBER IS TRYIN' TO GET A SLICE OF THE CLUB BUSINESS...

EVERY TIME WE GET A NEW HEAD MEMBER THE FOOD GETS BETTER FOR TWO WEEKS—THEN BACK TO NORMAL...

THAT GUY MSHUTTER WAS SENT UP FOR SELLING BAD BEEF DURING THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR...

WE'VE HAD MORE MANAGERS THAN THE PITTSBURGH PRATTIES AND MORE GRANDSTAND MANAGERS THAN BROOKLYN...

ASK ANY MAJOR-DOMO—THEY'LL TRY TO DO IT EVERY TIME...

THINK AND A TIP OF THE HAT TO JOE MSHUTTER, PORTLAND, ORE.

19th Hole News

By BUNNY MASON
Salem Golf Club Professional
And 1956 Oregon Open Champion

Willamette University's golf team is the Northwest Conference champion again this year by virtue of a tremendous team effort. Coach Jerry Long's athletes came through in a manner that would reflect credit on any big-time school team. The Bears have not had a real banner year from the standpoint of dual golf meets, losing to Lewis and Clark, Portland U and Portland State here at home, as well as several other outfits on the road. But when the chips were down the boys came through like real champions. . . . Every player shot good golf, with all six men scoring under 100 for the 36 holes. Tommy Loree had a brilliant 67 in the morning round and coupled with Lowell Fox 73 and Dick Moore's 73 it was all but sewed up. Loree's 143 was good for medalist honors and a deserved win for Tom. . . . The Willamette team shows a very high grade point as well as being a fine collection of medal players. In our opinion the best effort was made by Fox. He 3-putted the 36th green and he would have made the All-Conference team in his second full year of playing the game. That's learning things in a heck of a hurry, if you ask us. . . .

If ever you feel that you are not getting any place with your golf game don't despair. One of our most septagenarian players is just now beginning to shape up after many years at the game. (That went through the courtesy of Don Hendrie, and meaning over 70 years of age.) Fred Ritter, whose vitality and general appearance belies his 73 years, came through with one of those rare eagles Saturday on the 14th at SGC. As eagle that was played just right. He had a 240-yard drive, a 215-yard putt to within six feet of the hole, and then an easy putt for his "3". We can all take heart in a performance like that, for what could be more fun than good golf at an advanced age? In the years when time hangs heavy on the hands of the inactive, the golfing elders are out enjoying the great outdoors and fixing themselves up to live forever.

Harry Collins, who retired from the telephone company here some years ago, plays in weather that would frighten an Eskimo. But Harry looks and feels great. Bill Busick and Ted Chambers have won two hundreds of caddies with their Sunday dawn forays, at times when the pins are frozen to the holes. But they're still at it, and are now trying to wear out our son at our old job. Clint Vincent, Win Needham, Junior Cline, Bob Burrell, Don Blaisdell, Bobby Burns, Millard Groves, Lloyd Davenport, Pat Mikita and a few others are ex-caddies who have been routed out of bed by the Busick-Chambers-Powell combo. . . .

It Wasn't Too Hot for Med Ingram

If you suffered in that 95-degree heat of the past week you had best take a lesson from Med Ingram. Med played the golf of his life at Medford last year in 100 degree weather, and this past week was right down his alley. He shot the tough second nine at SGC two times in scores of 23 and 24, which is mighty good in any kind of weather. But the hotter it gets the hotter Med gets too. . . .

Salem's out-of-town collegiate representatives are going good this season. Bob Prall has led the unbeaten Oregon Ducks in almost every track they've had. Chuck Huggins has had a few hot rounds for the same squad and is doing more than his share to make UO the favorite to cop the PCC title. Al Wood at Oregon State has been playing very well in best-ball with Bob Donnelly, and his individual matches have shown steady improvement. Oregon and OSC should finish 1-2 in the Northern Division playoffs.

Great interest has been shown this week in the forthcoming State Jaycee Tourney to be played June 2. Chairman Stu Smith is doing a great job on the meet and a good field is certain. . . . The State Golf Association Junior Tourney is on tap for June 11 and entry blanks are available at SGC. The old pro will be very disappointed if our kids don't enter this year. Win, lose or draw, it is an experience every golf-minded youngster should have. . . .

Blues Edge Golds In Final Inning

The Junior High baseball league wound up Tuesday with the Parrish Cardinals upsetting the Parrish Grays, 10-2, and the Leslie Blues edging the Leslie Golds, 6-5.

Jim Shires of the Cards limited the Grays to three hits and fanned 12 in hurling the upset win over the league champs. He was given help by Jim Mudd with a double and single, Mitchell Billings with a triple and single and John Jones with a double. Shires also hit 2-for-4.

A double by Dean Westling drove in the two Grays runs in the third.

The Blues won their game in somewhat dramatic style as Jim Johnson belted a double in the 7th to drive in Bob Walker with the game-deciding run. Walker was running for Durwin Fiburn who had singled but twisted his ankle while base-running.

Piburn hit 2-for-3 for the Blues and Pete Melin hit a triple and single for the Golds. Doug McCormack allowed the Golds only 3 hits.

Records at the season's end were Grays 6-2, Blues 5-3, Golds 3-5 and Cards 2-6.

Card Climaxed At Hollywood

Saturday night's first full-scale jalopy destruction derby at Hollywood Bowl here will be climaxed by a demolition bee involving six cars. Valley Sports auto racing promoter Ron All has announced.

The six klunkers will go at it on an everything-goes basis following the Class A main event, and the one still in running condition after the other five are wrecked will be the winner.

Saturday's card will get underway at 7:45 p.m. with time trials and will be run off just the same as any auto racing event at the bowl, with heat temps and main events following the trials and trophy dash.

The Capital Auto Racing Association pilots, who provided last week's thrill-filled and wreck-laden stock hard tops card at the big bowl, will be at the wheels of the jalopies Saturday night.

Saxons Schedule Banquet Tonight

The annual South Salem High Varsity "S" Club Banquet is to take place tonight in the school's cafeteria, starting at six o'clock.

To be honored during the spread are all those Saxon athletes who earned awards during the spring sports campaigns in baseball, track, tennis, golf, etc. Also, the school's "Athlete of the Year" is to be named by a special selection committee. Footballer Neil Sheldon, now a freshman at Stanford U won this award last year.

'Pin Money' Penalties Handed Other PCC Members

The furor arising from the Los Angeles area over the severe penalties against UCLA almost overshadowed the continuing conference session Tuesday.

UCLA drew a three-year probation Saturday, compared with Washington's two-year probation earlier in the month. Both will lose their shares of Rose Bowl receipts for the probation years and will not be able to win any sports titles.

In addition, the conference faculty Monday decreed a year of ineligibility for all 1955 members of the UCLA varsity and freshman football squads unless individual athletes can prove satisfactorily that they did not receive any financial aid above conference provisions.

Knox Denies Any Aid
 Ronnie Knox, the most publicized of the UCLA players, promptly said at Los Angeles that he never received improper aid and was confident he can prove his eligibility.

The conference meeting presumably will continue into Wednesday with lesser matters before it. "The Seattle Times said a faculty representative, who declined to be quoted, said only the lack of documentation precluded stern action against "at least two other schools" at the present session. The newspaper said the two most likely targets are generally understood to be Southern California and Oregon State.

The conference also announced Tuesday that it was tightening control on alumni and booster clubs. All of them are ordered to open their books to the school they support and to the conference.

The torrent of criticism from sports editors, students and Los Angeles followers of UCLA led the school's chancellor, Dr. Raymond B. Allen Tuesday to term the heated reaction as "regrettable." "Nothing in the long run," he declared, "could do Los Angeles more harm."

Coach Red Sanders commented that he would be able to field a football team this fall "but the humane society might take a dim view of it."
